"My recommendation is a state initiated constitutional convention that has the goal of eliminating the federal government completely; only retaining a non-binding judicial branch that would function as an arbitrator."

~ Wes Alexander

It Would Not Be Unreasonable to say "Our, the American People's" jurisprudence system is less about administering justice than deciding who wins or loses when disputes are settled in court. There may be no better argument for absence of justice than split court decisions. And, courts over ruling courts in America's appellate system offers father evidence. And, appointed judges do not ameliorate issue.

"In an age in which a collective mindset is expected to drown out the voice of the individual, philosophic principles have been replaced by public opinion polls."

America's Supreme Court Of The United States (SCOTUS) ruled in favor of President Donald J. Trump's Administration stopping National Institute of Health (NIH) funding after a district judge ruled in contrast. Rationale offered by courts in reaching yea-nay decisions, given paucity of legislative-judicial standards beyond precedent, rests in magistrate personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"On some great and glorious day the plain folks of the land will reach their heart's desire at last and the White House will be adorned by a downright moron."

~ H. L. Mencken

SCOTUS NIH Funding Decision was a 5-4 decision. SCOTUS Justices for-against decision were, reportedly, acting consistent with political persuasion of presidents who nominated them, and Congressional Senate legislators who confirmed them. It is ironic to have politically appointed and confirmed judges prevail over "Us, the American People," when courts are to be without prejudice.

"We live in a country ruled by dangerous and foolish people; by sociopaths who are prepared to engage in the planned killing of hundreds of thousands of innocent men, women, and children, for no other purpose than to satisfy their insatiable appetites for power. "

"We, the American People," could, if we so chose, lessen likelihood of biased court decisions by having a court of-public-review, of sorts, dissect court findings to expose instances of arbitrary or discriminatory decisions. Court-of-public reviews may be as hard put for objectivity as are courts held by PAVB-driven judges. Nonetheless, free societies remain free by scrutinizing lawful authority.

"Day after day, week after week, month after month, and year after year--we are continually subjected to the loss of our wealth by the loss of the purchasing power of our money. "

~ Douglas Gnazzo

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere with how responsible citizens use their private property. They fiercely protect their most vital right – individual property ownership. Protecting property is protecting life.

"In 1792 the Coinage Act authorized the death penalty for any private citizen who counterfeited the currency. Too bad they weren't explicit that counterfeiting by government officials is just as detrimental to the economy and the value of the dollar."

It Is Not Unreasonable for “Us, the American People” to consider government representatives unable to conduct town meetings and like events with unemotional tenor as questionably suitable as Congressional House of Representatives legislators. Not all voters are to be satisfied with government policies. Government spokespeople, however, ought be prepared sufficiently to engage dissent.

"We, the American People" bring on discontent with government policies by allowing some policies to exist. It would be smart for us, as a sovereign citizenry, to establish some sort of review process for government-proposed policies and legislation. Government of, by, and for people requires policy and law to be unprejudicial. Even completely neutral laws and policies can be assailed. Odds less likely.

How Best to Save The Democrat Party

What is Freedom? It is certainly not politics, and it is definitely not the Democrat Party.

If you are a “democrat voter,” I want you to bear with me a moment and carefully consider what your party now stands for, then ask yourself, especially if you are a Christian, “Are those my values?”

I’m not sure, at this particular point in time what the official written Democrat Party platform says, however, as the old saying goes, “Actions speak louder than platforms”... Okay, I might have changed the phraseology there a bit.

The actions the Democrat Party displays have grown to be so bizarre and perverted that I think it’s time we take a look at their actions and figure out how we can save the Democrat Party.

Democrats are anti-God: Yes, they are! In their 2012 convention they booed the word God not once but twice, and then in 2020 the DNC openly and proudly removed “One nation under God” from the Pledge of Allegiance. This same party has termed Christians as radicals, because many believe in family, heterosexuality, life (no abortion), and don’t want biological men in girls’ bathrooms. Democrats seem to want the exact opposite of what this nation was built upon; religion (Christianity) and morality.

“Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious People. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” John Adams

Democrats are anti-family: Because of their disdain for Christianity, they are promoting all that they can to destroy the family. Strong families make a strong nation. When families are strong there is less crime. The democrats present a perverted and distorted version of the family. Same sex marriages. Telling children they can choose their gender. Gender dysphoria is a mental illness, but the Democrat Party rallies around them and enables them; this is not only cruel it is destructive.

TRUTH: NOBODY IS BORN IN THE WRONG BODY

My personal opinion is that homosexual couples (men or women) should not adopt children. This chosen lifestyle does not produce children. If I must accept their lifestyle, they should too.

Democrats openly admit they are socialist: They consider that word less intimidating than Marxist. Marxists are anti-God and anti-family; socialists are the same. Democrats believe in government not God, therefore their platform is reflective of many government programs and their speeches are about “providing this or that” for people; never about helping people to become self-sufficient.

