From the Harvard Law Review.

How “Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump’s tariff (trade tax) policies will affect lives of Americans, and people elsewhere, remains a question mark. Reason being, all said and done, consumer willingness to pay higher prices because of tariffs (trade taxes) has yet to be seen at cash registers. A somewhat lengthy foreign media article has it tariff (trade tax) impact is largely speculative.

Media Tariff (Trade Tax) Coverage, by and large, has it President Donald J Trump's tariff (trade tax) policies are not well received. At least, not abroad. Stands to reason. No reason why sellers would want prospective buyers to cut back because government consumer taxation goes up as a result of tariffs (trade taxes). All said and done, tariffs (trade taxes), like any tax, push prices up. Cost-of-sales pressure.

"The man who does not do his own thinking is a slave, and is a traitor to himself and to his fellow-men."

~ Robert Ingersoll

Tariffs (Trade Taxes), Unlike Other Taxes levied by governments as part of selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R), are used by governments to influence government policies governments don't like. "We, the American People," as consumers and a sovereign citizenry, could stop President Donald J.'s tariff (trade taxes), were we willing. Willing.

Competitive Businesses, As A Matter of attaining market edge, naturally look for ways to attract more business than competitors attract. No business can force customers to part with money. Government, using SADLT&R, forces consumers to part with money. Consumers, thus, can, have an impact on taxes. It would be smart for "Us, the American People" to use consumer power to moderate taxation.

Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson is gaining herself a reputation of SCOTUS critic as much as SCOTUS Justice. Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson, media coverage accurate, has a disdain for how her SCOTUS Justices adjudicate cases without considering legislative intent, a practice known as, in Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson's words, "pure textualism."

 PATRIOTPOST.US: THE BEST HUMOR, MEMES, & CARTOONS

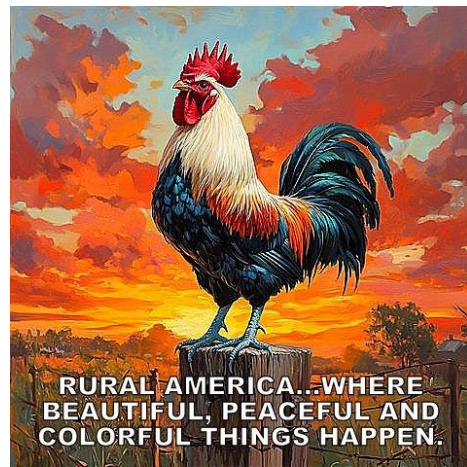

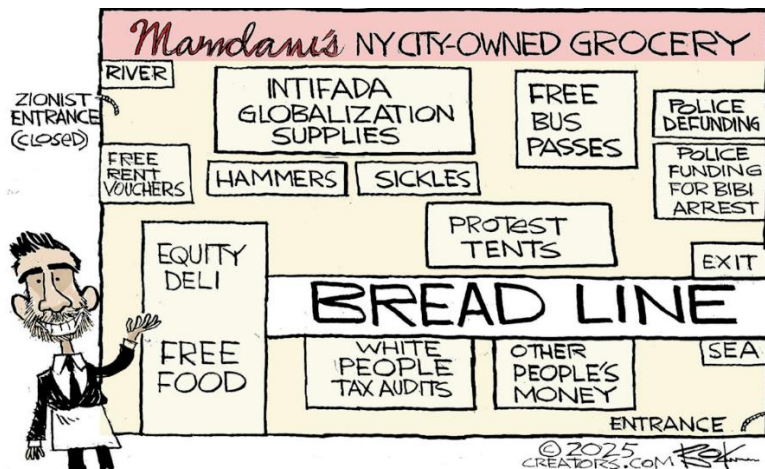

"Our, the American People's" jurisprudence system, given our legislative-executive-judicial triumvirate representative Constitutional republic governmental form is to be impartial, neutral, fair, and consistent, has an all but impossible task. Our laws are under steady challenge when enforced and adjudicated. Arguably, because people view justice with personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"It is becoming increasingly apparent that many—arguably most—of the problems that plague our nation have been aggravated rather than alleviated by federal intervention."

~ ~Robert W. Lee

Media Report Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson has been a sole SCOTUS dissenter some twenty-two times since she took her SCOTUS seat. Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson's proclivity for dissent begs taking her dissent as an expression of her PAVB as she applies her PAVB in calling on her SCOTUS colleagues to, essentially, see statutory intent as Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson's PAVB urge her.

