“When we lose the right to be different, we lose the privilege to be free.”

~ Charles Evans Hughes

There's A Media Story Out of Merey Ole England “We, the American People” would be smart to keep etched on those inner foreheads, lest we forget how they who seek power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) strive to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Lawfully compulsory. How tyrants make sure they do not tread on lawful turf.

“I predict future happiness for Americans if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

Article In Question Has It Britain's welfare-minded government will take 64% of a typical British subject's annual earnings. Article questions if 64% amounts to fair share taxation. Insult to injury, article reports capital gains taxes make it impossible to offset inflation with returns-on-investments (ROI). Then, there are taxes on housing making it a disincentive to move into a better housing area.

"It's no accident that capitalism has brought with it progress, not merely in production but also in knowledge. Egoism and competition are, alas, stronger forces than public spirit and sense of duty."
~ Albert Einstein

Making Matters Worse, Government-Imposed caps on tax exempt ROI savings will be so minimal beginning in 2029, said caps will make it increasingly hard for younger people to plan and build up accounts for their retirement. It would be no surprise for "Ourt, the American People's" legislator-politicians to take their cue from their British counterparts, and try squeezing more from Americans.

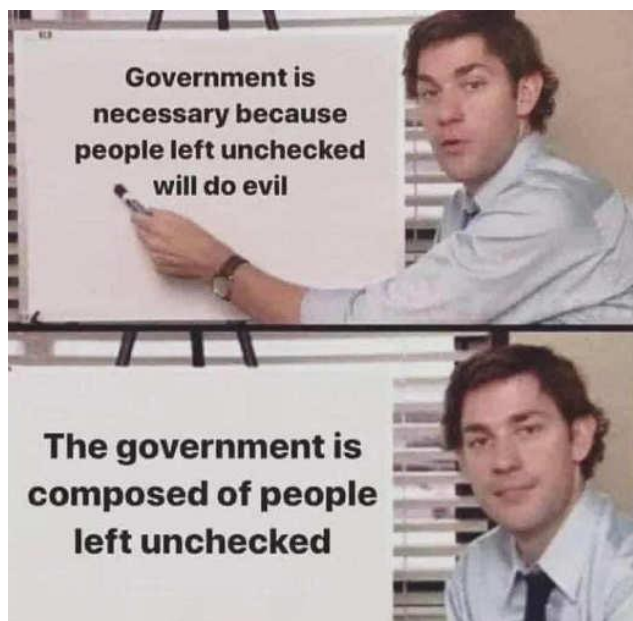

"On every question of construction, let us carry ourselves back to the time when the Constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates, and instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, conform to the probable one in which it was passed."
~ Thomas Jefferson

British Civil Servants And Parliament Members are immune from confiscatory assaults on British commoners, according to article in question. It would not be a surprise if America's legislator-politicians were to try beleaguering "Us, the American People" with similar government largesse. We would be inordinately stupid to let our legislator-politicians get away with it. Much as they do now.

"According to George Hitchings, co-winner of the 1988 Nobel Prize in medicine, FDA's five-year delay in approving the antibacterial drug Septra cost 80,000 lives."

Tariffs (Trade Taxes) Are Taxes, pure and simple. Like a lot of taxes, Tariffs (trades taxes) are used by government to influence government policies. “We, the American People” would be complete financial idiots to see tariffs (trade taxes) any other way – no matter how government policy works, critics, and professorial experts use their vivid talents to try inculcating their views in everyone else’s psyches.

“We find many things to which the prohibition of them constitutes the only temptation.”

There are no Muslims in office today who are Republicans. All of the Radical Muslims who are in office today are Democrats and they're honestly just domestic terrorists at this point.

Taxes, Including Tariffs (Trade Taxes) are psid by consumers, directly or indirectly, itemized or not. Tariff (trade tax) costs are included in imported goods and services prices. Like any cost-of-sales, business owners can include tariff (trade tax) expenses in prices. Media/Internet sources have myriad articles on “Our, the American People’s” Trump tariffs (trade taxes) having been economically chaotic.

