Dear Mr. Belluck, Ms. Grays, each of the other commissioners, Chief Judge Wilson, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,[‡]

A. Pattern of preposterous pretense and unresponsiveness to avoid investigating judges and exposing their cover-up

- 1. I am in receipt of the latest of 11 letters(pages 3-4 infral*) from the Commission on Judicial Conduct(cjc). They bear different "Re: File No." and dates although they concern the same complaint. Thus, CJC:
- a. pretend that they are unrelated;
- b. conceals the date when its continuous cover-up started; and
- c. misrepresents my complaint as belated even though I filed it contemporaneously with the events.

* http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/IAB/25-5-27DrRCordero-Commission Judicial Conduct.pdf

- 2. I was a grand juror at the Bronx County Supreme Court Criminal Term, 265 E. 161st St., Bronx, NY 10451; tel. (718)618-3700. On May 23 and 24, 2022, I saw ADA Burim Namani, his supervisor, ADA Diana Jetta, and five NYPD officers and detectives present an indictment of two men for murder that had allegedly occurred on or around May 24, 2021, in a street in Bronx, NY City.
- a. The evidence presented did not include any photos or footage of the victim; the street crime scene; police, ambulance, medical examiner, or CSI cars, or incident or autopsy report.
- b. Only one witness was examined. He testified that the alleged victim was his friend but that he was not with his friend at the time of his alleged murder and did not see it happen.

- c. The footage presented was from neighboring restaurants and bodegas, had no sound, and only showed normal indoors and sidewalk business or pedestrian scenes.
- d. The presenters relied on the known grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment that lead to their voting indictments based even on insufficient and false evidence. This attitude has given rise to the saying, "A prosecutor can have a grand jury indict a ham sandwich".
- 3. When given the opportunity to ask questions, I pointed up those facts. The ADAs referred me to Grand Jury Judge Laurence Busching, who summarily discharged me from the jury on 25 May 2022.
- 4. I stated these facts in a May 26, 2022, eight-page 4,743 words sworn statement -available upon request- and mailed it to Administrative Judge Alvin Yearwood. His secretaries, Dana and Stephanie, acknowledged receipt of my statement, but Judge Yearwood would not take my calls to discuss it. He was remiss in his supervisory duty by referring it to Judge Busching, who foreseeably held himself unaccountable: Without discussion or regard for the harm to the fabricated indictees and me, he dismissed it on the inconsequential fact that the grand jury term had expired.(3|A1)

5. Since May 28, 2022, I have mailed the complaint to three Court of Appeals chief judges; each of the associate judges; the NYC and NYS administrative judges as well as three NYPD commissioners; three chiefs of the Internal Affairs Bureau; NYC Mayor Eric Adams, who is a former NYPD captain; the respective inspectors general; council members; public advocates and defenders; et al. •

a. I have emailed my complaint daily to more than 30 officers, as shown by each email's "To:" and "cc:" boxes, so that as of May 27, 2025, I have sent well over 15,000 emails.

b. See my complaints to the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau (${\tt IAB}$), which has disregarded them:

9) 2025-02823;

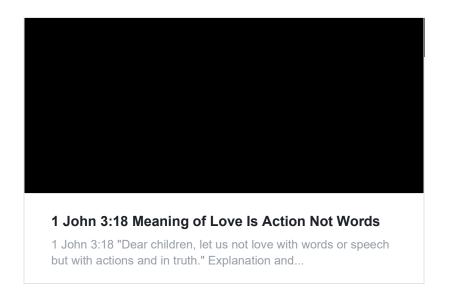

- 10) Nor did I receive any response after my complaint to Jonathan Darche, Esq., Executive Director of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB), of on or around February 3, 2023(OL3:1561), was forwarded to IAB by its Director of Case Management, Eshwarie Mahadeo, as stated in her/his email to me of August 2, 2024, in CCRB Case #202407652.(OL3:1701a)
- 6. On September 23, 2022, CJC received my complaint against Judges Busching and Yearwood.(3↓B1) The NYS Unified Court System(ucs) identifies both on its website as UCS members(2↓).
- 7. Yet, beginning with the letter by CJC assistant Lee Kiklier of November 3, 2022(3↓B1), subsequently reaffirmed by CJC Debra Douglas and Clerk Celia Zahner, CJC has informed me that it dismissed my complaint on the preposterous pretense that:

Although the law requires the Commission to review all complaints, please note that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to judges in the New York State Unified Court System, which does not appear to apply to your complaint.

