Pursuit Of ruth As It Relates to serving justice may be disappearing from "Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) deliberative ethic. If pursuit of truth to serve justice ever existed in SCOTUS deliberative ethic. Such question is posed by a celebrated law professor faculty member at one of America's celebrated universities. Courts and professors render opinions.

"[T]he tax code has been piling up, year after year, a symbol of everything gone wrong in America, of arrogant rulers and lost freedom, just waiting for us to pick the whole thing up and heave it away."

~ Richard Armey

Said Professor Questions Whether judicial independence is fading in SCOTUS due professor's perception of a developing fracture is happening between SCOTUS Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson and her fellow SCOTUS Justices. Gist of professor's perception centers on SCOTUS decisions assessed as favoring executive power in cases where President Donald J. Trump's authority is challenged.

"Look not to the politicians; look to yourselves."

~ Richard Cobden

We're going to battle, why do you have a quill pen?

I thought the pen was mightier than the sword? :(

"We, the American People" live under a representative Constitutional republic governmental form whereby government power is, theoretically, at least, divided equally amongst triumvirate judicial, executive, and legislative branches. Justice, thus, in theory, rests with collaboration by these three branches. Collaborative consensus, though, does not guarantee neutrality. History severally notes.

"In a free society, standards of public morality can be measured only by whether physical coercion -- violence against persons or property -- occurs. There is no right not to be offended by words, actions or symbols."

~ Richard E. Sincere, Jr.

It is Supremely Naïve For “Us, the American People” to expect those in positions of lawful authority can, much less will, shed their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) in conducting their lawful affairs. Such elected officials are elected or appointed precisely because they hold PAVB held by voters to serve justice as voters consider justice to be. We seek justice based on our diverse, jaundiced PAVB.

"In the hands of the state, compulsory public education becomes a tool for political control and manipulation -- a prime instrument for the thought police of the society."

~ Richard Eberling

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They protect their security with wolverine-like ferocity.

"We, the American People" have no way of verifying legislative/judicial legitimacy by other than our own personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Notably, because America's representative, Constitutional republic governmental form is operated as much on interpretation as standardization. Adding to our governmental complexity is executive branch option to enforce or ignore law and court.

The FBI never cleans up a crime scene. Never.

So when you see FBI agents hosing down a crime scene after the attempted assassination of President Trump, you know.

You know exactly who did it.

You're just not supposed to say it.

America's Court System – Any court system – can not help but be fraught with never-ending bickering when PAVB-driven stands on controversies are tried in court(s). Judges are people; people have differing PAVB. WE have no basis, apart from oaths taken by judges, to assure court outcomes will be consistent with neutrality and justice free of PAVB-driven adjudication. Law begets winners and losers.

This is Part 4 in a series of five articles which are devoted to the grievances listed in The Declaration of Independence.

Grievance #18

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury.

When we study these grievances and then read our own Bill of Rights, we can understand exactly why each Amendment was considered and approved.

Amendment V

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Amendment VI

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

It matters not if you like or dislike President Donald Trump, we should all expect that he be treated fairly under our laws! If you do not, you do not believe in Rule of Law or in Liberty but are simply a politically selfish individual, who is unwilling to look at both sides of any argument. He has not been treated fairly, and the democrats and their media relished in their unconstitutional trials and accusations against him. They impeached the man three times. Each impeachment is now known to have been based on completely false information and lies; but those who hate the man, choose to ignore the truth.

During the Biden-Harris administration, Rule of Law, speedy trials, and jury trials were denied to many Americans.

Grievance #19

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences.

During this period of time the government made up crimes and then took the colonists all the way across the Atlantic Ocean for trial.

Perhaps we are not (yet) being shipped “beyond seas,” but many of the offences against the J6ers were concocted ones. Several of them were arrested without any charge (guilty of presence). Later the charge given was trespassing. Trespassing in a public building, while being motioned in by a capital policeman! We all watched it happen! ...and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation... (excerpt from Amendment 6 of the Bill of Rights) America, we must not forget these offenses against our Constitutional Republic, or move on until true justice is complete and satisfied. Those individuals who willingly executed and orchestrated these offenses against Americans, as well as President Trump, regardless of who they are or their positions, should be held accountable, in accordance to the law.

Do you see the parallels of tyranny then, and what happened to Americans during the Biden-Harris regime? In the political heat today, would you even dare to sign your name to such a document as the Declaration of Independence?

None of us can truly know how brave we might be under such duress. However, today in these United States of America many of our own have been deemed guilty first, that's not the way our laws are supposed to work in America. We are to be presumed innocent until proven guilty. In other words, the accusers must present facts and proof of their accusation.

Grievance #20.

“For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighboring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries to render it as once an example of fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies.”

This grievance is referring to the Quebec Act of 1774, which expanded the use of French civil law and expanded Canadian borders into what is now the United States Midwest.

