Big Apple Internet/Media Rent Coverage is not good news for Big Apple Mayor Zohran Mamdani. His Big Apple Mayorship's policies and affordability initiatives have not stopped Big Apple ernts from reaching all-time highs. "We, the American People" can count on Mayor Mamdani's efforts to rave on till His Mayorship comes to terms with reality where socio-economics is concerned. Mutual benefit.

I don't know who needs to hear this,
but when Susan Smith drowned her kids in 1994, the whole country wanted to lynch her. Look how far we have fallen in just 30 years?

Big Apple Mamdani Is, By All Accounts, a believer in using law to correct any socio-economic circumstances he believes are incorrect. Mayor Mamdani's tact to correct Big Apple housing crisis is, references accurate, to apply city hall clout in form of selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). House builders, though, profit, or, they don't build.

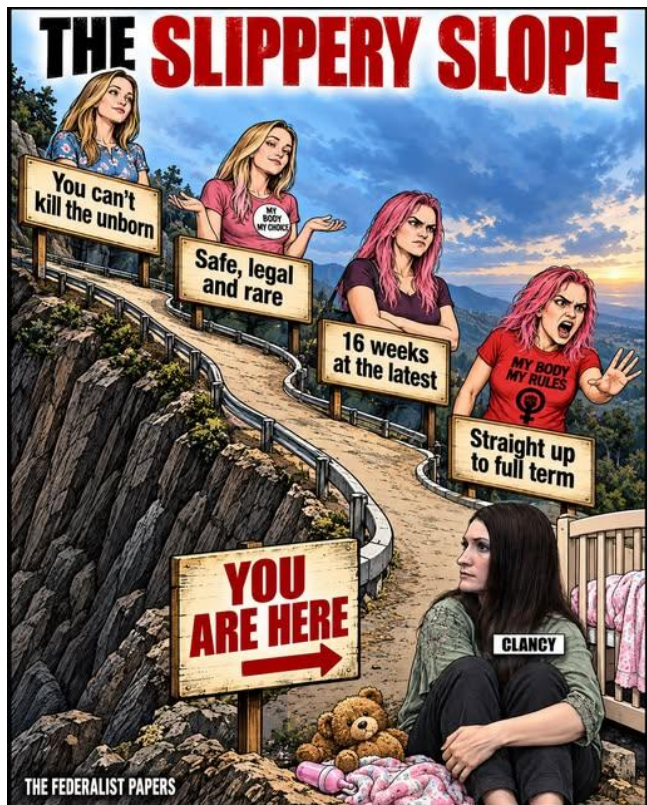

"A government is not legitimate merely because it exists."

~ Jeane J. Kirkpatrick

SADLT&R Is How Legislators, government chief executives, and judges ply their trade to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Concept is pretty simple. Government makes a law, say, to increase housing availability. Expected result would be for "Yus, the American People" to build tenements so hordes of rental lookers will have competitive rent prices.

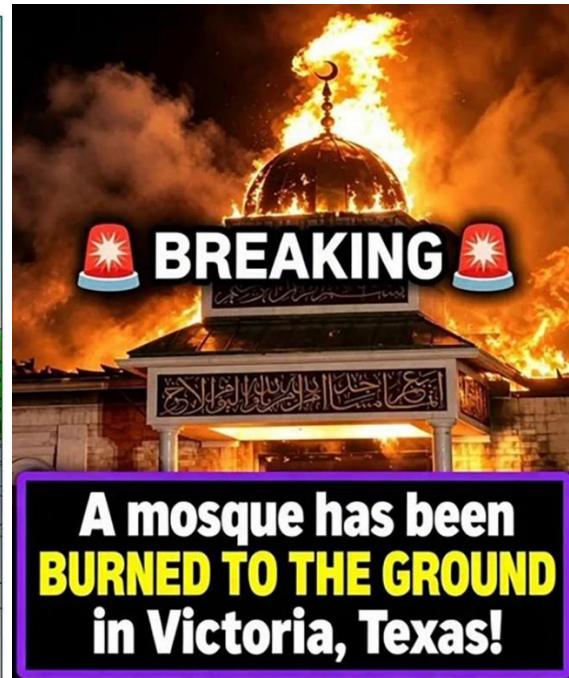

"Resistance to tyranny is service to God."
 ~ James Madison

Lo And Behold, Housing Shortages Go On, despite government's decree to have more units built to deal with shortages. Government persists with housing rental price control efforts. Prospective contractors, run numbers on rental income versus cost-of-sales on new units. Return on Investment (ROI) analysis says to remain clear. Investors/builders will remain clear till ROI reports all clear.

