“He that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.”

~ the Bible, Luke 22:36.

Much As It Would Be Nice for hostilities among nations to stop based on Papal urgings. Popes have no practical way of stopping war torn bloodshed. Pope Leo XIV, media coverage accurate, has urged countries involved in Persian Gulf-Strait of Hormuz battleground to stop fighting and return to peace table talks. Scrapping country leaders have no basis to think Pope Leo can be fair-minded or just.

“Among the many misdeeds of the British rule in India, history will look upon the act of depriving a whole nation of arms, as the blackest.”

~ Mahatma Gandhi

“We, the American People” might have cause to think Papal guided peace talks would bear fruit if peace talks to date had brought about lasting hostility cessation. Media reports, along with related energy price fluctuations indicate no side is ready to relent. U.S. forces are committed to keep Hormuz Strait open to shipping, and, President Donald J. Trump, standing by his word, will use force.

“These rights and freedoms may in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.”

~ UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Article 29(3).

God: gives people free will

People: choose to go against god

God:

Pope Leo Is Between A Rock And A Hard Spot when it comes to getting national leaders to abide by his urgings. Popes speak to “Us, the American People” from positions of theological authority. No practical authority exists when it comes to transforming Papal verbiage to street level behavior. There is no basis for thinking Papal urges can be enforced, should peace talk participants opt to break away.

Tenets Of Faith And Preceptes of Constitutions are subordinate to law, be it law based on Faith or Constitution. Survival overrides prospect of cooperation when “Our, the American People’s” leaders, Israel’s government, Iranian regime, or any other nation considers itself backed into a corner by force. Or by peace table negotiation. Deep rooted resentment might take decades to percolate into war again.

It Would Be Smart for “Us, the American People” to require anyone who tells us we will have free things or free services to be crystal clear on from where and from whom funds will come to pay for free things or free services. When government is called on to provide anything, government has to come up with funds to make available whatever is to be made available. Production costs are not free.

“The Government is like a baby’s alimentary canal, with a happy appetite at one end and no responsibility at the other.”

~ Ronald Reagan

Senator Sanders Maintains Healthcare should be a fundamental right. Rights, be they legal, morally intrinsic, or acknowledged by nothing more than demand, can not be denied. If healthcare is to be a right, then there must be healthcare providers to satisfy healthcare needs. Some of us would have to be doctors, whether we want to be doctors or do not. Or medicine producers. Or AI hospital builders.

Speaker Mike Johnson made the comment last week that "The enemy is at the gate." I do not disagree with him, except many of those enemies have already walked through the gate (border) and they are in the process of destroying America. The land of the free and the home of the brave will become a desolate nation plagued with violence, slavery, hunger and death.

Thomas Jefferson warned us: "When once a republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the rising evils, but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles: every other correction is either useless or a new evil."

I'd like for us to dissect this message from Jefferson.

First: His statement did not say when once a "democracy" is corrupted...

Because the United States of America was not established as a democracy; it was established as a republic, a Constitutional Republic. So, when you hear the media and politicians use the word democracy and claim that one or the other is destroying democracy, you are being gaslighted.

Democracy is mob rule. While there is a system of voting, it is always the majority ruling, leaving the minority without a true voice and without Liberty. Our Constitutional Republic established the electoral college. It is only used for Presidential elections. Otherwise, the more populated areas (the large cities) would rule over the rural areas in every election, leaving those in rural areas no true voice.

The fact that the democrat-socialists want to do away with the electoral college, is evidence of corruption. It is not that they do not understand the purpose of the electoral college, on the contrary, they understand it very well and are willing to leave rural America without a voice in governing; no consent of the governed allowed.

Fraudulent uses of federal social programs such as Medicare, Medicaid, Welfare (SNAP) and other programs are without a doubt theft from the American people, and corrupt. However, these programs, as well as many others, have been set up in such a way that they invite fraud. Would a healthy nation really need such large and long-term entitlements?

I contend, however, that these examples are products of fraud and corruption that already exists within our government officials. It is also a fact, that we the people have allowed such fraud and corruption for our own greedy purposes.

Upgrade to paid

Second: Remove the corruption. What then corrupted our Republic?

It was never the intention of our framers that politicians would have a lucrative career as elected officials. It was also not a part of the plan to have lifetime employees of bureaucracy, making policies by way of regulations, forcing licenses, selling permits and “mandating” your life in all cases whatsoever!

(Taxes are taxes no matter their title or purpose)

Career politicians make promises and voters want to be recipients of such promises.

In his farewell address, George Washington warned us that political parties would eventually become a problem. “However [political parties] may now and then answer popular ends, they are likely in the course of time and things, to become potent engines, by which cunning, ambitious, and unprincipled men will be enabled to subvert the power of the people and to usurp for themselves the reins of government...”

Cunning, Ambitious, and Unprincipled Men – I contend to you, is very much bipartisan. I once had a listener who would tell me, “Those who make the laws, use the laws.”

If your career ambition is to be a politician, then you will always be seeking to improve yourself with more power and more personal wealth. The only way to achieve those things is to usurp them from the people you represent.

