“A law is not a law without coercion behind it.”

~ James A. Garfield

An Informed Public May Be tyranny’s worst enemy. “We, the American People,” supposedly an informed public, represent an additional problem for tyrannical government. We are armed to those proverbial teeth. Working for tyranny would be those who would disallow private firearm ownership. People prepared to shoot back – or fire first, if need be – are less easily browbeaten by despotism.

“You have undertaken to cheat me. I won’t sue you, for the law is too slow. I’ll ruin you.”

~ Cornelius Vanderbilt

Government, Despite “Our, the American People’s” need for government to protect America’s shore, borders, and freedom (such as our freedom is) operates by, fundamentally, restricting choice (Liberty). America’s government funding is accomplished through selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). SADLT&R lets government control all wealth.

“If we desire respect for the law, we must first make the law respectable.”

~ Louis D. Brandeis

America’s Government Is One Of Self-Government, given America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state governments’ Constitutions are to be taken seriously about government being in a sovereign citizenry’s hands – in hands of people to whom government answers, not vice versa. Public officials, however, elected or appointed, presume entire lawful authority over ordinary people.

“We all know here that the law is the most powerful of schools for the imagination. No poet ever interpreted nature as freely as a lawyer interprets the truth.”

~ Jean Giraudoux

It Wouldn't Matter To "Us, the American People" who was President, or elected to any office, or sits on any court if Americans exercised their sovereign citizenry power to assure self-government is enforced. Laws, liberating and suppressive, are impotent when people reject them as illegitimate and set them aside. America's Constitutions empower legislators to interpret Constitutionality as they like.

"There are not enough jails, not enough police, not enough courts to enforce a law not supported by the people.

~ Hubert H. Humphrey

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to subsidize private enterprise with public money. They uphold free markets.

"Never forget the power of silence, that massively disconcerting pause which goes on and on and may at last induce an opponent to babble and backtrack nervously."

~ Lance Morrow

“All mankind... being all equal and independent, no one ought to harm another in his life, health, liberty or possessions.”

~ John Locke

Congressional Redistricting Takes Place after “Our, the American People’s” ten-year census. Purpose, officially-stated, to assure equal representation in Congressional House of Representatives in each of America’s Congressional 435 voting districts. Back in 1812 some legislators concocted a plan for drawing Congressional voting districts for political advantage. Process is known as gerrymandering.

“Your true traveller finds boredom rather agreeable than painful. It is the symbol of his liberty - his excessive freedom. He accepts his boredom, when it comes, not merely philosophically, but almost with pleasure.”

~ Aldous Huxley

Gerrymandering Has Been Going Strong since its 1812 inception, with recent media coverage of Lone Star State redistricting debacle pitting Texas legislators leaving Texas in protest to Lone Star State gerrymandering against Texas Governor Abbott, who plans to arrest rogue legislators for duty dereliction. Media report gerrymandering battle has spread nationwide. Lawful political power quest.

“The moral and constitutional obligations of our representatives in Washington are to protect our liberty, not coddle the world, precipitating no-win wars, while bringing bankruptcy and economic turmoil to our people.”

~ Ron Paul

“We, the American People” would be smart to be mindful gerrymandering has nothing to do with how America’s voters are able to choose their government representatives. Moreover, if we, a sovereign citizenry, discover legislators are working to give themselves a political advantage through redistricting manipulation, we would be more than justified to run those legislators out of town on splintered rails.

“Justifying conscription to promote the cause of liberty is one of the most bizarre notions ever conceived by man! Forced servitude, with the risk of death and serious injury as a price to live free, makes no sense.”

~ Ron Paul

Gerrymandering Could Be Seen by “Us, the American People.” as attempts at election rigging. We would be within our latitude as a sovereign citizenry to bring charges against legislators who redraw voting district lines showing political registration imbalance. Precise balancing is nigh impossible, given voter whim for changing political persuasion. Nonetheless, manipulation is manipulation.

“Our country's founders cherished liberty, not democracy.”

~ Ron Paul

People Choosing To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to subsidize private enterprise with public money. They uphold free markets.

Political Super Bowl 2024

Our mascot is Uncle Sam and he's holding our rule book, the Constitution of the United States of America!

Have you ever listened to all the political analysts analyzing all the political parties and how this candidate or that candidate should do this or should do that, in order to get elected? There are numerous strategies to this political game, not much different than all the NFL coaches with their clip boards and white boards. The Super Bowl of politics arrives every four years, as We the People (supposedly) elect our leader, the next President of the United States of America.