They protect their lives and property against “State” intrusion.

Yes, Democrats Are That Stupid.

“We, the American People” would be smart to see they who demonize comparative wealth held by comparative wealth holders as evil do so based on their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB), and seek to have their PAVB made lawfully compulsory. They who demand comparative wealth be taken from comparative wealth holders (tax the rich) demand prejudice against wealth holders.

~ Edmund Burke

There Is More Than Adequate Evidence to stop government from accruing comparative wealth than to confiscate comparative wealth from wealthier wealth holders. Historically, governments taking up arms against governments has resulted in enormous harm to millions of people who had no part in government against government struggles. “Our, the American People’s” preventive power is ominous.

America Is on the Ballot

We now have a generation that has been wooed by radical Islamists who not only live in America today but have positions of power.

9-11-2026

Today marks 25 years since the 9/11 terrorist attack on America. Radical Islamists hijacked two passenger planes and flew them into the Twin Towers in New York City; thousands of Americans died. There was another plane taken over which was crashed in Pennsylvania murdering hundreds more Americans, and yet another attack at the Pentagon. Those of us who witnessed these horrific attacks remember exactly where we were that day.

It was a Tuesday morning when we all watched over and over again the video of those planes hitting the towers. As we watched in horror the scene became even more horrific; the towers were now burning infernos and dropped as if imploded. We watched as Americans jumped to their death, others running for their lives as the collapsing or crumbling buildings seemed to chase them through the streets of New York City.

For a brief moment that week, and the few weeks following, it seemed as though our world stood still. There was an eerie feeling in the atmosphere, as there were no planes flying in the skies over America! September 14, that following Friday, high school football games were played; Americans were not about to allow an attack on our soil to stop us from our lives. I remember that football game, not whether we won or lost, I remember the feeling in the air. It was a sunny afternoon leading into the evening. A determined, yet somewhat solemn crowd gathered into the bleachers, but when the National Anthem was played, not a person in the stands was sitting down; we were all standing in one accord. America had been attacked; thousands of Americans were dead and many yet missing. We were shocked, as we thought this would never happen here in America; and we all swore... We Will Never Forget!

For what now seems to have been too short a time, Americans came together, we had prayer vigils all over the country and many Americans went back to church. But all too soon we once again began to feel comfortable and safe. We rallied when our nation went to war to retaliate. Perhaps we didn't forget, but we stopped feeling the anger and vulnerability we felt that day; many also forgot the need of God and His protection.

Those of us who watched this attack have not forgotten, however we now have a generation that has been wooed by radical Islamists who not only live in America today but have positions of power. America, in my opinion, is in grave danger of something much worse than what happened on 9/11. I say worse, because it will be all of America that will be lost.

Those attacks on America, September 11, 2001, were just the beginning of bringing America down. Radical Islamists have partnered with American Communists (is that phrase an oxymoron?). The communists have infiltrated America's learning institutions, from K-12 and in our universities. For many decades, those to whom we trusted to educate our children have been grooming them to hate America; confusing them with a warped view of our history; and teaching them to hate their skin color; if you are white, you are guilty, if you are brown you are a victim.

That day all America was willing to Fight – Fight – Fight!

Today, 25 years later, it is said that there are a third of Americans who were not alive to witness America under attack. The enemies that day remain enemies today, still promising to murder all Americans, all Christians and all Jewish people.

