~ William Lloyd Garrison

Undocumented (AKA Illegal) Children are entitled to an education in “Our, the American People’s” public schools. Media report some one million undocumented children in America’s public schools now. America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOUTS) has so ruled, citing America's 14th Amendment as rationale. Doesn't mean America's taxpayers should foot bill, despite SCOTUS rule.

"The only thing that saves us from bureaucracy is its inefficiency."

~ Eugene McCarthy

Children, By Definition, Are Innocent. "We, the American People," as a sovereign citizenry, have power to strike SCOTUS rules we do not find are just, or meet expectations we attach to America's court opinions. Courts render opinions. America's government executive departments enforce laws and court opinions. We, as a sovereign citizenry, pass judgement as to legitimacy in our jurisprudence.

"The jury has the right to judge both the law as well as the fact in controversy."

~ John JayJustice

A Former Pennsylvania Commonwealth Gubernatorial candidate observed government should, first, do no harm. An idea having served as fodder for debate and discussion for quite a while. Much easier to discuss and debate ideas than to put them into practice. It would be smart for “Us, the American People” to discuss, debate, and decide if harm caused by illegal immigrant student funding is warranted.

“There ain’t no rules around here! We’re trying to accomplish something.”

~ Thomas Edison

Were We, As A Sovereign Citizenry, to decide taxpayer funding illegal immigrants in America’s public schools is to cease and desist forthwith, there would remain dilemma of assuring illegal immigrant students are attended pending return to their home country. Ultimately, reducing illegal immigrants to zero would resolve issue. Practically speaking, may be undoable, given brutal governments in power.

“The ideal Government of all reflective men, from Aristotle onward, is one which lets the individual alone – one which barely escapes being no government at all.”

~ H. L. Mencken

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to give quarter to, offer sanctuary to, or negotiate with terrorists. They refuse to live in fear or at risk brought on by “State” policy.

“Most economic fallacies derive ... from the tendency to assume that there is a fixed pie, that one party can gain only at the expense of another.”

How Newsom Turned California Into a Criminal Cesspool

Socialism Would Cost “Us, the American People” upwards of $200T. Democratic socialists are in denial of real numbers when cost of government is at stake. So, report media coverage of Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) and other democrat-socialist candidates. Sooner or later people with pat solutions to perceived or actual government failure come to grips with reality. There is no free lunch.

“In our desire to have government become our benefactor and sustainer, we have allowed it to become our taskmaster and overlord.”

~ Chuck Baldwin

Women when a woman is charged with murder.

Women when they want equal rights to run for political office.

