"I think that every true reformer, every real friend of liberty, will agree with me in saying that if we must erect safeguards, they should be rather for the security of the individual than of the mass, and that our chiefest care must be to train the majority to respect the rights of the minority, to prevent the claims of the few from being trampled under foot by the caprice or passion of the many."

~ Sir Richard John Cartwright

"Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) has no regard for law anymore. So, maintains a writer for one of America's prominent media outlets. Evidence SCOTUS has no regard for law is exemplified by, says media writer in question, SCOTUS decision asserting presidential authority for undoing federal agencies, namely, federal Education Department (DepEd).

"My mental faculties remained in suspended animation while I obeyed the orders of the higher-ups. This is typical with everyone in the military."

~ Smedley Butler

Writer Denouncing SCOTUS For Acting to discount law notes Congress created DepEd, thus, can recreate DepEd if a president, say, President Donald J. Trump, acts in lawful contempt based on SCOTUS decision, and does away with DepEd. Writer maintains, though, it would be a Herculean task to recreate an agency long established. Not unlike putting a drawn-and-quartered corpse together.

"War is just a racket. A racket is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of people. Only a small inside group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few at the expense of the masses."

~ Smedley Butler

"We, the American People" would be perspicacious to conclude writer in question either disregards or is unaware SCOTUS, like other American courts, is empowered to pass judgement on legislative legitimacy as regards government chief executive authority. Arguably, a DepEd not arming Ame4ricans with knowledge of judicial purview is worthy of scrutiny of its societal significance.

"Let him who would move the world, first move himself."

~ Socrates

It Would be Smart For "Us, the American People" to bear in mind we, a sovereign citizenry, are, provided we are willing to act so, America's fourth governmental branch. Judicial Activism. "Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson is guilty of judicial activism. Says political commentator Larry Elder. Not only is SCOTUS Justice Jackson guilty of judicial activism. According to commentator Elder Justice Jackson admits being so, and considers it her duty to call out SCOTUS when she dissents.

AZ QUOTES

"We, the American People," be we angry or happy SCOTUS Justice Jackson is, in fact, a judicial activist, we would be realistic to acknowledge America's SCOTUS, like virtually every court, anywhere, is made up of magistrates who integrate their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) in their case deliberation. Judicial standards don't exist by other than PAVB practice and majority vote.

"We have defrauded our country to get ourselves elected."

~ John Danforth

Not All Media Coverage Dedicated To SCOTUS Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson sizes her up as an activist out to undermine SCOTUS. Some coverage sees Justice Jackson as sole SCOTUS Justice capable of restoring integrity and judicial purity to SCOTUS. It would be smart for "Us, the American People" to stand by sovereign citizenry as a check on judicial activism. By nullifying biased decisions.

Life's Struggles Causing Atheist To Lose His Faith In The Existence Of Nothing

America's Diversified Social Make-Up is a natural hot bed for socio-economic controversy. Expecting courts to reconcile socio-economic discord is a sure-fire way to exacerbate discord rooted deep in cultural and religious dogma. Court decisions on socio-economic dissention can not be expected to be free of resentment. Court decisions result in winners and losers. Odds are they'll keep fighting.

As a Constitutional Republic, We the People are the government. It was not in our original system to have a large federal government dictating over the citizens from a D.C. ivory tower.

“A Republic, if you can keep it.” Those are the words of Benjamin Franklin after the signing of our new Constitution.

On September 17, 1787, Colonel George Mason refused to sign the Constitution of the United States of America. When James Madison questioned him as to why, Mason replied, “Because it does not have a Bill of Rights.” To which Madison retorted, “But Colonel Mason, we have not given the Federal Government enough power to trample our rights.” His answer was indeed classic and prophetic, “But they will, they always do.”

It was December 15, 1797, when the Bill of Rights was added to our Constitution. Those original Ten Amendments secure our inalienable rights.

In order to Secure the Blessings of Liberty to Ourselves and our Posterity, We the People held the complete deck of cards; The Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States of America and those wonderful Amendments that restrict the power of those who are entrusted with watch care of these 50 States. The dealer owns the cards!