"The real freedom of any individual can always be measured by the amount of responsibility which he must assume for his own welfare and security."

It Would BE Smart For "Us, the American People" to bear in mind SCOTUS judges are presidentially nominated, Congressional Senate-confirmed. There is no reason why political aspirations held by America's president and Congressional lawmakers would not be heavily saturated with political bias. Political bias stems from PAVB. Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson is as subject as anyone to PAVB bias.

7-7-2025

Do you get that strange feeling of pride and sentimentality when you hear our National Anthem? I've heard others claim the hair on the back of their neck tingles, while others say they tear up with love, pride and sentiment for our nation.

How is it that today there seems to be so many who do not feel such pride? In fact, they feel ashamed and express disdain for America.

On the morning of July 4th I turned on the TV just in time to witness weirdos dressed in all black mourning attire, complete with black veils, head covers, black dresses, pants, black shirts; head to toe dressed in black! They took to the street corners claiming to be mourning all the deaths the United States of America has caused.

I'm not sure what deaths they are mourning. Were there wars and death? Yes, that's what war is. While perhaps America has been entangled in wars that we should have stayed clear of, to blame the nation of America alone for death is an absurd notion based on ignorance. America has been a very generous nation helping other nations, providing assistance, healthcare, doctors and food during times of tragedy. These not-so-smart-mourners have no idea of how many lives America saves daily throughout the world! America sends billions of dollars to other nations. Our entrepreneurs and their innovations that rise from capitalism provide lifesaving medical procedures. Have they heard about the “Mercy Ships” which travel to third world countries and provide free surgical and medical care? American farmers feed the world. When was the last time these mourners and protestors witnessed such generosity from Iran, China, Russia or their “beloved” Palestine? (Which in reality is not a nation.)

Other protestors, completely ignorant of history, were carrying signs that said, “No human is illegal on stolen land... or ground,” touting the idea that Americans stole all the land. Is there any nation in the world that has not fought another for a plot of land? America did purchase land and expand our borders increasing our territory. All these deals took place in the 1800s: The Louisiana Purchase of 1803 from France cost America $15 million, which is much of our flyover country. The Adams-Onís Treaty of 1819 purchased Florida from Spain for $5 million. The 1846 Oregon Treaty procured land from Great Britain. The 1848 Mexican Cession from Mexico cost America $15 million. The 1854 Gadsden Purchase from Mexico cost America $10 million. In 1867 America purchased Alaska from Russia to the tune of $7.2 million. Is it stolen land when it is purchased, or when there are treaties or agreements? I’m certain their reasoning is that “Natives” were here first, which is true, but the land had already been claimed by others, from whom America then purchased.

America has been a place of refuge for many, but we do have a right to know and judge the character and reason for asylum seekers. There is no other nation that just allows all people to flood their country, enemies, the mentally ill, and criminals. There is no other nation which changes its laws and language to accommodate “visitors.” Perhaps these protesters against “Trump’s policies” should be brought to the knowledge that the laws he is enforcing are the laws their democrat (and republican) representatives and senators placed in bills and voted into law. They are not President Trump’s policies; they are federal laws written and approved by Congress!

These people are sad selfish individuals. They are ignorant and empty; unable to see the good, and ungrateful to a country that allows them to display their stupidity and hate. They have no patriotism because they have no love.

America is now entering its 250th birthday! President Trump is trying to restore Pride in America today; that's a part of MAGA! In order to make America great, or to do great things for Americans, you have to love your country. It is obvious many on the left DO NOT! That is why they reject anything that is good for America. Whether it is the LEFT-leaning democrats or the America-bashing media, they are the saddest bunch of individuals I've ever seen. However, the majority of Americans are done with these anti-Americans; they are an embarrassment to us all!

American Pride and American Exceptionalism

America is unique; our founding principles are what set us apart from other nations. What are those ideals? Our Founding Fathers, along with our forefathers (Pilgrims) before them, had a vision of men governing themselves, government existing only to be a servant to the people to maintain order and stability. To be governed not by a king or a dictator reigning over them, but government which relied on the people; "Consent of the governed."

America was to be free of royalty and class warfare; All men are created equal!