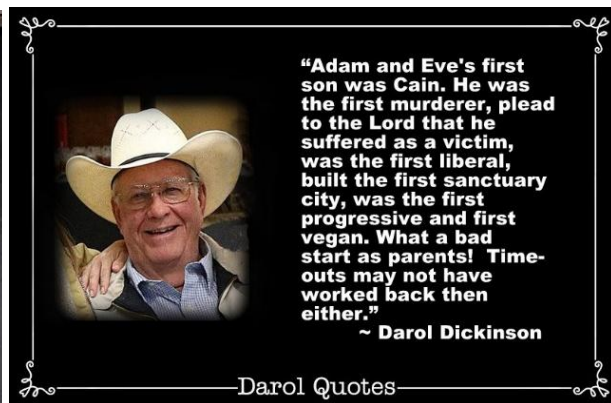

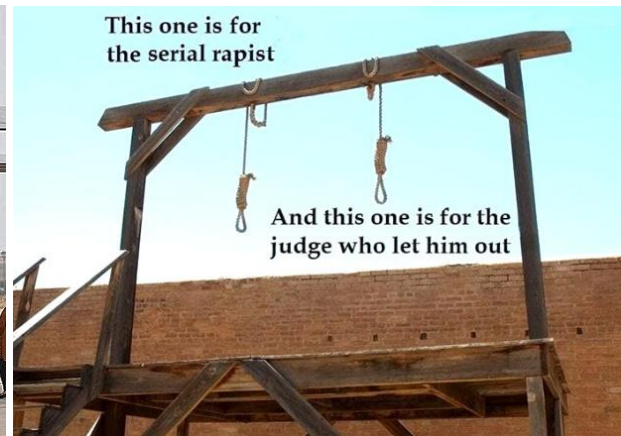

Media Coverage Includes Warnings to “Our, the American People’s” mainline democrats to not get caught up in picking candidates with radical or excentric ideas. Coverage advises party members to stick with known candidates like Congressional House of Representatives legislator Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (AOC), or party stalwarts like Elizabeth Warren or Bernie Sanders. Not unknown devils.

“To preserve liberty, it is essential that the whole body of the people always possess arms, and be taught alike, especially when young, how to use them.”

~ Richard Henry Lee

“We, the American People” would have less frustration and turmoil were we to force government executives, legislators, and judges to strip government of politics. America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions, while articulating idealistic precepts and protections, empower legislators to make laws reflecting particulars of their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

“Faced with the pain of freedom, man begs for his shackles.”

~ Gerry Spence

PAVB Are Inherently Biased. Moreover, America is infused with a population having varied and diverse PAVB. Laws, in contrast, are structured to limit or exclude choice. Limiting one's PAVB by law is an invitation to resentment and instinctive resistance. Laws restricting PAVB behavior could be, arguably, contrary to America's 1st Amendment. Such laws would, in effect, define, not protect, PAVB.

"I say that the Second Amendment doesn't allow for exceptions – or else it would have read that the right "to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed, unless Congress chooses otherwise"

~ Harry Browne

People Deliberate To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to permit federal authorities or courts to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond specific Constitutional constraint. They protect their lives and property against “State” intrusion.

“The angels and the devils are definitely within us, not within the machines we use.”

What do gangsters and politicians have in common?

They both wear nice suits and have security around them.

They both get rich off of others rather than working and earning their own living.

If not obeyed, they will both find a way to bend the opposition into submission.

They both believe they themselves have power over others.

They will do and say anything to achieve their desired goals, regardless of who might be hurt along the way.

They both have henchmen.

George Washington said, “Government is not reason, it is not eloquence-it is force! Like fire it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master; never for a moment should it be left to irresponsible action.”

Irresponsible?

Would that include running a nation into an unsustainable debt?

Would that include starting and allowing “never-ending” wars?

Would we consider the mishandling of a pandemic to the point of harming young children, who were in little to no real danger from a virus, as irresponsible? Was it irresponsible to shut down businesses and churches while allowing mega corporations and liquor stores to remain open?

Would it be considered irresponsible to refuse proper medical treatment or refuse to allow people to make their own health decisions?

Is it irresponsible to allow an invasion of illegal aliens into our country without vetting them?

Is it irresponsible to allow criminals to go free and continue to wreak havoc, murder, rape and other heinous crimes upon the citizens of our nation?

Do we call this irresponsible, or do we call it tyranny?

There's an old expression that states, "The inmates are running the asylum." It truly feels that way today. Taking that into consideration, I believe they are governing like gangsters.

The era of gangsters in New York and Chicago was ended by tough law enforcers. Mayor Rudy Giuliani put away many gangsters in his day, but now he is the one being persecuted by gangsters in our own government. These gangsters are targeting President Trump, Peter Navarro, Steve Bannon, and a multitude of others. These government gangsters have threatened any American who might agree with and stand with President Donald John Trump.

We now have political lawfare, the gangsters are abusing the laws and "reimagining" justice to suit their own selfish desire for power. As I mentioned in my book, The American Crisis Continues:

"Tyranny is a vicious enemy. Limitless with its tactics to subdue a people and conquer their land. Tyranny is cunning and deceitful, never hiding its face, just its intentions. Disguised as a do-gooder, Tyranny preys on our emotions and uses our own system of governance against us. Tyranny changes the rules, amends the contract, ignores the rule of law, spreads falsehoods, and sows discord among the people."