- 8. I have not received a single response addressing the complaint's merits. That identical no-response for years from so many people duty-bound to enforce the law and administer justice is not coincidental.
- 9. Rather, it furnishes probable cause to believe that prosecutors, judges, NYPD, IAB, the Mayor, and CJC are engaged in a cover up of the fabricators of, and accessories to, indictments on insufficient and false evidence. They pursue in coordination through a pattern of corrupt enterprise and racketeering acts the common purpose of lending mutual assistance in evading any investigation.

- 10. This cover-up continues harming me and the thousands of fabricated indictees who have been and still are incarcerated before and after trial, and financially, emotionally, and reputationally devastated.
- a. In "About Belluck Law", it is stated: "We are motivated by justice and driven by compassion."
- b. Chair Belluck and the rest of CJC have proved that to be a mere slogan. They are denounced by the teachings of the Bible in John 3:16-18 and James 2:14-26: "Love without acts is dead".

11. In its 11th letter to me(41C4), CJC informs me that "it reviews all complaints and decides whether to inquire into them".

12. I respectfully request that:

a. just as a suspect has the right to testify before a grand jury, I, who was discharged from one arbitrarily and capriciously in violation of my rights, be allowed at CJC's next meeting to testify on behalf of fabricated indictees and myself. I offer to make a preliminary presentation to you and your guests in person, if here in NYC; otherwise, via video conference; and

b. I offer to make a presentation to you and your guests in person, if here in NY City; otherwise, via video conference.

B. A most opportune time to expose the coordinated fabrication of indictments and its cover-up: when Luigi Mangione is tried

- 13. The public has become familiar with a descriptive triptych of words used by Luigi Mangione after he killed United Healthcare CEO Brian Thompson on December 4, 2024, as he was walking to a hotel in Manhattan to address investors: the healthcare insurers' abusive claims evasive tactics, to wit, "delay, deny, defend".
- 14. Mangione expressed through that triptych and his violent, criminal act his frustration with United: His mother had died because her illness had gone untreated as a result of United delaying and denying her claim for insurance coverage of her treatment.

- 15. In fact, it has been stated that United Healthcare, the largest healthcare insurer in the U.S., denies an estimated one third of the claims of its insureds. Most of them lack the physical and emotional stamina and knowledge needed to challenge a denial through not one, but rather five levels of administrative and judicial appeals!
- 16. The public reaction to Mangione's act has been, not of condemnation, but rather of approval. He has been hailed as a folk hero because his experience with United is representative of that of scores of millions of people across the country: They too have been abused by their insurers' claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.
- 17. Those who already have been abused by their healthcare insurers with the complicity of Medicare and those who now know why they should distrust and be afraid of the insurers, may consider that Mangione has heroically sacrificed his liberty, even put his life at risk, to expose the insurers' abusive tactics and launch a reformatory process that forces transformative change on the insurers' modus operandi.

18. The public has also taken action, donating an enormous amount of money for the legal defense of its hero; see Donations To Luigi Mangione's Legal Defense Fund Surpass $1M; Ryan Grenoble; HuffPost Latest News; HuffPost; 6 May 2025.

- 19. Therefore, it is reasonable to expect the trial of Mangione to attract the public and be reported on by the national and international media. They will gather for days, perhaps even weeks, in the courtroom and in front of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of NY in lower Manhattan, NY City.
- 20. As a result, their gathering will offer a most opportune occasion for exposing fabricated indictments and those who cover them up. I will take advantage of it by distributing to journalists and the public an expository handout and inviting everybody to join or support a class action and report on it.

21. The public and the media are likely to pay attention because I will begin by informing them that it is precisely in that district court where I am prosecuting a case akin to Mangione's, for it is intended to expose healthcare insurers' -including Medicare- "delay, deny, defend" tactics, namely:

Cordero

 ν .

Secretary of Health and Human Services, Medicare, EmblemHealth [healthcare insurer], Maximus Federal Services [reviewer of insurance claims denials], et al.