“Show me a man that gets rich by being a politician, and I’ll show you a crook.” The late democrat President, Harry S. Truman

Have you noticed that most of our elected officials are wealthier than their constituents? And may I add here, if this is now a career, they should no longer get those “breaks” which were designed for them to go take care of their homes and businesses.

Politicians have put in place policies that usually benefit themselves and yes, whatever party with which they are affiliated. We know when Bernie Sanders ran for president, his wife was very well paid as a campaign worker. And we highly suspect Hillary, and the party, bribed him to step down and allow Hillary Clinton to shatter that proverbial ceiling.

It was at the beginning of President Trump's 2nd term that DOGE was created to search for wasteful spending and fraud. The democrats squealed like stuck hogs, and they began their fight to keep their "corruption." This article explains what happened when cunning, ambitious and unprincipled men created policies that were "set" to hide corruption, instead of removing or exposing it. While it divulges much fraud and corruption by democrats, the republicans were far from innocent.

Upgrade to paid

It makes me wonder at times, are We the People just suckers and useful idiots? But aren't We the People greedy and selfish, which plays right into the hands of those career politicians?

Benjamin Franklin and Alexander Fraser Tytler both gave warnings as to why a democracy is not a good form of governance. I believe, if we are honest, we can see the truth of their words.

"A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the majority discovers it can vote itself largess out of the public treasury." Alexander Fraser Tytler

Who is that majority?

"When the people find that they can vote themselves money, that will herald the end of the republic." Benjamin Franklin. Was this what Franklin meant when he commented, "A Republic, if you can keep it..."?

We can point the fingers of corruption to many, but perhaps it is our lack of understanding regarding those original principles upon which our nation was established.

Upgrade to paid

Remove the corruption!

This is our responsibility as citizens; “Consent of the Governed.” Though 250 years have passed, it is still We the People who should be ruling regarding our governance.

It is somewhat an enigma these days with communications being so quick and available that we seem to know our politicians less. Their policies are intentionally a mishmash of lawyer talk, and well... We the People have grown weary and perhaps discouraged.

“It will be of little avail to the people that the laws are made by men of their own choice, if the laws be so voluminous that they cannot be read, or so incoherent that they cannot be understood.” James Madison. Then of course there’s the famous quote from Nancy Pelosi, “First we have to pass the bill and then we will read the bill.” She was not looking out for the Liberty of We the People.

To remove the corruption, we must vote the corrupt out of office. This cannot be done in one election. Voting in a “great” president is not going to fix the corruption in DC, for there are many (both sides of the aisle) who will attack him.

When We the People vote for our own present greedy benefits, we too are corrupt; for we are thieving from our own children and grandchildren.

Restoring the lost principles. Most Americans, I dare say, do not know or understand what our governing principles are; we know the Bill of Rights and those famous words of inalienable rights: Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness; but what about the principles?

The core principles of the United States’ constitutional republic are the rule of law, separation of powers, checks and balances, federalism, and the protection of minority rights against majority tyranny. (Our Founding Fathers believed democracy to be the majority tyranny.) These concepts were designed to prevent authoritarianism, localized corruption, and sudden, passion-driven legislative shifts.

Upgrade to paid

Several years ago, I wrote a series of articles entitled “Our Lost Principles.”

Let me add one final observation to our topic here.

“Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” John Adams

While Obama, and many others in our “government” continue to tell us that we are not, and never were a Christian nation, that is a lie. Our principles are that our laws are based on biblical laws and without those, we will continue to have Cunning, Ambitious, and Unprincipled Men.

Unless we remove the corruption, “every other correction is either useless or a new evil.” In that, I encourage you to get out and vote against every democrat candidate! They are out to destroy our Constitutional Republic and replace it with a tyrannical-Marxist-Islamist cult, which will assuredly bring America down, leaving only death and destruction. There will be no Life, no Liberty and absolutely no freedom to pursue Happiness.

It Is Never Enough. When More is better, too much is not enough. "We, the American People" would be smart to take note – serious note – of a media article reporting a Golden State Congressional House of Representatives legislator says wealth taxes should extend beyond billionaires to said legislator's wealth (property) owners he characterizes as 'centimillionaires.' We can surmise, finally, all taxpayers.

"I have sworn upon the altar of god, eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man."

~ Thomas Jefferson (1800)

It Would Be Smart – Very Smart – for “Us, the American People” to bear in mind taxes – all taxes – are paid, directly or indirectly, by consumers. Consumers create all wealth by virtue of their goods and services purchases. Wealth (property) ownership happens when entrepreneurs sell goods and services at a profit. Investors share in profit (wealth/property generation) by purchasing business market shares.

“I believe we are on an irreversible trend toward more freedom and democracy – but that could change.”

“Our, the American People’s” government (any government) is imperative only to protect people’s rights and defend against aggression. We have, foolishly, let government intrude beyond protecting rights and national defense. Government uses selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R) to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty).

“If you have ten thousand regulations, you destroy all respect for the law.”

~ Winston Churchill

Government Will Not Stop Confiscating property (wealth) or restricting choice (Liberty) until ordinary people, as a sovereign citizenry, stop government from using SADLT&R to exact wealth at government discretion. Movements to tax wealthier people serve as nothing more than initiatives to tax as government sees fit to satisfy government needs. No ordinary person has a similar option. None.

“Tyranny is always better organized than freedom.”
