Nothing Like A Juicy Scandal to brighten one's day. Especially a scandal one of "Us, the American People" thinks might weaken credibility of those we prefer not to have political influence. Media report conservative influencer Candace Owens is being sued for defamation by France President and First Lady. Accusation centers on Owens reportedly claiming French First Lady was born a male.

"Give to every other human being every right that you claim for yourself - that is my doctrine."

~ Thomas Paine

Doubtless, "We, the American People" who one might characterize as open minded couldn't care less if French First Lady was born multi-gendered on Mars. Besides, Candace Owens, in some United States jurisdictions would not be considered to have committed a crime for lying. Politics, being politics, though, all bets are off when it comes to logic and reason prevailing in public social discourse,

"He that would make his own liberty secure must guard even his enemy from oppression; for if he violates this duty he establishes a precedent that will reach to himself."

~ Thomas Paine

Suit Against Candace Owens, In Some 218 Pages, asserts Owens caused substantial reputational and economic damage to France's first Couple. Suit is reported file in Delaware, U.S. by France's First Couple. Hard to say where, if anywhere, suit by France's First Couple against Owens will go. "Our, the American People's" easily-offended diverse culture is sure to have lots of anti-Owens advocates.

"Government ought to be as much open to improvement as anything which appertains to man, instead of which it has been monopolized from age to age, by the most ignorant and vicious of the human race.

~ Thomas Paine

Owens v France's First Couple could fizzle out if there is not enough media-generated interest prompting sizzling outrage from all corners where they who live to be aroused by scandal lurk, ever ready to pronounce their support or protest. Depending on how they choose to have their sensibilities assailed by Owens-French First Couple grapple. Might impact U.S.-French tariffs (trade taxes).

"We, the American People" can never tell for certain when news is accurate, inaccurate, misinformation, disinformation, distraction, or fake. Media reported President Trump and White House staff were caught in a flat out lie by claiming gas was under $2.00/gal in at least five states. A cursory Internet search indicates there were seven states with gas under $2.00/gal. Differing lies.

Be It Accurate, Inaccurate, Misinformation, disinformation, distraction, or fake news, media report a real estate dynast has it housing prices will soar should “Our, the American People’s” cost of money (interest rates) go down. Billionaire real estate tycoon in question has it declining interest rates will unleash a housing boom, but rising prices coupled with rising debt will put America’s economy at risk.

America's Debt Is Running Around 140% of GDP, given figures reported are not inaccurate, misinformation, disinformation, distraction, or fake. Greeks took years to recover. Debt eventually takes its toll.

Our nation was founded on the principle of “freedom of religion.” It was carried on throughout the generations, from the Pilgrims to our Founding Fathers. While none of them were saints, they did believe in the concept of freedom and the Christian faith.

The king was attempting to force his religious views upon the people. For the sake of Freedom of Religion, many, who were known as Puritans or Separatists, decided to leave Britain, and the king, to venture into a new land, an unknown land, a land we now know as America. This was in 1620.

Fast forward 156 years or so, to the time of our Declaration of Independence, 1776. Once again the King of Britain was going to force his religion on the Colonists of America. He decided to put the hammer down on those he believed to still be his “subjects.”

The king had many bullying tactics by which he sought to subdue and control the colonists of America. One particular tactic was to demand the preachers of that day take a license from the king in order to preach. With this, he could control what they said and how they interpreted the Holy Scriptures.

It was in 1775 that Patrick Henry witnessed a man being brutally flogged. As he asked to the crime this man had committed, it turned out that the young man was a preacher who refused to take a license from the king. (There were a dozen pastors that day taking the wrath of the king.) The scourging the young minister received took his life that day. You see, it's always a Holy war.

This sparked the famous speech of Patrick Henry and what now seems a little radical to most Americans, "Give me Liberty or Give me death!" Whoa up there a little, "Come on Man," that's a bit much, right?

"We must fight! I repeat it, sir, we must fight! An appeal to arms and to the God of hosts, is all that is left us! . . . Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God!"
With this, Henry raised his arms and bellowed, "I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty, or give me death!"

Over 150 years had passed and yet still there was a violent conflict with the king over religion, "A Holy War."

...and the revolutionary war began...

I do realize that the Revolutionary War was about many grievances of our Founding Fathers, but you have to admit, the king having Christian pastors flogged to death, is definitely an act of oppression and war!

Fast forward another few years, when on December 15, 1791, our Founding Fathers added a Bill of Rights to the Constitution of the United States of America. The very first Amendment? Freedom of Religion and Freedom of Speech!