We the People somehow were duped regarding to whom the true power belonged. Maybe, We the People just got a bit lazy and comfortable and simply handed the trusted deck of cards over to those elected to protect and guard it. Perhaps, we were overly trusting!

As a check and balances to keep corruption from taking root, our government was divided into three branches with separate powers. Greed for power seems to have united these branches and they have added to the “governing system” new offices, which deviate from the original intent of our Constitution. They have also invited outside powers of communications to further displace and remove the power and voice of We the People.

They have stacked the deck against us and are draining our Liberty from us.

When the deck is stacked against you, you must assume there has been a fair amount of calculated cheating.

There's an old saying, "Trust everyone, but always cut the cards."

For too long, the American people have trusted the politicians, but we forgot to always cut the cards. Our naïveté and our neglect of duty has opened the corridor of corruption within our own government. Puffed up with power, they cannot get enough. In order to gain more power, they must take your power away. Your rights must be limited, so that they can gain power, prestige, and privilege.

They must protect their power at all costs (to you), and then safeguard themselves from any ramifications of their wrong doings.

They speak of packing the Supreme Court, which is another way of stacking the deck so that citizens believing in the "separation of powers" will have their unalienable rights severely restricted. However, it isn't just the Supreme Court they have influenced. The progressives in our government have long been planning and working at filling government positions and offices throughout this nation in order to get the outcome in the courts that they need in order to move forward with their globalist agenda of breaking America.

Their involvement with foreign nations has never been about preserving Liberty in America! They are a part of a "global society."

They stack the deck before every election! They have built a large and powerful political monopoly using only a two-party system. Using the media, the FBI and other swamp creatures, they hid vital information regarding candidates.

Stacking the Deck!

The American people are on a need-to-know basis, and they will choose what you need to know. “They” will choose for you the candidates they approve and can “work with.” Proof of this was the denying of GOP dollars for candidates chosen by the people during primary races. Mitch McConnell refused to endorse or support certain candidates. He ignored the choices made by the voters during primary elections. He was willing to sacrifice a republican majority in the senate to make sure certain candidates did not “make the cut” during the final election.

I’m not sure the year in history all this began, but to my knowledge (in my lifetime) there have been two elections in which the winner did not seem to be the choice of the elite-swamp in D.C. President Ronald Reagan rallied the Americans and won the primary away from at least nine other republicans. Donald J. Trump also rallied Americans and the American people rallied with him against the D.C. Swamp, and elected a non-politician to MAGA, a phrase also used by Ronald Reagan. However, both these men made poor choices within their administration. They unknowingly brought in swamp creatures, who undermined their policies to actually MAGA. We know now that Ronald Reagan’s VP, Herbert Walker Bush was a globalist and so his family-political nepotism followed. That’s why they hated it so much when Jeb Bush was rejected by, We the People. President Trump’s VP, Mike Pence, was welcomed by Evangelicals but unfortunately, we know now, he supports the FBI’s swamping of President Donald J. Trump.

The political swamp controls the deck and cuts the cards with confusion, violence and lies to divide us as a people. But We the People are the rightful owners of this government; the deck of cards belongs to us! A Republic only works if the People are paying attention and actively working to secure Liberty.

Their undoing will be when We the People realize we not only have the right to “cut the cards,” we actually own the deck. We the People are the true dealers of Liberty!

“When once a Republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the growing evils but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles; every other correction is either useless or a new evil.” Thomas Jefferson

We still outnumber them, but do we outwork them? Their commitment for self-power seems far greater than our commitment to be Free!

It is time We the People closed the corridor of corruption in America. In order to secure our Liberty, we must take our rightful place as the “Dealer” and Bring America Home©.

The name of is spelled Mangione.

We can only mention what we can prove. We cannot speculate about what other people "most likely know". Say that elicits an objection from the opposing counsel: "Objection!, your Honor. The witness cannot possibly know what X knew or did not know. In fact, the witness himself is not sure. He is making only a "most likely" speculation.

