Media Word His It Canadian Businesses are speaking out on concerns over how “Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump’s tariff (trade tax) policies will affect their viability, and how they will respond. There has been trepidation and dander against President Donald J.’s tariff (trade tax) policy since he first announced his intentions. Those intentions, in short, tax as you would be taxed.

“We, the American People,” if we believe in free markets, will not stand by and allow foreign countries to charge their consumers more for America’s goods and services than they expect America to charge American consumers for foreign goods and services. People who trade goods and services for goods and services, left free of government intervention, will exchange goods and services for mutual benefit.

“WHEN INJUSTICE BECOMES LAW...RESISTANCE BECOMES DUTY.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

It Would Be Smart For 'Us, the American People' – and people in other economies, as well – to stop government meddling in trade, apart from protecting consumer safety, if necessary. Government, first and foremost, does not conduct business, per se. Government, by distorting business costs with taxation, including tariffs (trade taxes), introduces ideological bias in trade. Business focuses on profit.

"So long as we govern our nation by the letter and spirit of the Bill of Rights, we can be sure that our nation will grow in strength and wisdom and freedom."

~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

Businesses, American And Others, left free of government tax policy adulteration, will trade based on cost-benefit objectives. Government taints trade efficiency by seeking political advantage through economic leverage. When a government can have other governments inflict comparatively higher taxes on imports, consumers of higher tariff (trade taxed) country are at a cost-wise disadvantage.

"It is said that power corrupts, but actually it's more true that power attracts the corruptible. The sane are usually attracted by other things than power."

One Of “Our, the American Peoples” Congressional Senate legislators is flabbergasted over Senate democrat opposition party legislators filibustering ‘every’ President Donald J. Trump nominee. Senate GOP Legislators are, as said by media coverage, so exasperated, they threaten Senate parliamentary rule changes. No shock legislators stomp and bray when legislators stomp and bray. Power is at stake.

"You see these dictators on their pedestals, surrounded by the bayonets of their soldiers and the truncheons of their police. Yet in their hearts there is unspoken -- unspeakable! -- fear. They are afraid of words and thoughts!"

~ Winston Churchill

"We, the American People," if we grasp why our fellow Americans seek legislative office, ought not be at all surprised when those we seat in Congressional Senate office are stiff-necked against America's Presidents' initiatives. Notably when America's presidents are opposition party members. Legislators have power to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory.

"The power of the Executive to cast a man into prison without formulating any charge known to the law and particularly to deny him the judgement of his peers is in the highest degree odious and is the foundation of all totalitarian government whether Nazi or Communist."

~ Winston Churchill

There Might Not Be As Much Contention amongst America's legislators, were it not for their lawful power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) as their PAVB press. Legislators, in theory, carry out their duties of office to satisfy will expressed by "Us, the American People" in elections. We are near evenly divided in supporting or opposing President Donald J. Trump initiatives.

"Socialism needs to pull down wealth; liberalism seeks to raise up poverty. Socialism would destroy private interests, Liberalism would preserve [them] ... by reconciling them with public right"

~ Winston Churchill

Congressional Senate Opposition To Presidential initiatives is consistent with federal (U.S./National) Constitution Article II. Section 2, Clause 2. Advice and Consent. Changes to Congressional Senate parliamentary rules may not, in theory, stray from Clause 2. Legislators, though, like anyone and everyone, are PAVB-driven. As error-prone, legislators interpret Constitutionality to fit their PAVB.

"People can only be pushed so far!"

The left seems to have an appetite for violence; they have encouraged the hate for President Trump and his supporters, and they are encouraging the hate of wealthy insurance CEOs.

It's sick and it's dangerous that so many people on the left are attempting to make the (alleged) back-shooting murderer a hero. The coward Luigi Mangione is no hero. His actions saved no lives, and murder changed no bad medical policies. He was not brave enough to face the man (innocent of any wrongdoing to Luigi) ... so he snuck up behind him and shot him; until he was dead!

Yep... that fixes all the healthcare problems in America.

Senator Elizabeth Warren (I call her Lizzy) said this: "The visceral response of people around the country who feel cheated, ripped off, and threatened by the vile practices of their insurance companies should be a warning to everyone in the healthcare system. Violence is never the answer, but people can only be pushed so far. This is a warning that if you push people hard enough, they lose faith in the ability of their government to make change, lose faith in the ability of the people who are providing the health care to make change, and start to take matters into their own hands in ways that will ultimately be a threat to everyone..."

She later tried to retract her dangerous language: "I should have said, 'Violence is never the answer,' – Period!"