Many Radical Islamists are taking advantage of America's freedom in order to secure a place in our nation's government. These radicals campaign on promises of radical change in America; they hate our Constitution, pledge to remove Rule of Law, advocate to implement Sharia law, and this same cult of radicals who attacked on 9/11 still want to kill all Americans (the infidels).

There was no doubt, September 11, 2001, America was under attack! Not a war of brave soldiers, but of cowards attempting to murder as many civilians as possible, and to reign terror on all Americans. These enemies? Radical Islamists!

Perhaps our world stood still or stopped turning for those moments and days that followed... but America did not stop! We continued to live our lives, not in fear but as Americans; a free and sovereign People. Within just hours and days, many brave men and women signed up to fight; joined our military and the brave sought out the cowards.

The war in Iran, which we are now fighting, is a continuation of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on America.

Those who were not here to witness the horror of 9/11 do not remember... they did not live the horror. It is unfathomable, but true, that our younger generations are being gaslighted...

Mayor Zohran Mamdani is a radical Islamist, wearing a suit. He was asked not to attend the ceremonies of memorials today in NYC, but he did anyway. He disrespected those who came to mourn and remember their loved ones. While others were weeping, Mamdani was seen smiling, laughing, and joking with AOC, who was standing beside him; she too was smiling and laughing, while New Yorkers wept. There is no love and no respect in the hearts of Communist-Marxist-Islamists.

Why did he attend? My opinion is that he came so that he could stand in plain view to all, as Americans mourned.

Perhaps he was thinking, "Yeah my brothers, you brought down those towers and 'we' murdered thousands of Americans, and now I am their Mayor! Like you, I hate this nation and this city; I hate all these Americans who are standing around me. I pledge to continue our mission. I will reign down misery, and financial terror. I will replace their Constitution with Sharia law to destroy all of New York City and the state. Those who voted for me are infidels who are clueless but are very USEFUL idiots!"

Rep. Omar, who is also a radical Islamist, once downplayed the 9/11 attack as "Some people did something." Hasan Piker, who is a dangerous nobody, says America deserved the 9/11 attacks. Abdul El Sayed, who is also a radical Islamist, is running for senator in Michigan.

This week the GOP had their first ever midterm convention. Americans seem to either not vote in midterm elections, or they vote (for whatever reason) to give the opposite party the majority in Congress. Since Americans seem to show up to vote when President Trump's name is on the ballot, he is asking that we pretend that his name is on the ballot and vote republican. We should not have to be convinced or coerced to vote in the midterms.

The reality of it all is that America is on the ballot this November.

September 11 is on the November ballot; the thousands of dead Americans on that day, those who died in the war following, and those who have died or are still suffering from the cancer caused by the poisonous dust and dangerous debris of that day, are on the ballot this November.

National Security is on the ballot in November.

Illegal immigration and our borders are on the ballot this November.

The future of America is on the ballot; your children and your grandchildren are on the ballot this November.

Law and Order are on the ballot this November.

Our US Constitution is on the ballot this November.

Liberty is on the ballot this November.

Twenty-five years ago, America was attacked! We swore we would never forget. We should not forget and we should continue to defend. However, we were gullible and naïve as we allowed the election of radical Islamists to fill government positions. Their hate has not changed. If we give them any power, they will destroy us... They came to destroy America; We will never forget!

After the 9/11 attacks, Americans looked to God and attempted to renew their faith, but comfort and the feeling of security returned and once again we have let our guard down. America is still under attack! Instead of the radicals flying planes, they are putting their names on our election ballots.

The very survival of America is on the ballot this November.

President Trump will not be here forever, it's time that We the People started taking our roll as "Consent of the governed," seriously. Midterms are just as important as "presidential elections." So get out to vote and encourage others to do the same.

America is under attack; that is on the ballot this November. Americans must once again be in one accord to...

Calls For Wealthier People To Be Taxed More continue pouting from media outlets. “We, the American People” would be smart to do some digging to get at root impetus for demands wealthier people to pay more taxes. A media opinion writer will, no doubt, be vilified for claiming it is not a wealthy person’s fault America’s tax code has deductions available to every American taxpayer.