If you can gather a group of people that can distribute my flyer when Luigi Mangione is tried in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of NY near the Chambers Subway Station some time in August or September, I would be grateful if you would start persuading them to read my articles and tell you and me whether they are willing to join in the distribution.

Dear Mr. Belluck, Ms. Grays, each of the other commissioners, Chief Judge Wilson, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,[‡]

A. Pattern of preposterous pretense and unresponsiveness to avoid investigating judges and exposing their cover-up

1. I am in receipt of the latest of 11 letters(pages 3-4 infra[‡]) from the Commission on Judicial Conduct(CJC). They bear different “Re: File No.” and dates although they concern the same complaint. Thus, CJC:

a. pretend that they are unrelated;

b. conceals the date when its continuous cover-up started; and

c. misrepresents my complaint as belated even though I filed it contemporaneously with the events.

‡ http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/IAB/25-5-27DrRCordero-Commission Judicial Conduct.pdf

2. I was a grand juror at the Bronx County Supreme Court Criminal Term, 265 E. 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451; tel. (718)618-3700. On May 23 and 24, 2022, I saw ADA Burim Namani, his supervisor, ADA Diana Jetta, and five NYPD officers and detectives present an indictment of two men for murder that had allegedly occurred on or around May 24, 2021, in a street in Bronx, NY City.

a. The evidence presented did not include any photos or footage of the victim; the street crime scene; police, ambulance, medical examiner, or CSI cars, or incident or autopsy report.

b. Only one witness was examined. He testified that the alleged victim was his friend but that he was not with his friend at the time of his alleged murder and did not see it happen.

c. The footage presented was from neighboring restaurants and bodegas, had no sound, and only showed normal indoors and sidewalk business or pedestrian scenes.

d. The presenters relied on the known grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment that lead to their voting indictments based even on insufficient and false evidence. This attitude has given rise to the saying, "A prosecutor can have a grand jury indict a ham sandwich".

3. When given the opportunity to ask questions, I pointed up those facts. The ADAs referred me to Grand Jury Judge Laurence Busching, who summarily discharged me from the jury on 25 May 2022.

4. I stated these facts in a May 26, 2022, eight-page 4,743 words sworn statement -available upon request- and mailed it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood. His secretaries, Dana and Stephanie, acknowledged receipt of my statement, but Judge Yearwood would not take my calls to discuss it. He was remiss in his supervisory duty by referring it to Judge Busching, who foreseeably held himself unaccountable: Without discussion or regard for the harm to the fabricated indictees and me, he dismissed it on the inconsequential fact that the grand jury term had expired.(3↓A1)

5. Since May 28, 2022, I have mailed the complaint to three Court of Appeals chief judges; each of the associate judges; the NYC and NYS administrative judges as well as three NYPD commissioners; three chiefs of the Internal Affairs Bureau; NYC Mayor Eric Adams, who is a former NYPD captain; the respective inspectors general; council members; public advocates and defenders; et al.♠

a. I have emailed my complaint daily to more than 30 officers, as shown by each email's "To:" and "cc:" boxes, so that as of 8 July 2025, I have sent well over 16,000 emails.

b. See my complaints to the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB), which has disregarded them:

2) 2022-13831;

10) Nor did I receive any response after my complaint to Jonathan Darche, Esq., Executive Director of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB), of on or around February 3, 2023(OL3:1561), was forwarded to IAB by its Director of Case Management, Eshwarie Mahadeo, as stated in her/his email to me of August 2, 2024, in CCRB Case #202407652.(OL3:1701a♠)

6. On September 23, 2022, CJC received my complaint against Judges Busching and Yearwood.(3↓B1) The NYS Unified Court System(UCS) identifies both on its website as UCS members(2↓).

7. Yet, beginning with the letter by CJC assistant Lee Kiklier of November 3, 2022(3↓B1), subsequently reaffirmed by CJC Debra Douglas and Clerk Celia Zahner, CJC has informed me that it dismissed my complaint on the preposterous pretense that:

Although the law requires the Commission to review all complaints, please note that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to judges in the New York State Unified Court System, which does not appear to apply to your complaint.

