“Vows made in a storm are forgotten in calms.”

~ Old English saying

“Our, the American People’s” Congressional legislators could have acted to keep America’s Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) from hacking out federal clout. Congress did not so act. Now, according to media coverage, Congress must act to protect free speech. Media coverage indicates, by way of article write(s) Constitutional rights ought not depend on judicial opinion or political maguery.

“If the Tenth Amendment were still taken seriously, most of the federal government’s present activities would not exist. That’s why no one in Washington ever mentions it.”

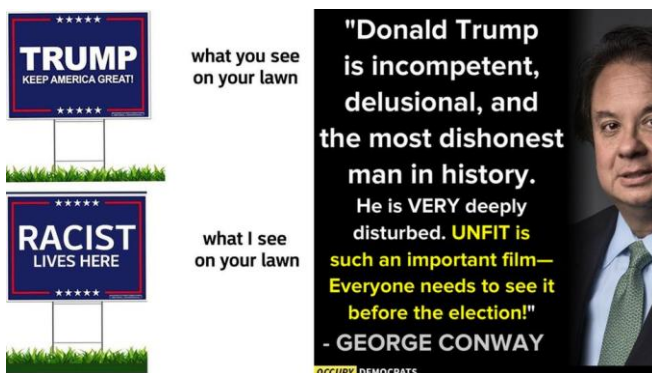

~ *Thomas E. Woods*History

“We, the American People,” who might agree with notions of Constitutionality and unconditional rights protections are hopelessly naïve to think or expect legislators, government chief executives, or judges will restrain themselves for infusing their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) into their decision making and job execution. Allure to exert lawfully compulsory power is too persuasive.

“The problem is big government.”

~ Harry Browne

It Might Be Too Hard for some of “Us, the American People” to accept our representative Constitutional republic governmental form as, no disrespect intended, wishy-washy. Nonetheless, our system allows for legislators to make laws based on their Constitutional empowerment to make laws as they see fit, for government chief executives to sign or veto such laws, for judges to adjudicate law.

~ Yogi Berra

In Final Analysis, Our Legislative, executive, and judicial branches, innately, act on their PAVB with no assurance laws, or court (including SCOTUS) decisions on law will have enduring effect. Enduring effect other than never ending protest, debate, legislative reform, judicial review, and executive action contingent on executive goals and objectives. Remedy, if any, is proactive sovereign citizenry clout.

“A country that goes out of its way to imprison the innocent has no business preaching democracy to the world.”

~ Paul Craig Roberts

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to give quarter to, offer sanctuary to, or negotiate with terrorists. They refuse to live in fear or at risk brought on by “State” policy.

“The problem is that democracy is not freedom. Democracy is simply majoritarianism, which is inherently incompatible with real freedom. Our founding fathers clearly understood this.”

WORK FOR THE NIGHT IS COMING

“Slap some bacon on a biscuit and let’s go; we’re burning daylight.”

READ IN APP ↗

8-30-2024

My granny used to say, “A job started is a job half done,” and I have a lot of those half-done projects, don’t you? When we do finish a project there is a great feeling of accomplishment and peace.

There are lots of expressions having to do with work:

“If a job’s worth doing, it’s worth doing well.” Philip Stanhope, 4th Earl of Chesterfield

Slap some bacon on a biscuit and let’s go; we’re burning daylight. John Wayne in The Cowboys

“A little progress each day adds up to big results!” Satya Nani

“The greatest accomplishment is not in never falling, but in rising again after you fall.” Vince Lombardi

“If at first you don’t succeed try, try and try again.” Robert the Bruce, King of Scotland

“THOSE who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigues of supporting it.” Thomas Paine

Our Founding Fathers were amazing men and women; yes there were many women working for America’s Independence too. Those great men we love to quote did not “work” alone. Many Americans (colonists) were working toward Freedom in America as well. We do not know their names, but they were the most exceptional men and women this world never knew. “We the People” encompasses all Americans!

While We the People are fatigued by our government, have we undergone the fatigue of working to restore our Republic and preserving freedom for our posterity? What work have you and I done lately to preserve and protect this nation for the future generations?