When Government Gangsters are in charge, the position of leadership becomes a pretend presidency. The position becomes nothing more than a walking talking, (mumbling-bumbling-stumbling) suit. Like "Weekend at Bernie's," the person is moved from one event to the other, like a puppet he is told what to say, when to say it and of course when to “pause” for clapping.

When the people’s elections no longer matter, we are being ruled by gangster-tyrants. A presidential election is the time when We the People choose the leader of the Executive branch of our government. In today’s situation it is obvious to Americans, and to the world, that Joe Biden is not the man in charge; he is nothing more than a pretend president.

The result of being governed by gangsters is living under tyranny. Gangsters govern by tyranny; they will bully, practice extortion and punish their victims by severe cruelty.

The gangsters are labeling citizens as domestic terrorists for practicing patriotism, for practicing Christianity, for defending their children at schoolboard meetings, for standing up for the lives of the unborn, for believing in the Constitutional Republic. These normal moral attributes label you a radical, therefore you are a threat to what they call democracy, and you are a domestic terrorist. NOTE: Democracy is mob rule, and the gangster mob is ruling their way, and their way is tyranny.

What if the citizens of America classified their government gangsters as domestic terrorists? That is truly what should happen for it is who they are!

Government Gangsters believe themselves to have unlimited power. The rule of law is a phrase they throw around, but they do not practice it in their own lives. Government Gangsters believe themselves to be above our laws, and they will protect their own. We’ve seen this with Hillary Clinton, James Comey, Hunter Biden, Joe Biden, Nancy Pelosi, Chuck Schumer and many others.

“God forbid, my lords, that there should be a power in this country of measuring the civil rights of the subject by his moral character, or by any other rule but the fixed laws of the land!...Unlimited power is apt to corrupt the minds of those who possess it; and this I know, my lords, that where law ends, tyranny begins!” William Pitt, Earl of Chatham

“Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered.” Thomas Paine

Our Founding Fathers new what governing like gangsters felt like, King George III ruled as a gangster, believing he owned the world... he was a tyrant.

...when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. (excerpt The Declaration of Independence)

We’re living in an America that is hardly recognizable. No longer are the inalienable rights of the people respected. With the current administrative climate it’s easy to blame the democrats and there is great truth in that, but it is deeper and more evil than just one political party.

As American citizens, it is our right and our duty to stand up to the gangster-tyrants running our government, destroying Liberty, and ruining our nation.

“Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God!” Thomas Jefferson

Our Founding Fathers laid out the plan for Liberty; it is up to us to restore Liberty in America and Bring America Home©.

~ Lao Tsu

"Our, the American People's" media has an article making rounds on how our Oracle of Omaha would fix America's federal deficit nuisance by making one law. One law. Financial wizard, Warren Buffett would, if Warren Vufftt could, make a law requiring every Congressional legislator step down if inflation exceeded some arbitrarily determined figure. Odds would be astronomically against it.

“We the American People” have, for two-and-a-half centuries, despite our vast power as a sovereign citizenry, refused to stop America’s government from driving America into – possibly insurmountable – public debt. Ironical part of it, America’s government can not do a solitary thing without our consent. Not one thing. Trouble is, we consent by voting people into public office based on their promises.

Promises Mean Nothing When promising parties don’t hold each other in account. Basically, those in public office are held in account by “Us, the American People” booting them out of office come election time. Then, we elect more people to public office who make promises they might keep - if they find it to their advantage to keep their promises. If not, we'll boot them out and elect more promise breakers.

Warren Buffet's Inflation Law might work. If we were inclined to exert our sovereign citizenry capacity of self-government and rid ourselves of elected office promise breakers. We're not. We, instead, keep electing promise breakers who have figured out we will not act like good stewards of public property. Far easier to blame our socio-economic troubles on people we elect to office.