The Democrat Party is a racist party: In 1964, when considering and signing the nonpartisan Civil Rights Legislation Act, President Lyndon B. Johnson (a racist and a bigot, in every sense of the words, albeit he was a democrat politician), made the following comments: “I’ll tell you what’s at the bottom of it. If you can convince the lowest white man he’s better than the best colored man, he won’t notice you’re picking his pocket. Hell, give him somebody to look down on, and he'll empty his pocket for you." In 1963 Johnson is also known for making the following (horrifically telling and racist statement)

"These Negroes, they're getting pretty uppity these days and that's a problem for us since they've got something now they never had before, the political pull to back up their uppityness. Now we've got to do something about this, we've got to give them a little something, just enough to quiet them down, not enough to make a difference..." - "I'll have them ns voting democratic for the next two hundred years."

Democrats are anti-personal or private property: Their constant rhetoric of Americans living on stolen land isn't because they want to return the land to the natives, it's because, as socialist-Marxists, they believe the government should own all the land.

Democrats are anti-sovereignty: The invasion of illegal aliens from over 120 countries into this nation during Joe Biden's administration is proof that our nation does not matter to them. Power is what matters. Globalism is what they want. The invasion was to bring this nation down to a third world status. This is why they hate the phrase "Make America Great Again."

Democrats are anti-independence: Democrats believe in dependence on the government. This lends the government more power and leverage over We the People. And let's be honest, there are a lot of Republicans who fall into this category and love to serve the traps of "government programs" to their constituents.

Democrats are fraud: That's not to say we don't have republicans committing fraud, but the democrats seem to relish in it. They knowingly commit the crimes and perpetrate fraud that they will turn around and blame others for. They are almost 100% guilty of what they accuse others of having done. As my daddy used to say, "People judge you by the way they are.."

Democrats are violent: They promote violence and they allow violence whenever it meets their needs and narrative. Illinois' BIG-daddy Pritzker called in the national guard to keep his streets safe during the DNC. The elite democrats and their very wealthy donors needed to feel safe and secure. After the Democrat "party" convention was over, he removed the National Guard because other Chicagoans were not worthy of protection. Democrats also promote violent protests and chaos. Maxine Waters told her audience of listeners to “Get in their face, and tell them we don’t want them here!” Other democrats have made similar statements and we’ve witnessed democrats pushing and punching law enforcement.

Democrats are anti-school choice: Because education is detrimental to their power, they will keep the inner city Americans uneducated. They know that the words of Thomas Jefferson are true. “A well informed citizenry is the best defense against tyranny.”

“If a nation expects to be ignorant and free... it expects what never was and never will be.” Thomas Jefferson

Democrats are anti-independent thinking: Socialism and Marxism demand that all individuals comply to one way of thinking; don’t you be thinkin’ outside the box... Individuality is frowned upon; pronouns are more important than nouns or names. Have you noticed that in D.C. all the democrats stand together in their perverted ideals? Group-think also contributes to their belief that “It takes a village,” and “Your children belong to the community.” (again not family oriented)

Benjamin Franklin had it right when he said, “If everyone is thinking alike, then no one is thinking.” I have to laugh at that one; how many times do we conservatives ask, “What are the democrats thinking?” I’ll let you come to your own conclusion on that one...

Democrats are anti Second Amendment: It was in 2012 that the democrats in D.C. had a sit-in against the Second Amendment. They had just taken their oath of office that promised to preserve and protect our Constitution. For the cameras and publicity they hosted a sit-in and pizza party to protest the Second Amendment... forgetting all about their oath of their office and to their constituents.

Democrats are anti First Amendment: THEY WILL CANCEL YOU! The WOKE “error” in America was all about anti-First Amendment.

Democrats are anti-American: They continually push that ideology with their rhetoric of hate toward the Founding Fathers and our Forefathers; the pilgrims and the separatists! They directed and approved the removal and destruction of American monuments and statues.

Democrats are not pro-choice: Democrats ceased being pro-choice and are full-on pro-abortion. Abortion on demand, during any trimester of pregnancy and for any reason. Bill Clinton once said that abortion should be “safe, legal, and rare.” However, that is not the case today. Democrats are for population control as they honor Margaret Sanger and continue her genocidal plot. Yes, she wanted to remove all black people; she was a true white supremacist. (Note: Sanger would have never gone along with the DEI march of the democrats; she wanted a smarter-superior race... merit mattered.)

Democrats are pro-slavery: All these things that they are not, is proof of what they are. It is a sad truth. I’m not sure when this happened or if they always were these things, as they were the party of slavery during the civil war... However, their intentions today are still not that of FREEDOM. The words freedom, sovereignty, or independence are not synonymous with socialism or Marxism.

If you are a person who normally votes democrat, and if you want to save your party, you need to vote them all out of office. Only when these current party leaders and their many followers (elected) are out of office, will the party finally get new life. We can only pray that their new life will have a LOVE for America....

If you are a democrat and you want to save your party, you must destroy their power, now! Vote them all out of office; local, state and federal governments.

Sometimes the only option is to demolish the old house and build it back anew!

NOTE: My editor wanted me to write, “Build back better,” but I refused!