8. I have not received a single response addressing the complaint's merits. That identical no-response for years from so many people duty-bound to enforce the law and administer justice is not coincidental.

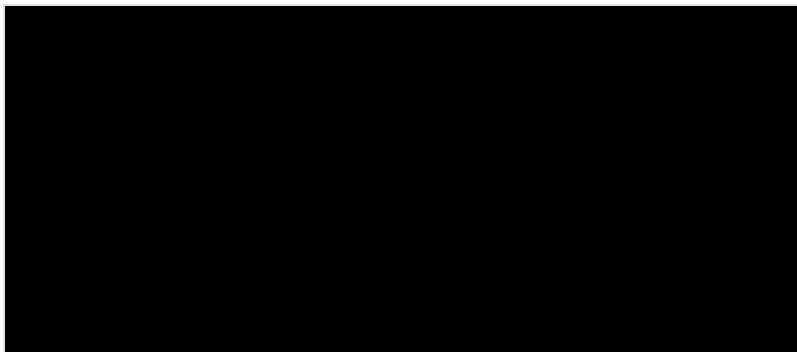

9. Rather, it furnishes probable cause to believe that prosecutors, judges, NYPD, IAB, the Mayor, and CJC are engaged in a cover up of the fabricators of, and accessories to, indictments on insufficient and false evidence. They pursue in coordination through a pattern of corrupt enterprise and racketeering acts the common purpose of lending mutual assistance in evading any investigation.

10. This cover-up continues harming me and the thousands of fabricated indictees who have been and still are incarcerated before and after trial, and financially, emotionally, and reputationally devastated.

a. In "About Belluck Law", it is stated: "We are motivated by justice and driven by compassion."

b. Chair Belluck and the rest of CJC have proved that to be a mere slogan. They are denounced by the teachings of the Bible in John 3:16-18 and James 2:14-26: "Love without acts is dead".

James 2:14-26 NKJV - - Bible Gateway

1 John 3:18 Meaning of Love Is Action Not Words

1 John 3:18 "Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth." Explanation and...

11. In its 11th letter to me(4↓C4), CJC informs me that "it reviews all complaints and decides whether to inquire into them".

12. I respectfully request that:

a. just as a suspect has the right to testify before a grand jury, I, who was discharged from one arbitrarily and capriciously in violation of my rights, be allowed at CJC's next meeting to testify on behalf of fabricated indictees and myself. I offer to make a preliminary presentation to you and your guests in person, if here in NYC; otherwise, via video conference; and

b. I offer to make a presentation to you and your guests in person, if here in NY City; otherwise, via video conference.

B. A most opportune time to expose the coordinated fabrication of indictments and its cover-up: when Luigi Mangione is tried

13. The public has become familiar with a descriptive triptych of words used by Luigi Mangione after he killed United Healthcare CEO Brian Thompson on December 4, 2024, as he was walking to a hotel in Manhattan to address investors: the healthcare insurers' abusive claims evasive tactics, to wit, "delay, deny, defend".

14. Mangione expressed through that triptych and his violent, criminal act his frustration with United: His mother had died because her illness had gone untreated as a result of United delaying and denying her claim for insurance coverage of her treatment.

15. In fact, it has been stated that United Healthcare, the largest healthcare insurer in the U.S., denies an estimated one third of the claims of its insureds. Most of them lack the physical and emotional stamina and knowledge needed to challenge a denial through not one, but rather five levels of administrative and judicial appeals!

16. The public reaction to Mangione's act has been, not of condemnation, but rather of approval. He has been hailed as a folk hero because his experience with United is representative of that of scores of millions of people across the country: They too have been abused by their insurers' claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.

17. Those who already have been abused by their healthcare insurers with the complicity of Medicare and those who now know why they should distrust and be afraid of the insurers, may consider that Mangione has heroically sacrificed his liberty, even put his life at risk, to expose the insurers' abusive tactics and launch a reformatory process that forces transformative change on the insurers' modus operandi.