As I was reading through headlines and articles this morning, gaslighting was everywhere; they constantly light the gas using a biased lighter...

Are we talking about natural gaslighting... or fossil-fuel energized lies?

Nancy Pelosi, definitely a fossil-fueled GAS-lighter, is assuring all who will listen, that her nephew Gavin Newsom is a very smart individual, and has overcome challenges in his life. I suppose she was referring to his claim of dyslexia. If he's so smart, why is the state of California so broke monetarily and broken morally? Nancy is fossil-fueling up to prepare Newsom as a 2028 presidential candidate.

Meet The Press's Catty-Kristen Welker, full of fake wisdom and loaded questions, was interrogating newly confirmed Attorney General Todd Blanche, who I believe is a twin to the movie character Billy Jack. Kristen put her question to AG Blanche this way; "As we just heard in your address to the Justice Department staff this week, you said you and the DOJ will, 'uphold the law without fear or favor.' You, of course, used to be President Trump's former personal defense attorney. Can you "pledge" that the Justice Department will always act independently of the White House?"

Kristen herself, not known for honesty but for her biasness, seemed to see herself as righteous with her arrogant line of questioning. Does anybody recall this same network ever asking AG Eric Holder about his comment of being "Obama's wingman?"

In Billy Jack fashion (figuratively speaking) AG Blanche answered her question. "Well, there's a big difference between saying, 'We will always do our job and investigate any case' and 'act independently of the White House.' No, I'm not going to pledge that. And no attorney general should ever pledge that," then as if Billy Jack's left foot was being raised, he further replied, "if President Trump says, 'I want the Department of Justice to go after every violent criminal in this country,' which is what he has said, what you're saying to me is I should say, 'No, sir, I'm not going to do it.'" Blanche continued, "So I will act with integrity. Our prosecutors will act with integrity. We will prosecute without fear or any sort of favor. And that's exactly what we've been doing. And that's what every Department of Justice should do."

Welker, falsely believing she was the smarter of the two in this interrogation, was not yet deterred, so she continued with her insinuations, "Well, I guess, big picture: If the president asks you to do something that you feel crosses an ethical or legal line, would you do it?"

Here's where AG Billy-Jack-Blanche kicks and destroys Kristen's insinuations. "The president will never ask me to do something unethical ... or illegal. He never has. He never will... And no, I swore to the Constitution of the United States like every cabinet secretary has done and like every attorney general before me has done.” Billy Jack, I mean AG Blanche scolded, “And so, this narrative that’s mostly pushed by the left and pushed by the media that the president’s going to pull me aside and ask me to do something illegal is completely a false narrative, not true, will not happen, and hasn’t happened.”

I love it when he kicks the GAS-lighting narrative down and out.

If Meet the Press is the only news you watch, you will never know or understand how the biased media are constantly lying and GAS-lighting all their viewers to believe the absolute worst of the President and all who are a part of his administration.

Then there was The National Review bringing half-truths regarding Secretary RFKJ’s views on vaccines. Secretary RFKJ is not an “anti-vaxxer,” he questions the number of vaccines and the way they are given to newborns in such quick and short fashion. There are vaccines that I personally believe need to be explained. A newborn doesn’t need vaccinated for Hepatitis C unless the mother is infected, yet that is one of the vaccinations given to American babies.

Our nation has experienced a rise in measles outbreaks. The National Review article seemed to be putting the blame on Secretary of Health and Human Resources, Robert F. Kennedy Jr.

In 1963 the measles vaccine was introduced and by the year 2000, measles was declared eradicated. My children were all vaccinated with the MMR vaccine, but that was before 2000, when it was declared to be eradicated. If a nation declares it gone, why were we still vaccinating our children? Does that make me and “anti-vaxxer” simply to question the logic?