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

The God of the universe... our Lord and Savior, is truth and light.... Satan on the other hand... is the ruler of lies and darkness.

Let's stop thinking about right and left or Republican and Democrat (although this will come up in the conversation) and think about these opposites and tell me what you would choose?

Life vs death

Good vs evil

Truth vs lies

Light vs darkness

Liberty vs oppression

Freedom vs slavery

Prosperity vs poverty

The 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence ended that great document...

"We Mutually Pledge To Each Other Our Lives, Our Fortunes, And Our Sacred Honor."

It was then and is yet today a Holy War...

Fast forward to today as we witness that many of the leaders in today's America seem to have a thirst for blood, death, and wickedness. They want perverted sexual behavior to be deemed normal, and they are willing to inflict great harm upon our children!

Perhaps We the People, those of us who are the Children of God, have failed to see the great grievances of what this nation's "government-system" is causing. As they govern contrary to our original Constitution and laws, they are transforming our system of governance into an autocracy (communist) oligarchy, which is systemically bigoted against all that is good. (Against God) The Democrat Party has denied God and even booed Him and removed His name during their conventions.

The Republican Party has not been that radical, but they too believe in the separation of church and state, completely denying that it is the government who is to stay out of the church and not the church out of the government institutions. “Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” John Adams

It is obvious today we are no longer being led by moral and religious people, as they are trying to remove religion from our land.

As they lead this nation down this path of sexual perversion and murder, is it any wonder why the once free country called America is now #1 in human and sex trafficking? Women and children are victims of this horrific slavery. The lack of motivation by our government officials says to me, they are involved and profiting or pleasuring themselves along the way!

They hate God and they have a great “contempt for We the People.”

The left cries out to save and protect democracy, which is mob rule, and in their case, the MOB is the elitists. The elitists believe themselves to be far above and wiser than the rest of us. They do what they do for power and wealth! To enslave others is an act of brutality and power. Once again I say, they hate God and they absolutely loathe you and me, We the People.

On the other hand, we must recognize the fact that they need us! We should grasp this and understand we are not powerless against them! We also need to recognize that we need God! We the People cannot truly govern ourselves lest we first surrender to our Savior.

I might sound a little churchy, but the democrats are coming after you and they are coming after me! It's time we stopped running or hiding and started standing with God and in His Righteousness.

The following headlines are witness to the fact that our government has been seized by the godless and they will stop at nothing to keep his children oppressed and controlled.

~ Thomas Jefferson

"Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) junior-most Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson is having a rough time, as a SCOTUS rookie, seeing eye-to-eye with her fellow Justices. Justice Brown Jackson has bristled against SCOTUS 8-1 decisions with her being a lone dissenter. SCOTUS, by definition, our most judicially erudite body, has to be aggravating to her.

"I had rather be shut up in a very modest cottage with my books, my family and a few old friends, dining on simple bacon, and letting the world roll on as it liked, than to occupy the most splendid post, which any human power can give."

~ Thomas Jefferson

"We, the American People" would be smart to keep clearly in mind America's courts are not bound to serve up justice. America's courts are, in theory, at least, bound to make decisions enforcing law. Courts can, and do, rule on Constitutionality in face of law. Oddly, while America's courts are supposed to be neutral, judges adjudicate by their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"Never was so much false arithmetic employed on any subject, as that which has been employed to persuade nations that it is in their interest to go to war."

~ Thomas Jefferson

It Might Be A Hard Concept for some of "Us, the American People" to digest; it's just not right for courts to be other than absolutely, positively impartial. Factual records indicate otherwise. Courts with multiple judges, including SCOTUS nine Justices, are commonly split in decision-making. SCOTUS ruling 8-1 with Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson dissenting is an example. Justice by majority opinion.

"[T]he flames kindled on the Fourth of July 1776, have spread over too much of the globe to be extinguished by the feeble engines of despotism; on the contrary, they will consume these engines and all who work them."

~ Thomas Jefferson

We Might, As A Sovereign citizenry, prod America's courts to get closer to objectivity by limiting matters to be addressed by courts. Given courts are biased by magistrate PAVB, better courts be forbidden from dealing with matters steeped in PAVB. We have enough trouble with laws created by legislative PAVB, there being no immutable legislative standards. Better ideology out of court.

"I tolerate with utmost latitude the right of others to differ with me in opinion without imputing to them criminality. I know too well all the weaknesses and uncertainty of human reason to wonder at its different results."

~ Thomas Jefferson

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond Constitutional constraint. They exercise self-government to preserve their liberty.