Grievance #21

“For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments.”

This is a continuation of previous grievances. The king removed the Massachusetts charter to make his own judges and officers, who were completely independent of the people. As before, the governor was empowered to remove and appoint all inferior judges, the attorneys-general, provost-marshals, and justices of the peace, and to appoint sheriffs independent of the council. The sheriff chose jurors, making trial by jury virtually nonexistent. Local government in the colonies was now gone: Tyranny.

Grievance #22

“For suspending our own Legislature, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.”

Just as he had done in other states, the king suppressed the Legislature of New York. After dissolving Colonial Assemblies, the king assumed the right to make proclamations stand in place of statute laws. Lord Dunmore assumed this right in 1775 as did Sir James Wright and Lord William Campbell of South Carolina. (the king’s loyal men)

Upgrade to paid

On a more recent note: If New York elects the communist-Islamic promoting democrat-socialist, Zohran Mamdani, as mayor, New York will fall! New Yorkers will be subject to Sharia law and women will lose most, if not all, their individuality and rights as American citizens, our Jewish Americans will be subject to horrific crimes and persecutions.

TYRANNY!

It’s time for all Americans to admit and recognize the fact that we are not, and never will be, immune from tyranny. Regardless of which side of the political arena you choose, do you also choose tyranny? For if you are willing to watch others suffer and be treated unfairly and unjustly, you should know this will also be your fate. Tyranny holds no allegiance to anyone! What happens in New York, will not stay in New York!

Our Founding Fathers reached that pinnacle. Tyranny was no longer to be tolerated. The only option was to Declare to the World, so all would know, that they would not remain servants to a tyrannical king!

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life,

Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --

Who doesn't want Life and Liberty? Who doesn't want the independence and freedom to choose their path in life?

Unanimously, the colonies established a Free and Independent America. Still today our legitimate grievances are many. Do we truly hold to those truths? Like our Founding Fathers are we so brave as to stand for Liberty and Freedom?

After the long fought battle for freedom, our Founding Fathers composed a Constitution and established a Constitutional Republic. The preamble should be a call to us today...

“We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

These Founding Fathers had a vision, not just for their present lives, but for the lives of all Americans; as they stated, “our Posterity.” We need to show such love and commitment today... for our own posterity. America's future generations deserve our love and commitment.

It is our right; it is our duty to... Bring America Home©

"At the start of this nation's unique experiment with individual sovereignty and limited government, "Taxation without representation is tyranny" was the watchword of the American Revolution. Today, in contrast, if we dare to startle the more panicky among us by buying a good rabbit gun, the government's there at the cash register to check our papers and seize $46 on every $100."

~ Ralph Reiland

America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) is under fire from some critics for ruling President Donald J. Trump may, in SCOTUS opinion, layoff or fire federal employees. Hard to tell how much taxpayer cost would be avoided of President Donald J. fired every one on America's federal payroll. Payroll is not listed as one of Peter G. Peter Foundation top ten federal government costs.

"Man exists for his own sake and not to add a laborer to the State."

~ Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Wow government, where did you get all that money for the budget?"

Depending On Reference Referenced, federal payroll cost comes to on order of 4-5%. of "Our, the American People's" federal budget. Some references have typical business payrolls at as much as 70% of cost-of-sales. Dollar-wise, federal payroll costs come to on order of $300 billion. Number crunching, in percentage terms, could be argued as insignificant. Related outlay expenses are a different matter.

"In dealing with the State, we ought to remember that its institutions are not aboriginal, though they existed before we were born; that they are not superior to the citizen; that every one of them was once the act of a single man; every law and usage was a man's expedient to meet a particular case; that they all are imitable, all alterable; we may make as good; we may make better."

~ Ralph Waldo Emerson

“We, the American People,” as taxpayers, shell out some 1.35T dollars to pay for Social Security, America’s topmost federal budget expense. When it comes to cost avoidance by letting go federal workers, it would be not so much payroll costs; rather related expenses dispersed by people let go. Much easier to phase out n employee position than to avoid expenditures related to an employee’s job.

"Liberty is a slow fruit."

~ Ralph Waldo Emerson

Cost Avoidance

Given Controversy Over Court Action related to President Donald J. Trump’s socio-economic agenda, it may well be letting go federal employees will be contested by individual lawsuits indefinitely. Meanwhile, uncertainty over how President Donald J. and adversaries will do battle will go on for “Us, the American People.” Unless, we, as a sovereign citizenry, take it on ourselves to resolve disputes.

"A man's library is a sort of harem."

They uphold patient-doctor authority and privacy, their heritage - courtesy America's pesky founding fathers and "frustrating" Constitutions institutionalized to quell tyranny's impatience.

"Nothing is more disgusting than the crowing about liberty by slaves, as most men are, and the flippant mistaking for freedom of some paper preamble like a Declaration of Independence, or the statute right to vote, by those who have never dared to think or to act."
