Money Goes Where Money Grows. “We, the American People” are d by sundry media articles people who are hit disproportionately are heading for other places where government is not hasty to confiscate their property through ‘tax-the-rich’ policies. Scandinavia is touted as having wealth taxes whereby people are better able to enjoy life through wealth redistribution aimed at fairness and justice for all.

BREAKING: Democrat activist Olivia Julianna is threatening to go on a hunger strike until ICE is removed from Democrat states

For Every Example There's A Counter example. Financial media report wealthier Scandinavian taxpayers tend to move their money to tax sheltered accounts or invest in instruments less vulnerable to taxation. Like American wealthier taxpayers, Scandinavians not happy with 'tax-the-rich' are, if they're not restructuring, are relocating. Most people don't like having their property confiscated.

When a lifelong Democrat, from an iconic Democrat family, who tried to run as a Democrat, and who's running mate was a Democrat, warns you about the dangers of voting for the Democrat in this election, you should probably listen.

“Our, the American People’s” commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions are powerless to stop government from passing laws allowing government to take property (wealth) from those who have more than government decides they need, then giving taken property (wealth) to they who are deemed to need it – and who will vote for legislators and candidates who vow to continue so.

There Is A Useful Media Article in circulation comparing Communism and Socialism. In short, Communism is said to be a classless society, Socialism a, sort of, moderated cooperative arrangement between public/government and private sectors. “We, the American People” would be smart to recognize neither Communism nor Socialism embraces self-government. And reject both as elitism,

“After you’ve heard two eyewitness accounts of an auto accident, it makes you wonder about history.”

~ Bits & Pieces

Whenever Shared Ownership And Wealth redistribution are placed in hands of centralized planners with power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty), tyranny is at hand. “Our, the American People's" representative Constitutional republic governmental form offers self-government by election where a sovereign citizenry has ultimate say over government authority. Not optimal.

"A nation which does not remember what it was yesterday does not know where it is today."

~ Robert E. Lee

Ihan Omar's kids are exactly how you would expect. Her daughter just visited Communist Cuba on a CodePink trip and her son just had his apartment raided for weapons. 🙋

It Might Occur To "Us, the American People" to think representative Constitutional republic government form is assurance tyranny will be shunned. Not so. A totally free society is more than capable of electing tyrannous public officials. Whether those officials can enforce tyrannical government is another matter. Dictatorial government survives when people are unwilling to repulse.

"Ever since its founding in 1913, the Fed has described itself as an "independent" agency operated by selfless public servants striving to "fine-tune" the economy through monetary policy. In reality, however, a non-political governmental institution is as likely as a barking cat."

Dictatorial Socialism, Communism, Or Capitalism are no further from tyranny than a society's desire to have government provide them anything and everything they demand their due. Such a societal form can exist when people's individual capacity to excel and achieve is suppressed. Societies composed of people with a commitment to stark individualism reject centralized planning, dire needs an exception.

GOVERNING LIKE GANGSTERS

King George III ruled like a gangster, look where that got him!

What do gangsters and politicians have in common?

They both wear nice suits and have security around them.

They both get rich off of others rather than working and earning their own living.

If not obeyed, they will both find a way to bend the opposition into submission.

They both believe they themselves have power over others.

They will do and say anything to achieve their desired goals, regardless of who might be hurt along the way.

They both have henchmen.

George Washington said, “Government is not reason, it is not eloquence-it is force! Like fire it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master; never for a moment should it be left to irresponsible action.”

Irresponsible?

Would that include running a nation into an unsustainable debt?

Would that include starting and allowing “never-ending” wars?

Would we consider the mishandling of a pandemic to the point of harming young children, who were in little to no real danger from a virus, as irresponsible? Was it irresponsible to shut down businesses and churches while allowing mega corporations and liquor stores to remain open?

Would it be considered irresponsible to refuse proper medical treatment or refuse to allow people to make their own health decisions?

Is it irresponsible to allow an invasion of illegal aliens into our country without vetting them?

Is it irresponsible to allow criminals to go free and continue to wreak havoc, murder, rape and other heinous crimes upon the citizens of our nation?

Do we call this irresponsible, or do we call it tyranny?

There's an old expression that states, "The inmates are running the asylum." It truly feels that way today. Taking that into consideration, I believe they are governing like gangsters.

The era of gangsters in New York and Chicago was ended by tough law enforcers. Mayor Rudy Giuliani put away many gangsters in his day, but now he is the one being persecuted by gangsters in our own government. These gangsters are targeting President Trump, Peter Navarro, Steve Bannon, and a multitude of others. These government gangsters have threatened any American who might agree with and stand with President Donald John Trump.

We now have political lawfare, the gangsters are abusing the laws and "reimagining" justice to suit their own selfish desire for power. As I mentioned in my book, The American Crisis Continues:

"Tyranny is a vicious enemy. Limitless with its tactics to subdue a people and conquer their land. Tyranny is cunning and deceitful, never hiding its face, just its intentions. Disguised as a do-gooder, Tyranny preys on our emotions and uses our own system of governance against us. Tyranny changes the rules, amends the contract, ignores the rule of law, spreads falsehoods, and sows discord among the people.”