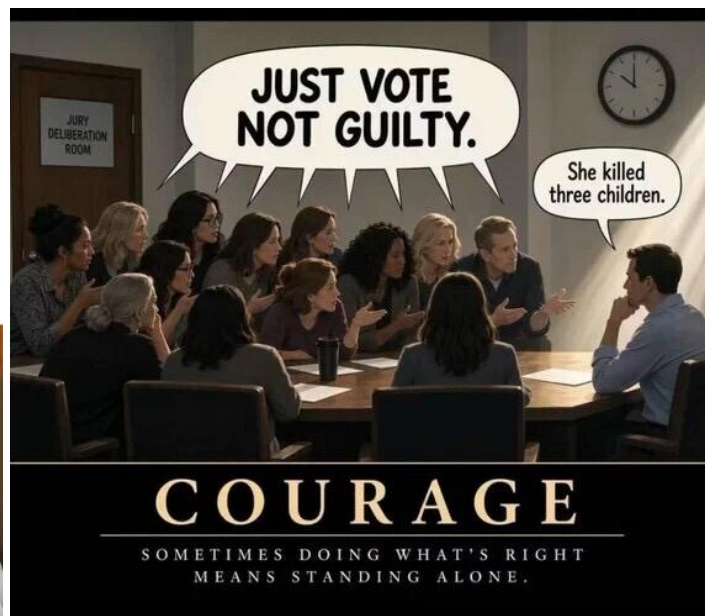

“Through an unwieldy combination of big government, big military, big business, big labor and big cities, we have created an unworkable mega-nation which defies central management and control. ”

The lone juror who stood up to 11 psychopaths to ensure that justice gets another chance is a total hero. He's doing right by those 3 kids. May the Lord protect him forever!

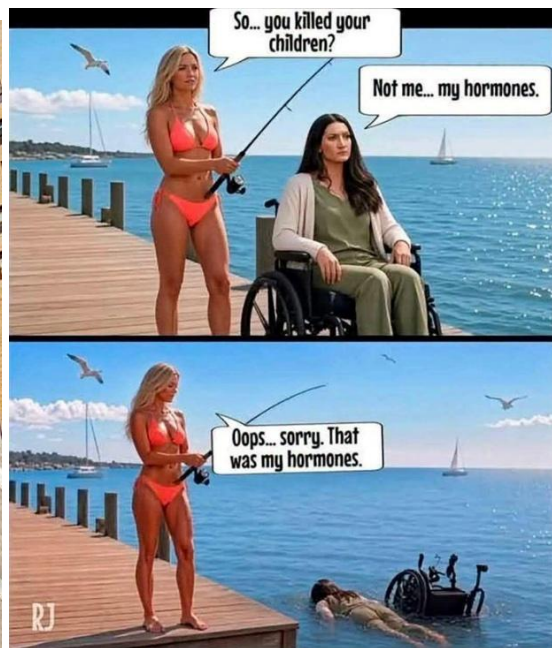

"Our, the American People's" tax loopholes are part of American tax codes because legislators we elect write tax loopholes into America's tax codes. Closer to real problem, not a solution to elect new legislators. If we truly believe wealthier people need to be taxed more to keep America financially afloat, then elect legislators who will make it happen. Tax code changes have to get by legislature votes.

“The greater the power, the more dangerous the abuse.”

~ Edmund Burke

Legislators Will Legislate to satisfy their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). At best, electing new legislators makes laws subject to PAVB held by newly elected legislators. We, a sovereign citizenry, are more than capable of prohibiting legislators from writing tax codes not approved by “Us, the American People.” It is our unwillingness to act as sovereign citizens to reform tax codes.

"Frasier" star Kelsey Grammer once said, "If someone has to die as a result of rape, then we should kill the rapist, not the unborn child."