The article went on to share the jabberwocky of the CDC, as it explained or accused:

In Kennedy’s first year as HHS secretary, measles cases reached their highest point since 1991 and are only getting worse. As of August 6, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announced that there have been 2,465 reported cases of measles across the U.S. this year. This exceeds the 2,289 cases reported from January to December of 2025. In 2024, only 285 cases were reported, and there were only 59 in 2023. The outbreak is largely confined to Americans who haven't received the measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) vaccine, with 93 percent of the cases appearing in unvaccinated individuals, according to the CDC.

According to The National Review, Paul Offit, director of the Vaccine Education Center and attending physician in the Division of Infectious Diseases at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, claims that Kennedy hasn't done enough as HHS secretary to encourage vaccination. However, William Moss, a Johns Hopkins professor of epidemiology, international health, and molecular microbiology and immunology and executive director of the International Vaccine Access Center, points out, a significant portion of measles cases are emerging in children who should have been vaccinated long before Kennedy took on an influential role in the federal government.

Upgrade to paid

Pointing fingers of blame is easy, looking at other possible outside factors is usually left out. One fact being, for several decades now, we've had a large number of unvaccinated immigrants entering our nation; legally & illegally. This is one reason measles once eradicated is now back on the scene. Other diseases have risen too, such as tuberculosis. Back in the Ellis Island days, our newly arriving immigrants were kept there for a time to protect them from our diseases and us from theirs. At that time, they received whatever vaccinations were available before entering America's population. When we have immigrants flooding into this nation unvetted and unvaxxed, we're going to see an uptick of diseases... measles is just one. Secretary Kennedy probably should address that particular fact; however, all these highly educated professors know the truth, they simply want to continue to shift blame on President Trump's administration.

Gaslighting is a form of deception and bullying. The media hates President Trump and all things conservative. They will stop at nothing; they will lie, bully, insinuate President Trump is a Nazi or a king and they will promote violence against him or others. They will even leak classified information to our enemies, leaving us all in danger. They will do whatever it takes, in their minds, to destroy this administration.

Every time President Trump, the most transparent and press available President in my lifetime, posts on TRUTH or makes a comment, the GAS-Lighters get lit up... they catch on fire, so-to-

... speak... to counteract... misinterpret... whatever it takes to demean every word or idea President Trump shares.

Upgrade to paid

Those of us who apparently are immune to their GAS-lighting find their twisted comments and absurd statements somewhat comical, even though we know this GAS-lighting is very dangerous for our nation. We laughed when Ketanji Brown Jackson, Biden's DEI Supreme Court Justice hire, said she wasn't a biologist and therefore unable to define a woman. However, that particular narrative has cost young women across this nation their Title IX rights, leaving some injured from playing with biological men in drag.

How do we counteract this element that has changed the political environment, making it more violent, and causing the GAS-lighting to raise to new heights of absurdities?

There's only one thing that will erase or counteract their GAS-lighting... and that way is TRUTH!

If you are vulnerable to their GAS-lighting, you might need to remove yourself from the mainstream news media; don't watch their networks.

GAS-lighting is an existential threat to our environment, our mental health and to our Constitutional Republic.

Education and Truth are the vaccinations we need to avoid the GAS-lighting epidemic and improve America's political environment.

It's Fair To Say Legislator-Politicians don't work for societal furtherance. They aim to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Lawfully compulsory. When Legislator-Politicians Vie For Power to make their PAVB lawfully compulsory, they seek power to eliminate choice. Media, reporting on Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) Liberation Caucus rejecting Empire State Congressional House of Representatives legislators Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (AOC) as a presidential candidate shows how legislator-politicians strive to deny voter choice.

“Fundamentally, there are only two ways of coordinating the economic activities of millions. One is central direction involving the use of coercion – the technique of the army and of the modern totalitarian state. The other is voluntary cooperation of individuals – the technique of the marketplace.”