18. The public has also taken action, donating an enormous amount of money for the legal defense of its hero; see Donations To Luigi Mangione's Legal Defense Fund Surpass \$1M; Ryan Grenoble; HuffPost Latest News; HuffPost; 6 May 2025.

19. Therefore, it is reasonable to expect the trial of Mangione to attract the public and be reported on by the national and international media. They will gather for days, perhaps even weeks, in the courtroom and in front of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of NY in lower Manhattan, NY City.

20. As a result, their gathering will offer a most opportune occasion for exposing fabricated indictments and those who cover them up. I will take advantage of it by distributing to journalists and the public an expository handout and inviting everybody to join or support a class action and report on it.

21. The public and the media are likely to pay attention because I will begin by informing them that it is precisely in that district court where I am prosecuting a case akin to Mangione's, for it is intended to expose healthcare insurers' -including Medicare- "delay, deny, defend" tactics, namely:

22. You can benefit from my motion in that case to have the decision of the district judge reviewed by her fellow district judges. It has a solid foundation in Cornell Law Professor Maggie Gardner's article District Court en bancs. I furnish additional foundation and explain its broad applicability

23. I invite journalists and the public now and will do so during Mangione's trial to visit my website at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. There I post some of my articles, similar to this one, the product of my professional law and business research and writing, and strategic thinking. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 8 July 2025, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 57,126. Visit my site and evaluate its articles.

24. You are welcome to review my three-volume study of abuse of power, titled and downloadable:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:

Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting* † 🍀

25. What is more, I encourage everybody now and will continue to do so during the trial to promote and participate in unprecedented citizens hearings. They are to:

a. be held at university auditoriums and media stations;

b. have professors, journalists, lawyers, multidisciplinary experts, and graduate students as their moderators;

c. afford people wherever they are the opportunity to tell in person and through video conference the story of the abuse that they have suffered or witnessed;

d. present their findings in the first Annual Report on Abuse of Power in America at the first-ever national conference on abuse of power simultaneously held at several university and media venues before live and Internet audiences; and subsequently through a tour of presentations\(§G\) at universities, media stations, public interest entities, etc.;

e. prompt the creation of the Institute for Advocacy of Public Accountability, attached to a preeminent school or news network; and

f. launch the implementation of the plan of action to develop a Me-Too!-like national movement for abuse of power exposure, accountability, and compensation intended to turn academe and the media into a new joint powerhouse of American governance that holds private and public officers and entities accountable for their acts and liable to compensation.

25. This plan is realistic given the Trump administration's executive orders and the vigorous pushback by Harvard, big law firms, and a growing segment of the public. To them must be added principled and opportunistic politicians up for reelection or vying to be elected and facing with trepidation or great expectation the inexorably approaching primaries and mid-term elections.

26. Do you feel confident that the Trump administration will never resort to fabricated indictments to incarcerate you if you say or do what it does not like? More than 250 cases have been filed against the administration's power abusive:

- a. detentions and deportations;
- b. tariffs;
- c. denial of due process;
- d. restrictions' on habeas corpus;
- e. stripping of citizenship birthright;
- f. violations in effect of the right to counsel;
- g. reduction of Social Security and Medicare benefits;
- h. termination of government employees and programs;
- i. cuts in funding to universities;
- j. revocation and no processing of visas;

k. etc.

27. Do you trust that if you fall sick or have an accident your insurer will not evade your claims?

28. The systematic violation of the rule of law; the public mood; this strategic plan; and the available means of implementing it make this a most opportune time to expose the pattern of racketeering and corrupt enterprise acts of fabricating indictments and committing “delay, deny, defend” tactics.

29. Take advantage of this opportunity to protect and assert your and the public’s rights. To begin with, distribute this article as widely as you can; e.g., send it and its link[‡] to those on your emailing list; post it to social media; if you receive it in an email, click “Reply All” and “Send”; etc.

30. I look forward to hearing from you. If you do not receive an acknowledgment of receipt from me within two days, please call me at (718)827-9521. On the interception of emails see OL3:1735¶¶1, 9.