But you did say it Lizzy...

The murderer, the excuses for murder by Lizzy Warren, Bernie Sanders, others and the media... "You can only push people so far..."

The confused clanging cymbals of the LEFT don't know the difference between a hero and a thug. Maybe because they themselves are thugs; policy making thugs: Policy makers who don't have to live by their own laws or policies. Mangione is a mentally sick individual, yet the democrats and their buddies on the LEFT want to make a martyr of him; a martyr for what, or for whom... OBAMACARE?

It's interesting that her words seem to allude that perhaps insurance (aka Obamacare) has restrictive and bad policies; "people can only be pushed so far..."

Lizzy Warren seems to "get it" when it comes to being upset over insurance denials, but she and others on the LEFT haven't figured out - that's why democrats lost so badly November 5, 2024...because "People can only be pushed so far..."

None of those complaining about the poor insurance coverages and high costs have equated it to Obamacare. But Lizzy, it is Obamacare that has caused all the stir regarding healthcare! It actually started with Hillary FIXING things! (Whew, America dodged that insane presidential bullet twice!)

BACK IN THE DAY

When an insurance policy (contract) was between the buyer and the insurance company (usually an 80/20 agreement) denials and rejections of treatments were less surprising. (the contract dictated... you knew what was covered and what wasn't...) The contract laid out exactly what was covered and what was not! You got what you paid for in your premium. Less coverage meant a smaller premium. Extended coverage caused a higher premium for you. The insurance agent arrived at your home with his handy-dandy notebook detailing each level of coverage. Do you want or need coverage for pregnancy? Do you want major medical? Do you want accident coverage?

Before Obamacare there was Hillary-care. President Bill Clinton, needing to keep his wife busy and distracted, told Americans that Hillary was good at fixing things, and she was going to fix America's healthcare system.

I was actually working in the medical field during the launch of 'Hillary-care,' with five kiddos in my house under my care. Hillary-care introduced a new insurance language. We had to learn and understand words such as Gatekeeper, copays, primary care physician, and referrals.

Doctors, pharmacies, hospitals, and laboratories signed up with certain insurance companies, and you had to use the ones that were on your list.

Your primary care physician was the Gatekeeper. No matter what was wrong with you; cold, broken bone, UTI, injury, or pregnancy, you had ONE primary physician and he or she would then determine if you needed a specialist, and they would then send out a referral. No longer could you pick up the phone and call a heart doc, or an orthopedist, an OB/GYN, a kidney specialist, or any specialist; no referral - no appointment!

Then along came Obamacare!

Upgrade to paid

Upgrade to paid

If you like your doctor you can keep your doctor, was the lie that was fed to We the People. It wasn't true with Hillary-care, and it was not and still is not true with Obamacare.

No longer is your insurance coverage between you and the insurer. Now it's all regulated by government bureaucracy. If they all came to your home to sell their product you'd have a crowded kitchen table. New actors on board; your insurance company, big pharma, hospitals, pharmacies, laboratories, your doctor, and the specialist doctors; all now teamed up for your healthcare. This not only makes your care more expensive; your healthcare is also controlled! They should title it "Controlled Care." This large team, regulated by government, controls all your healthcare treatments. Your health is no longer between you and your doctor; it is under the scrutiny of many people in high-rise offices wearing expensive suits.

It became health control-management NOT healthcare!

Senators Bernie Sanders, Lizzy and the media focused on the wealth of the CEO murdered. The rhetoric of “people can only be pushed so far,” was just that; rhetoric-clanging cymbals. They aren’t concerned about the frustration people have with their healthcare maze; they were upset that the CEO was very well paid for his work with United Healthcare. You see, the elites don’t want Americans to be profitable. What they truly want for all of America (except for them) is Socialized Medicine.

We all want to blame the health insurance companies, BUT... that blame might be slightly (not entirely) misplaced: Am I correct Lizzy?

It’s called Obamacare (government regulated healthcare) and Senator Lizzy loves it! She promoted Obamacare, and she voted for Obamacare. She will promote and vote for socialized medicine over and over again, because she is a socialist and not an American who believes in capitalism.

So, why would people be upset, Lizzy? Why are Americans upset with your perfectly affordable Obamacare?

She’ll never admit it, none of them will, but you see, what they are after is 100% socialized medicine. Yep, more bureaucracy; that is always the democrat fix, and that is always why things get worse!

Like you said Lizzy, “people can only be pushed so far...” ...before they begin pushing back by voting NO on all your stupid, unconstitutional, unaffordable government programs!