Make that make sense

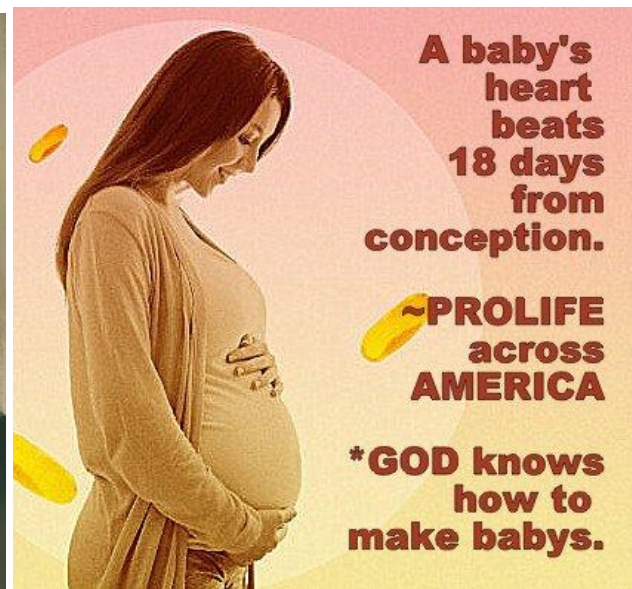

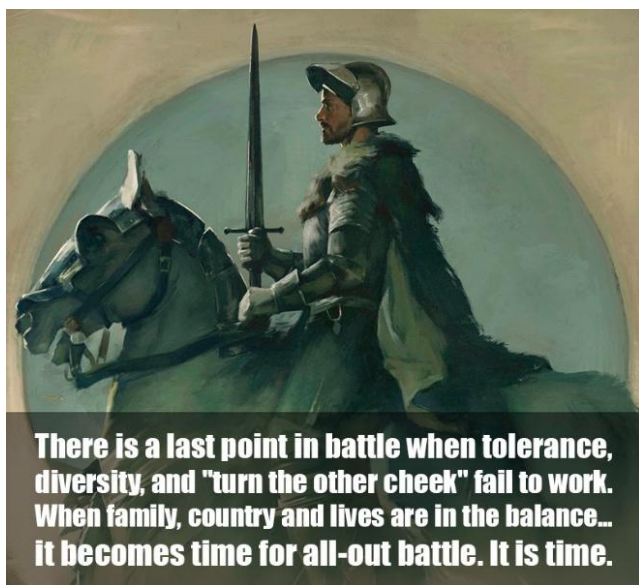

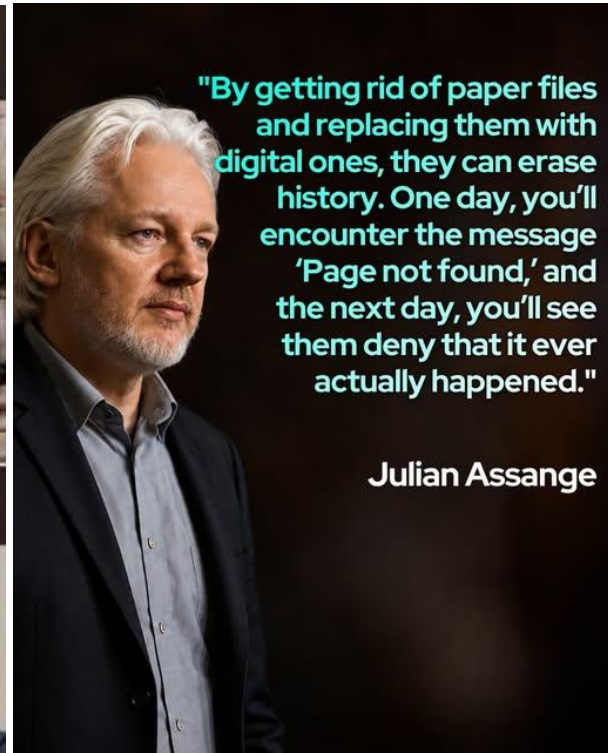

Current federal law says you must know English to become a citizen. So why are foreign language ballots even printed?

A Min Driver Underpinning Calls for greater taxes on wealthier people is America's supposed equity gap between America's uppermost class and working people. Concept is wealthier people should have less wealth, working class people should have more. How, exactly, taxing wealthier people more would mean more equity for working class people is questionable. Unless it, literally, is Robin Hood at work.