When Government Gangsters are in charge, the position of leadership becomes a pretend presidency. The position becomes nothing more than a walking talking, (mumbling-bumbling-stumbling) suit. Like “Weekend at Bernie’s,” the person is moved from one event to the other, like a puppet he is told what to say, when to say it and of course when to “pause” for clapping.

When the people’s elections no longer matter, we are being ruled by gangster-tyrants. A presidential election is the time when We the People choose the leader of the Executive branch of our government. In today’s situation it is obvious to Americans, and to the world, that Joe Biden is not the man in charge; he is nothing more than a pretend president.

The result of being governed by gangsters is living under tyranny. Gangsters govern by tyranny; they will bully, practice extortion and punish their victims by severe cruelty.

The gangsters are labeling citizens as domestic terrorists for practicing patriotism, for practicing Christianity, for defending their children at schoolboard meetings, for standing up for the lives of the unborn, for believing in the Constitutional Republic. These normal moral attributes label you a radical, therefore you are a threat to what they call democracy, and you are a domestic terrorist. NOTE: Democracy is mob rule, and the gangster mob is ruling their way, and their way is tyranny.

What if the citizens of America classified their government gangsters as domestic terrorists? That is truly what should happen for it is who they are!

Government Gangsters believe themselves to have unlimited power. The rule of law is a phrase they throw around, but they do not practice it in their own lives. Government Gangsters believe themselves to be above our laws, and they will protect their own. We've seen this with Hillary Clinton, James Comey, Hunter Biden, Joe Biden, Nancy Pelosi, Chuck Schumer and many others.

“God forbid, my lords, that there should be a power in this country of measuring the civil rights of the subject by his moral character, or by any other rule but the fixed laws of the land!...Unlimited power is apt to corrupt the minds of those who possess it; and this I know, my lords, that where law ends, tyranny begins!” William Pitt, Earl of Chatham

“Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered.” Thomas Paine

Our Founding Fathers new what governing like gangsters felt like, King George III ruled as a gangster, believing he owned the world... he was a tyrant.

...when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. (excerpt The Declaration of Independence)

We're living in an America that is hardly recognizable. No longer are the inalienable rights of the people respected. With the current administrative climate it's easy to blame the democrats and there is great truth in that, but it is deeper and more evil than just one political party.

As American citizens, it is our right and our duty to stand up to the gangster-tyrants running our government, destroying Liberty, and ruining our nation.

“Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God!” Thomas Jefferson

Our Founding Fathers laid out the plan for Liberty; it is up to us to restore Liberty in America and Bring America Home©.

Those Of “Us, the American People” who are apprehensive about America’s mounting debt should not be. Not if two media contributors have their proverbial ducks in a financial row. Writers in question maintain, for example, popularly used GDP/Debt ratio does not mean America is on brink of financial rack and ruin. Writers point out GDP is short term, whereas America’s national debt is long-term.

“The devil can cite Scripture for his purpose.”

~ Shakespeare

Conducting A Financial Analysis/Assessment on “Our, the American People’s” government is no small chore. Writers in question note, for example, taxing America’s top 1.0% of wealth owners at 10% one time would reduce America’s federal debt by about one-sixth. Writers point out America’s wealthiest, in contrast, are taxed lightly. America’s wealthiest are oft singled out for having excess.

“Men are most apt to believe what they least understand.”

~ Montaigne

“We, the American People” would be smart to consider money owed by America’s government, no matter to whom, as part and parcel debt. While writers in question maintain America is far from financial trouble because of long term debt versus short term GDP comparison. We would also be smart to stop looking at Americans who have atypically valuable portfolios as cash cows to pay debts.

“When a well-packaged web of lies has been sold gradually to the masses over generations, the truth will seem utterly preposterous and its speaker a raving lunatic.”

~ Dresden James

Government Debt, Regardless Tally or to whom owed, comes about because government spends more than it takes in. Ordinary people can only borrow as much money a lender figures a borrower is able to repay. Debt-to-income ratio is a common consideration. Ordinary people can’t increase their income by demanding their income. be increased. Government, in contrast, can raise taxes to pay public debt.

“I have thought that a man of tolerable abilities may work great changes if he first forms a good plan and makes the execution of that same plan his whole study and business.”

~ Benjamin Franklin

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond Constitutional constraint. They exercise self-government to preserve their liberty.

And I don't see too many Democrats having an education agenda, with the exception, I guess, of Rahm Emanuel. And so these are areas where the mainstream Democrats are not really being as aggressive on policy terms as the more progressive.

The concept remains relevant today. Internal conflicts in communities, political parties, or institutions can lead to dysfunction, instability, and even violence. Recent examples include political polarization and attacks on public figures, illustrating that division within a society or organization can have serious consequences for both people and structures stanfordreview.org. The principle encourages cooperation, dialogue, and shared purpose to maintain stability and effectiveness.

In summary, "a house divided cannot stand" is a timeless warning that unity is essential for survival and success, whether in spiritual, social, or political contexts. It calls for resolving conflicts, aligning goals, and fostering cohesion to prevent collapse.