These new Americans, these men of old, were an exceptional group, and generation, of men and women. They tamed the wilderness and forged a new way of life, free from that king-guy in Great Britain and equal in all ways to their neighbors.

"Government is not reason, it is not eloquence, it is force; like fire, a dangerous servant and a fearful master." George Washington

American Unity!

Our nation is divided because of ignorance and FAKE news. There is no excuse for this division, other than it has been purposefully orchestrated by the haters and shamers. When the LEFT isn't in power, they will call for violence; their rhetoric is that of great division; name calling, lies, and fearmongering is always their strategy. Recently the democrats in Congress claim, “People are going to die!” This is their verbal attack on the Medicaid cuts from the “Big Beautiful Bill,” which is an absolute distortion of what is actually in the bill, in regard to Medicaid.

The LEFT (Democrat Party) would like nothing more than for this nation to be in complete chaos and division. They blame President Trump, but it is always the LEFT calling for unlawful behavior, anger and attacks on all those who are a part of President Trump’s administration. The Democrat Party is anti-American. I do not know the “fix” for this, other than for Americans to wake up and vote each and every one of them out of office. However, that would take a well-informed people, which we do not have in today’s media.

Upgrade to paid

I remember in 1976 when America celebrated its bicentennial - it was a special year! The President was Gerald Ford. We had just gone through an uneasy time politically. The nation needed to rise up from all the crazy Watergate “stuff.”

I’m ready to begin planning July 4, 2026! I’ll do all I can to unite Americans. First, as President Trump says, this nation needs God! We were established as a Christian (Godly) nation and we need to return to those ideas. “Our Constitution was made for a moral and religious people, it is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” John Adams.

Patriotism is knowing the truth about our history and understanding we are not a perfect people but we are a Free People! Patriotism is not being captured in the “group think” clubs. Patriotism is the understanding and respect for Independence and Sovereignty. Patriotism isn’t hate for countrymen, or hate for God. Patriotism is understanding the exceptionalism and wisdom of our Forefathers and our Founding Fathers. Patriotism is love of country and of countrymen; “that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life,

Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed..."

This love of country and countrymen causes patriots to stand for national anthems, to put their hands over their hearts, to recite the pledge of allegiance and to bow their heads in memory of patriots lost.

This quote is sometimes attributed to George Washington, "The thing that separates the American Christian from every other person on earth is the fact that he would rather die on his feet than live on his knees."

But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light... 1 Peter 2:9 KJV

We no longer need that exceptionalism to clear the frontier and forge through uncharted lands, but we do need the exceptionalism of a "peculiar people," who will bow to no one on earth, but are willing to get on their knees in prayer to Make America Great Again and to Bring America Home©

When the waiter is explaining the entire menu and daily specials but u know ur just gonna get the chicken.

It Would Be Easy For "Us, the American People" to see Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson's media-reported rebellion against her SCOTUS colleagues as an effort to have us side with her warnings SCOTUS is straying from it's principal duty, to preserve SCOTUS power to serve and preserve justice. Justice, like beauty, is in beholder eye, beholder mind.

"Freedom to differ is not limited to things that do not matter much. That would be a mere shadow of freedom. The test of its substance is the right to differ as to things that touch the heart of the existing order."

~ Robert H. Jackson

In Theory, An 8-1 SCOTUS Decision would indicate solitary SCOTUS dissenting Justice would not have a grasp on objectivity. Thinking so, "We, the American People" would be lulled into Lemming-Think. There are no SCOTUS decisions free of contest by SCOTUS Justices, SCOTUS followers, lawmakers, academics, ordinary people. Were there such decisions, SCOTUS would have found truth.

"There is no such thing as an achieved liberty: like electricity, there can be no substantial storage and it must be generated as it is enjoyed, or the lights go out."

~ Robert H. Jackson

"Keep The Company Of Those who seek the truth - run from those who have found it" is a quote attributed to Vaclav Havel, last president of Czechoslovakia. Not a few ardent followers of SCOTUS Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson, no doubt, are convinced Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson is dead on by denouncing her SCOTUS colleagues who disagree with her sense of justice. Tyrants claim justice.

"The human race divides politically into those who want people to be controlled and those who have no such desire."

We Would Be Smart To Remind ourselves, when we are contemplating merits of having our personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) made lawfully compulsory, to bear in mind history's notorious dictators and would-be dictators claimed their PAVB were embodiments of truth - sole embodiments of truth.
