Signs 37 Executive orders in the first 2 weeks as President

"We, the American People" are abject fools if we do not require stringent accountability for people on government payrolls, including, especially, employees or appointees falling under protections aimed at political influence insulation. Media has an article focusing on such accountability, citing a Supreme Court of the United State (SCOTUS) case. Article questions who, actually, runs Washington.

"Even the lion has to defend himself against flies."

~ Anonymous

Media Article In Question Challenges lack of authority for "Our, the American People's" presidents to fire federal employees/appointees who are, supposedly, protected against unfair firing resulting from political prejudice. We are vast idiots if we think for a second political pressure is not prevalent where people with political authority are decision makers. Subordinates, generally, work to satisfy superiors.

Those Of “Us, the American People” working as subordinates for anyone who is an elected or politically appointed official work under expectations our work performance will be consistent with political aims held by such officials. Midia article points out accountability, if not under auspices of whoever one works for, is accountability in name, only. Government answers to us, not to itself.

“ $F \times S = k$ . The product of freedom and security is a constant.”

SCOTUS Justices Are About As Political as a government official can get. Justices are nominated by America’s presidents, confirmed by Congress. Anyone thinking presidents and Congressional legislators are not political likely believes ships can sail off ocean cliffs. We are nuts to expect SCOTUS will be objective where presidential hire-fire power lurks. Presidenta are elected by political power.

The headlines of today lead me to feel that we, as a nation, are a leaning tower of tyranny. Perhaps we are in such a slant as to be leaning at a tilt that is at least at a 70-degree angle and falling down into complete tyranny and slavery of We the People.

No longer do we hear any commentators speak words of protecting Americans, in fact it is quite the opposite. While President Trump is known for his name calling of his adversaries, he doesn't pick a complete group of Americans citizens and trash them, as Hillary Clinton did. She referred to Americans who might want safety and freedom, who might possibly believe in God, and who stand on the Bill of Rights, taking each one literally and seriously, as a Basket of Deplorables, who are irredeemable. And then there was Obama, claiming that "rural Americans" all cling to their God and their guns. I ask him, "What do you cling to besides your ego and your money?" I am however proud to be considered a member of the Basket of Deplorables, I'm not worried about those conceited politicians seeing me as irredeemable, for my Savior, Jesus Christ is my Redeemer!

However, I am concerned that many Americans today are fearful of politicians, media and our government. We have watched in the past several years, as the DOJ has handcuffed and arrested political rivals, while allowing criminals to go free and commit violence against American citizens.

It is also true, unfortunately, that We the People have become dependent on government policies and social programs for the necessities of life: food, clothing, shelter, our health and educational institutions, etc.

Will we not be willing to sacrifice even just a tiny bit in order to secure the future for our grandchildren?

Perhaps it is not only FEAR that keeps us from living as a FREE people!

Perhaps, we no longer LOVE our country. My love for this nation is strong, and I cannot understand why others do not see this nation's unique beauty and love her too. She is not perfect, but she used to be free, safe and fair. Can we not remember those days?

If justice is in the hands of whoever is in power, we are no longer free and there is no justice.

Upgrade to paid

To remain reticent or silent is not the way of a Free People! Tyranny abounds when We the People are apathetic. If we are already living in fear, then we are already under tyranny.

I do not say or write these things to discourage you but to wake you up and call us, all of us, We the People to action. We can no longer ignore the tyranny and evil that is reigning over our sweet America. If we remain so complacent we condemn our children and grandchildren to government slavery.

“Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety.” Benjamin Franklin

“Let them call me rebel and welcome, I feel no concern from it; but I should suffer the misery of devils, were I to make a whore of my soul by swearing allegiance to one whose character is that of a sottish, stupid, stubborn, worthless, brutish man.” — Thomas Paine, The Crisis

Thomas Paine was not so afraid that he should concern himself of another's precious political feelings. I do not believe any of our brave Founding Fathers would have concerned themselves over which pronoun to use for some spoiled, not yet weened or self-reliant, childish adolescent.

Patrick Henry just witnessed a man flogged to death by the "government" (king). Was that to be the future of America? He was not going to allow fear to guide him away from the dream and want of living Free: Liberty!

Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offense, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the Majesty of Heaven, which I revere above all earthly kings....

Patrick Henry - It was at the end of this very speech, that Patrick Henry finished with a profound statement, "Give me liberty or give me death!"

The man Patrick Henry watched being flogged, died of that brutal beating! His crime? He was a minister who refused to take a license from the King. Yet today we have news hosts claiming "Christian Nationalists" are a threat to democracy. Why? Because they believe our rights (unalienable rights) come from God and not from man or government. Are we now to be flogged or imprisoned for believing in God above "king" government?

Nathan Hale, as he was facing DEATH, still valued Liberty and loved his country!! As Hale was led to the gallows, his last words reportedly were, "I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country."

If we today are unwilling to give up the comfort or dollars of government legislated subsidies or entitlements, then we surely love ourselves more than Liberty. If we only care about today and not about the tomorrows of our own grandchildren, then we surely must love ourselves more than them and we place no value on their Freedom! For in our own selfishness we condemn the future generations of America to government slavery as indentured servants on the land! That is not Love! That is not Liberty!

Benjamin Franklin wise old man that he was, laid it out plainly, Freedom or Slavery? Tyranny or Liberty?

The bravery of our Founding Fathers was amazing!

It is in vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace-- but there is no peace. The war is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!

Are Americans too afraid to be Free? Are we too selfish to be Independent? Do we prefer slavery over Sovereignty? Is there no Love for Liberty?

“Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph.”

Thomas Paine, The American Crisis

We the People must no longer stand by silent as we watch American citizens arrested, fired from their jobs, indicted for their opinions by a tyrannical regime, while our children are mutilated and women and children are being trafficked as sex slaves into this nation.

"When the people fear the government, there is tyranny. But when the government fears the people, there is liberty." Thomas Jefferson

As Joshua was facing a mighty battle he declared to his people,

“But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” Joshua 24:15

Being brave isn't easy but it is the right thing to do! "Consent of the governed," as mentioned in our Declaration of Independence, places the responsibility on our shoulders. It's time we took that responsibility as seriously as our Founding Fathers. There are those today, who are standing strong under government persecution and are being prosecuted unjustly by this tyrannical Biden/Obama regime. It is our duty to stand up in their defense.

Pray, speak up and stand up for Liberty and for our God... and Bring America Home.©

"We, the American People" can complain about much lambasted societal 'affordability' until those clichéd cows come home. Life has its costs. If we don't expect to pay for life's costs, then we have to figure out some way to get along without those costs. Or, if we can swing it, get someone else to pay for those costs we think we can't afford. Costs like rent. Costs landlords pass on to tenants.

Imagine if a pregnant lady broke into your house and had a baby in your living room, and then says she now has a legal right to stay in your house FOREVER — that's how insane it is granting birthright citizenship to illegals.

There's A Media Article Floating About questioning whether landlords can pass on costs to tenants as a matter of course. It is not axiomatic landlords can do so. There are limits to pass-through costs, typically, limits specified in lease agreements. Some limits are constrained by jurisdictional regulation. Some legislator-politicians would have "Us, the American People" think they can relieve rental costs.

Rental Properties Are Businesses. All businesses pass costs on to customers. Passed on costs are part of consumer prices. Consumers have choices. Similar businesses compete for consumer dollars. Rental prices are no different, fundamentally. It is up to us, as consumers or as tenants, to decide where we shop and live. Demanding prices go down doesn't change "Our, the American People's" costs.