[including many of the top officers of the Medicare Appeals Council and the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals (OMHA)];

docket no. 24-cv-09778-JAV;

filed in U.S. District Court, SDNY, on 16 December 2024

http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/ALJ/24-12-15DrRCordero-v-Medicare EmblemHealth et al.pdf

22. You can benefit from my motion in that case to have the decision of the district judge reviewed by her fellow district judges. It has a solid foundation in Cornell Law Professor Maggie Gardner's article District Court en bancs. I furnish additional foundation and explain its broad applicability

- 23. I invite journalists and the public now and will do so during Mangione's trial to visit my website at http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org. There I post some of my articles, similar to this one, the product of my professional law and business research and writing, and strategic thinking. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 19 July 2025, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 57,765. Visit my site and evaluate its articles.
- 24. You are welcome to review my three-volume study of abuse of power, titled and downloadable:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:

Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting* * ...*

25. What is more, I encourage everybody now and will continue to do so during the trial to promote and participate in unprecedented citizens hearings. They are to:

- a. be held at university auditoriums and media stations;
- b. have professors, journalists, lawyers, multidisciplinary experts, and graduate students as their moderators;
- c. afford people wherever they are the opportunity to tell in person and through video conference the story of the abuse that they have suffered or witnessed;
- d. present their findings in the first Annual Report on Abuse of Power in America at the first-ever national conference on abuse of power simultaneously held at several university and media venues before live and Internet audiences; and subsequently through a tour of presentations(§G) at universities, media stations, public interest entities, etc.;

- e. prompt the creation of the Institute for Advocacy of Public Accountability, attached to a preeminent school or news network; and
- f. launch the implementation of the plan of action to develop a Me-Too!-like national movement for abuse of power exposure, accountability, and compensation intended to turn academe and the media into a new joint powerhouse of American governance that holds private and public officers and entities accountable for their acts and liable to compensation.
- 25. This plan is realistic given the Trump administration's executive orders and the vigorous pushback by Harvard, big law firms, and a growing segment of the public. To them must be added principled and opportunistic politicians up for reelection or vying to be elected and facing with trepidation or great expectation the inexorably approaching primaries and mid-term elections.
- 26. Do you feel confident that the Trump administration will never resort to fabricated indictments to incarcerate you if you say or do what it does not like? More than 250 cases have been filed against the administration's power abusive:

- a. detentions and deportations;
- b. tariffs;
- c. denial of due process;
- d. restrictions' on habeas corpus;
- e. stripping of citizenship birthright;
- f. violations in effect of the right to counsel;
- g. reduction of Social Security and Medicare benefits;
- h. termination of government employees and programs;
- i. cuts in funding to universities;
- j. revocation and no processing of visas;
- k. etc.
- 27. Do you trust that if you fall sick or have an accident your insurer will not evade your claims?

- 28. The systematic violation of the rule of law; the public mood; this strategic plan; and the available means of implementing it make this a most opportune time to expose the pattern of racketeering and corrupt enterprise acts of fabricating indictments and committing "delay, defend" tactics.
- 29. Take advantage of this opportunity to protect and assert your and the public's rights. To begin with, distribute this article as widely as you can; e.g., send it and its link[‡] to those on your emailing list; post it to social media; if you receive it in an email, click "Reply All" and "Send"; etc.

One Of "Our, the American People's" major automotive manufacturer's is, according to media, on record as reporting reduced profit caused by President Donald J. Trump's tariff (trade tax) policy. Media coverage notes manufacturer in question indicates company is making adjustments to deal with new trade and tax policies. Would be smart to bear in mind tariffs (trade taxes) are, firstly, taxes.

"Yet the hour of emancipation is advancing....this enterprise is for the young; for those who can follow it up, and bear it through to its consummation."

Tariff (Trade Tax) Increases Will, if other factors remain steady, increase consumer prices. Avoiding price increases when tariff (trade taxes) going up means other costs-of-sales must be lowered. Profit reduction is one way. "We, the American People" would be smart to recognize and acknowledge prices increases driven by tariff (trade tax) increases are government's doing exclusively. Exclusively.

"The boisterous sea of liberty is never without a wave."