It is two powerful teams fighting to hold power in the United States government. It is no longer about America but it's about Team D and Team R. The mascot of Team D will gee and haw, cheat and kick violently; Team D will do anything it takes to win. The mascot for Team R is large and moves slowly, he remembers all the game-play strategies, but when he scores, he wants to give half of his points to the other mascot and show what a charitable nice mascot he can be!

The media is invested in as well as owned, by these teams. The medias will take bets on the teams and will even try to tip the scales in favor of their favorite team by misinforming and spreading lies to influence the referees. Winning is vital, this isn't just any old Super Bowl, this is a bowl game not for a large ring on their finger or trophy in a case, but for power and money!

Note: It is always the same two teams in this Political Super Bowl; the Democrats (Team D) and the Republicans (Team R). Until 2024 the referees were not considered to be overly important; that is about to change.

America was established as a Constitutional Republic to be run by “the consent of the governed;” We the People. Today’s political parties talk about saving the American democracy. When they keep saying this it is literally like nails on a chalkboard to me! FOX News channel is calling this Democracy 2024, in my opinion, they are now running a network of deceit. That is not catering to the Constitution or conservatives but to a bureaucratic government formed by corporate politics. Corporate politics’ main drive is for power and elections bring them power. They only care about the people when they need a large crowd for their playoff games and then their climax in the 4-year Super Bowl.

The Parties have done exactly what George Washington said they would do; he warned us of this in his farewell speech. “However (political parties) may now and then answer popular ends, they are likely in the course of time and things, to become potent engines, by which cunning, ambitious, and unprincipled men will be enabled to subvert the power of the people and to usurp for themselves the reins of government, destroying afterwards the very engines which have lifted them to unjust dominion.”

Upgrade to paid

This week I read an article from “The Daily Caller,” explaining that the RNC (Team R) is the most broke it has been in nearly a decade, reported by Federal Election Commission (FEC).

A national RNC member, Oscar Brock said, “It’s a revenue problem. We’re going through the same efforts we always go through to raise money: the same donor meetings, retreats, digital advertising, direct mail. But the return is much lower this year. If you know the answer, I’d love to know it. The staff has managed to tighten down on expenses to keep the party from going into the red.”

I'm a nobody out here and I'm rooting for team "WTP," (We the People) so perhaps my answers, not coming from some highly educated-career-political analyst won't satisfy, but let me try to explain to Oscar Brock and the RNC, why their fundraising game-plan isn't up to the usual dollar amounts.

First the obvious reason. Bidenomics! Since the 2020 election loss (which you cared not to investigate and blamed on President Trump, even though he received more votes in 2020 than he did in 2016) the American people are spending three times as much for their food and household necessities. Since the "House" will not guard the purse, as is it's responsibility, the American people have had to tighten up their spending and will give directly to their candidate of choice, instead of to the established Republican Convention.

Secondly, and this one you need to take seriously if you want to regain the trust of the American people. The RNC transfers funds to its sister Senate and House committees, as well as the states and territories of the parties. Those funds then get used to support republican candidates chosen during the primaries. However, in 2022 it was explained that Mitch McConnell refused such support to certain primaried candidates; the people's choice was not necessarily the preferred candidate of McConnell or the established Team-R. The previously predicted Red Wave of 2022 did not happen. Many blamed President Donald J. Trump, but We the People blame the RNC.

If the RNC is not going to use the money to support the primary choices of the people, then it really isn't about We the People; it is all about politics, party and power.

So you see Oscar, I hope it's ok if I use your first name, to answer your question and explain the drop in revenue, We the People no longer trust the RNC with our dollars or our votes! Ronna McDaniel (or the chair position) is about raising money, not electing the candidates who are primaried by the people.

Every candidate has a website with a donate button and I always advise my listeners to stop giving to the RNC and give directly to the candidate of their choice.

Perhaps We the People cannot control how the RNC spends the money we have given to them, but we can stop contributing to those who do not respect the election process and candidate choices of We the People.

Liberty is always in the hands of the people and while the politicians' hands wish to be in our pockets, We the People must guard ourselves from pick-pocketing-political-parties!

Corporate Politics does not serve We the People nor does it support Liberty!

Look at it this way, We the People are those referees in the black and white striped shirts; watch out for flying penalty flags; team WTP plans to win this Super Bowl. Our mascot is Uncle Sam and he's holding our rule book, the Constitution of the United States of America! There will be no challenges and no instant replays, only the letter of the "rules" will be obeyed from now on.

In the Political Super Bowl 2024 the referees will Constitutionally control the game!

All Americans must participate in the Political Super Bowl 2024; wear your red, paint your faces blue with white stars on your cheeks, waving your flags and honking your horns...Bring America Home©.