~ Milton Friedman

Media Account Of DSA Liberation Caucus rejecting AOC centers on Liberation Caucus seeing AOC as weak on strengthening Palestine. Fair to say had it it's 'druthers,' DSA would not uphold Israel's choice to exist. It would be folly for "Us, the American People" to expect global concurrence to deny a nation of people their right to exist. Legislator-politicians, though, want absolute control over choice.

"Civil disobedience becomes a sacred duty when the State becomes lawless or, which is the same thing, corrupt."

Some people probably think we should keep our mouths shut about politics. Let me tell you something. If Christians don't take a stand against this evilness going on right now & speak up, we ain't gonna have an America!

SOCIALIST PRACTICES

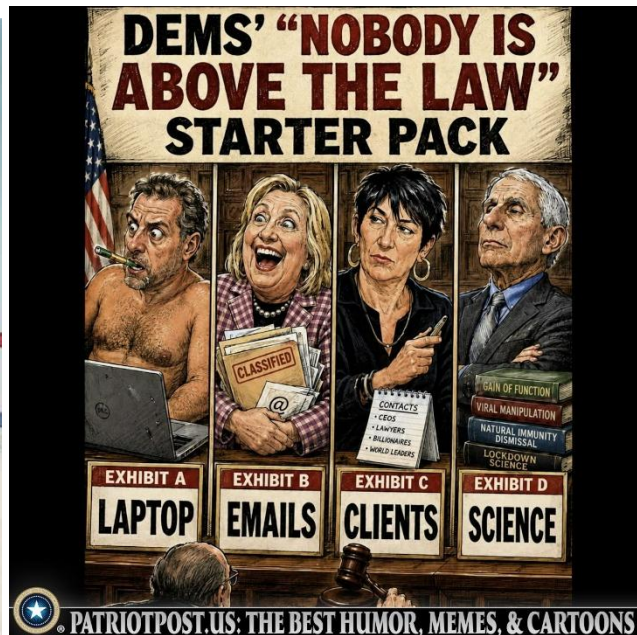

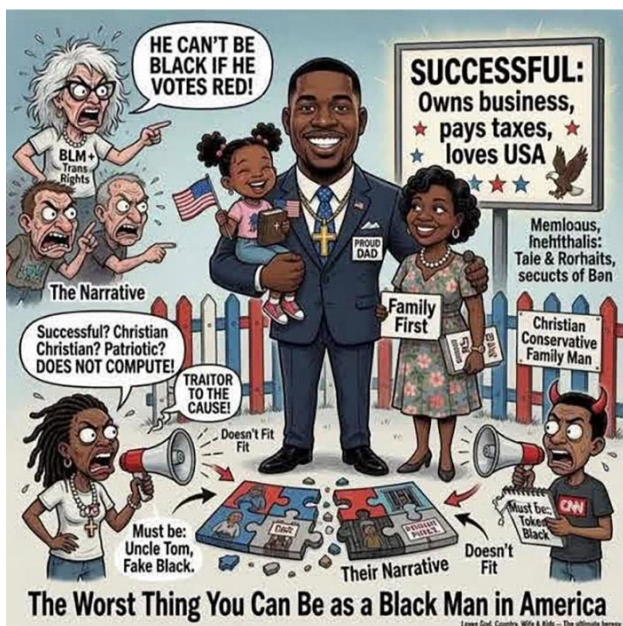

"Our, the American People's" ability to choose, while not explicitly singled out as a Constitutional right, right of choice is implicit in Constitutional privacy guarantees. Without right to choose, we are left to political whims of those who sit in lawful authority. We surrender virtually all rights if we surrender right to choose. Legislator-politicians are not above restricting choice as fits their PAVB.

“The right of revolution is an inherent one. When people are oppressed by their government, it is a natural right they enjoy to relieve themselves of oppression, if they are strong enough, whether by withdrawal from it, or by overthrowing it and substituting a government more acceptable.”