All Taxes, Regardless How They Might be named or classified, are paid, ultimately, by consumers. Because government collects tariffs (trade taxes) from importers has no bearing on who pays tariffs (trade taxes). It would be smart g\for "Us, the American People" to remind ourselves there can be no taxes without wealth created by sales. No consumers, no sales. No sales, no import (tariff) taxes.

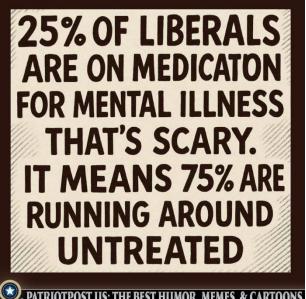

"A society that will trade a little liberty for a little order will lose both, and deserve neither."

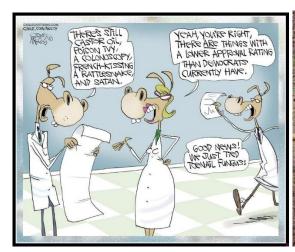

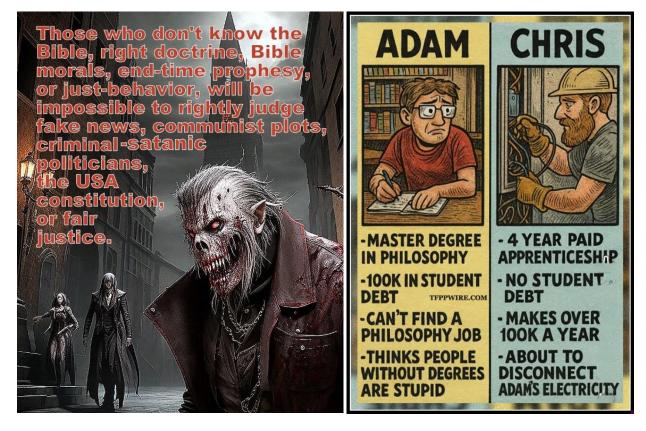

It Would Be Smart for us, as a sovereign citizenry, to keep government hands off imports, apart from serving notice about unsafe products, or products generating funds for terrorists, or like purposes. America business are more than savvy enough to negotiate prices beneficial to company and consumer. Let government negotiate trade terms (and tariffs (trade taxes)), result will be political corruption.

[&]quot;Our liberty depends on freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost."

Dear Frank,

You once sang a song that made all Americans feel like they wanted the excitement of New York, New York. Americans would all sing along and believe they could "Make it anywhere!" However, Frank, your once great city is now a communist city. Democrats have such a strong hold that the city is riddled with crime, criminals are allowed to roam free, and taxes are so high businesses are running away from good old New York, New York.

Your fellow New Yorkers (or their children) are on the verge of electing a communist who wants to abolish all private property, initiate "government-run" grocery stores, tax the rich, and define those who will be taxed by the color of their skin. The city of a thousand tongues can no longer define who they are. They just believe that they never had it good. They are spoiled children who do not realize they are about to vote themselves into serfhood.

So, Frank, I had to change the words and add a few verses to your once wonderful song. It is my hope that those New Yorkers who are sitting around allowing their city to go wholly communist-radical-Islamic-sharia-law-run, will realize they have the power to stop this from happening. New York, New Yorkers need to take back their city and their state and vote every democrat out of office and run them out of their town!

Oh, how I wish you were here to sing this new song to your fellow New Yorkers to wake them up and call them to action... to save New York, New York.

Upgrade to paid

Sing along karaoke style.

New York, Commie New York

Start spreading the news, we're leaving today (I'm tellin' ya Frank)

We want no part of it, Commie, New York.

Our American shoes, they are longing to leave.

We'll step around the crime and thick of it, Commie, New York.

I'd rather wake up in a city that's FREE.

Where there's no king of the hill, just Liberty!

Small towns of red-white and blue, they're the true American way.

We'll make a brand-new start of it, anywhere but here ...

No one can make it here; crime and taxes are higher here.

So we're leaving, Commie-New York, New York.

Say no to Commie-New York!

Frank, your city is gone, it no longer has a song.

Their way is communist; for free people it's not fit.

You cannot wake up in that city, that doesn't sleep...

They'll find your body on the subway, in a heap.

These big city tunes, they've all melted away.

You better believe it, Frank, New York is Commie Trolled.

And I'm gonna make a brand-new start of it, out of New York!

You have a choice you know, New York, New York.