The fatigues we suffer are a constant in our ears and in our lives; just listening to the news, to the politics, to the politicians and their campaign speeches, wearies a body into fatigue for sure. What about that falsified jobs report; they missed that mark by a million! We feel the pain of their bad policies when we pay the HIGH prices in the grocery stores, at the gas pumps, and our heating and cooling bills have gone sky high. Crazy perverted immorality is being forced on us as normal, such as gender transitioning, abortion on demand, as well as up to and even after the birth of the child. We have been sideswiped by the disgusting ridicule of the American nuclear family, Christianity and patriotism. Those who are pushing the ridiculous on all of us are also trying to change and destroy our history. The usurpations of this large, centralized government, for which we now find ourselves under, are growing heavy upon our lives and robbing us of our Liberty.

We the People must work for the night is coming.

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free.”

Ronald Reagan

This large, centralized government is not what our Founding Fathers worked and fought to establish. The accumulation of government power, as they try to merge the branches into one large government, is a systematic tyranny against our Constitutional Republic!

In the words of James Madison: “The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary, in the same hands, whether of one, a few, or many, and whether hereditary, self-appointed, or elective, may justly be pronounced the very definition of tyranny.”

Obama promised to work to Fundamentally Change America. He and his merry band of insurrectionists against our Republic, continue to implement their socialist policies, and their evil culture upon us; none of this serves the American people well. Their work is contrary to our original form of government; the Constitutional Republic, which they absolutely hate. You must understand, they will not stop their evil work; We the People must work to stop them.

The enemy does not rest... he works diligently – but We the People... Well, we have rested too long.

In John 9:4, Jesus said, “I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.” This verse is incredibly important because it contains a strong admonition for every serious Christian. The attitude of Jesus expressed in the scriptures must be our attitude as well.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: 1Peter 5:8

If we do not stand up for Liberty and work to preserve our freedoms – America, as we know it and as the world trusted, will be forever gone.

From bondage to spiritual faith;

From spiritual faith to great courage;

From courage to liberty;

From liberty to abundance;

From abundance to complacency;

From complacency to apathy;

From apathy to dependence;

From dependence back into bondage."

We are in bondage now, but we do not recognize it. Justice has been taken away and replaced with a tyrannical system that favors the governors and not the governed. They do not recognize, nor do We the People understand "Consent of the Governed," as written in the Declaration of Independence, is our call to action; we must work to keep our governors honest and our Liberty intact!

There will be justice; There must be justice! God's justice will be done!

As the angels stand guard over us, (their work is never done) we too must stand guard over our nation and its children.

There is much work to be done.

We must bring to justice all those who have carried out the real insurrection against our Constitutional Republic, those who have gone-after President Trump with lies and false charges, those who have allowed an invasion of enemies into our nation, those who have abused children and others through human trafficking. We must have truth and justice in America or there will be no America. We must have justice for those who have been brutally murdered and for those who have been thrown in prison for speaking against our tyrannical government. We must set our people free! Justice is not revenge; justice brings peace!

This will take strength on our part and a tough love. It will be hard work but the reward of this work is Life, Liberty and Happiness again in America.

“Without Liberty, Law loses its nature and its name, and becomes oppression.

Without Law, Liberty also loses its nature and its name, and becomes licentiousness.” – James Wilson

Work for the night is coming...

“If there must be trouble, let it be in my day, that my child may have peace; and this single reflection, well applied, is sufficient to awaken every man to duty.” Thomas Paine, The Crisis

“Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty.” Thomas Jefferson

We cannot allow the EVIL that is taking over this nation!

Work for the night is coming!

Only We the People can govern the governors. We have been overly trusting, perhaps a bit lazy and perhaps even discouraged, but the time is now come, We the People must work for the night is coming! Do not fear...

“For he will order his angels to protect you wherever you go. They will hold you up with their hands so you won’t even hurt your foot on a stone.” Psalm 91:11-12

Work for the night is coming!

So, America, “Slap some bacon on a biscuit and let’s go; we’re burning daylight.”