If for Liberty you stand, then New Yorkers you better "Make it Grand."

Stand up for Liberty in New York, New York!

Reject Commie-Mamdani; Zorhan is not a New York man!

Stand up for your town, stop electing democrat clowns.

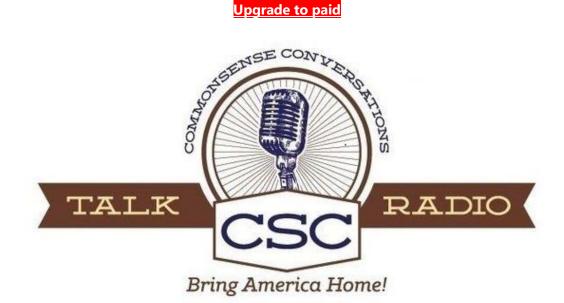

It's time for commonsense again and a Free New York,

Where the glitz and the glam of New York will shine. If you can break 'em there, you can break 'em everywhere...

Come on, let's Free New York, New York!

"To compel a man to furnish contributions of money for the propagation of opinions which he disbelieves and abhors, is sinful and tyrannical."

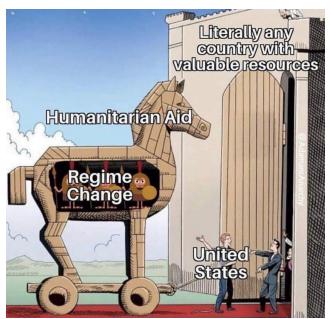

Me realizing that humanitarians eat humans:

"Our, the American People's" Immigration and customs Enforcement (ICE) are reported to have arrested a high-profile individual on charges of violence and gang support. Individual, media coverage accurate, is far from a garden variety petty criminal. Rather, arrested individual is reported to be a U.S.-born doctor who, having renounced U.S. citizenship, was a former Haitian presidential candidate.

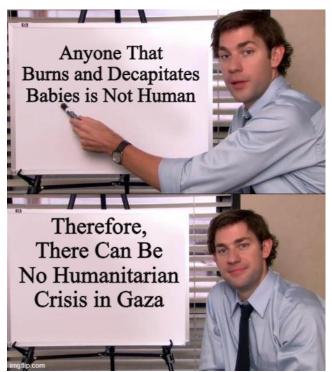

"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies."

Arrested Individual Is One of reported hundreds-of-thousands Haitians brought to U.S soil on a previous Administration humanitarian parole program (HPP). Pinning down verifiable HPP data, including cost to "Us, the American People," as taxpayers is unspecific, despite innumerable references on HPP. As an example, estimated U.S. taxpayer contributions to UN humanitarian aid is $300B,

"In every country and every age, the priest has been hostile to liberty."

~ Thomas Jefferson

President Donald J. Trump's Hailed and maligned crackdown on government fraud, waste, and abuse (FWA) highlighted by Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE), while, in theory, part of presidential executive authority, has been challenged mightily, further making DOGE/FWA accountability tough. America's appellate courts can drag on, resolving HPP cases near irresolvable.

"Our civil rights have no dependence on our religious opinions, any more than our opinions in physics or geometry."

~ Thomas Jefferson

It's All Too Easy For Proponents of HPP-like programs/projects to b rand those who resist such programs/projects as mean=spirited or uncaring. HPP-like programs/projects are backed by taxpayer funding, i.e., to some degree, by people having their property (wealth) confiscated. Why U.S./UN efforts don't focus on upending governments enabling oppression driving HPP matters is ludicrous.

"[The People] are the ultimate, guardians of their own liberty."

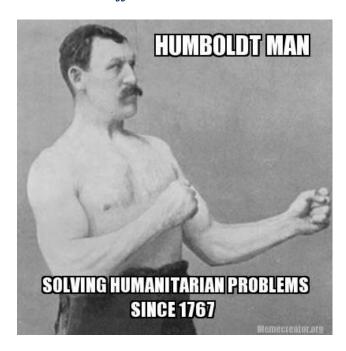

~ Thomas Jefferson

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into contracts with collective bargaining units. They uphold citizen sovereignty to prevent government from imposing debt-laden defined benefit contracts.

"...were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate for a moment to prefer the latter."

~ Thomas Jefferson
