Politicians posting pictures to show they do everyday things like us

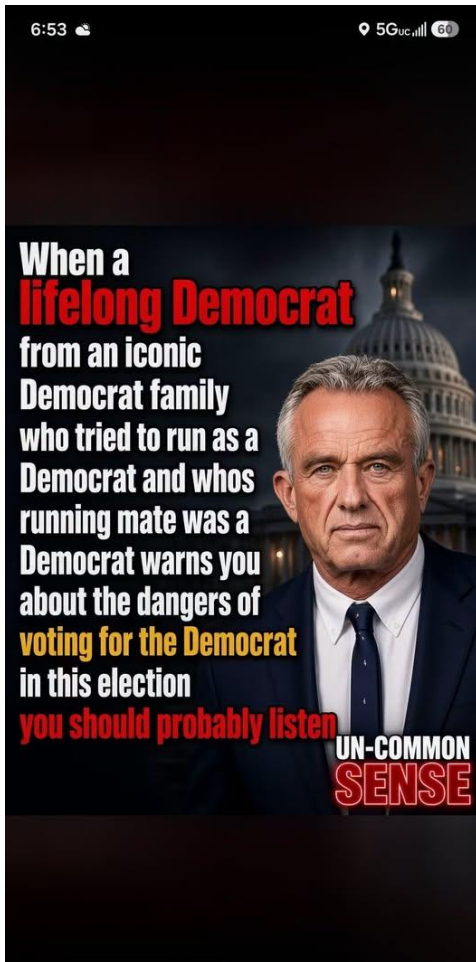

"Our, the American People's" presidents may not, as a matter of convenience, promulgate executive orders inconsistent with federal law. Not, can America's presidents issue executive orders requiring executive level federal employees to behave in manners contrary to federal statutes. Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) has ruled against President Donald J, Trump blocking mail-in voting.

"National uniformity is being imposed by the political class that runs Washington, the economic class that owns Wall Street and the cultural class in charge of Hollywood and the Ivy League."

~ Michael Hill

Practically Speaking, Acid Tests for lawful legitimacy come down to one factor. Public acceptance. "We, the American People" can, as advocates for or against a given law, demonstrate no more effective action than to, as a body politic, comply with or stand against legislative particulars. Legality, as an institutional matter, is worth no more than paper it is written on. Civil behavior defines acceptability.

"Nothing is so admirable in politics as a short memory."

~ John Kenneth Galbraith

It Is Not Surprising Some of “Us, the American People” would be inclined to stand against or for a scrupulous law. America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions empower legislators to make laws they, legislators, find necessary to establish behavioral deference for tenets articulated by Constitutional precepts and protections. Laws are legitimized by civil concurrence.

Trying To Disarm Us Was Never About OUR Safety, It Was About Theirs

Election 2026, No Matter How Congressional and commonwealth/state legislatures result, will not bring about universal accord among us as a sovereign citizenry. Our persistent goal will be to exert power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) through our elected representatives or SCOTUS. Media Outlets Are Floating Articles On Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act 2010 (also known as Affordable Aare Act (ACA), PPACA/ObamaCare) reporting there are millions of Americans who did not sign up for it, or, were signed up without their consent. "We, the American People" would be smart to scrutinize, in detail, proposed public plans for virtually any undertaking to be certain such plans will deliver as promised. Government initiatives are not voluntary; they are law. Law has a near completely involuntary aspect. Law removes choice. WEEKEND WISDOM: Regarding The RNC Debate - Character Matters!

"We Mutually Pledge To Each Other Our Lives, Our Fortunes, And Our Sacred Honor."

8-25-2023

This week we watched a debate between eight republican candidates all supposedly vending their willingness and want to be President of the United States. There were certain requirements each had to meet before the "esteemed" RNC would allow them on the stage for the FOX NEWS Show... I mean republican presidential debate.

This is not just another analysis of the RNC debate that took place this week. One moment stands out above all the questions...

Those eight who stood there apparently were the chosen ones by the RNC. One of the requirements for "making the stage" was to sign a pledge that they would support whoever ended up being the Republican Primary Winner for the Presidential election of 2024.

One of the final questions on the night of the debate, was would these candidates honor their "pledge" to support Donald J. Trump if he is the primary candidate for the Republican Party. To verify that you will honor the pledge you previously made, please show your support by the raising of your hand. There was an immediate YES response from Vivek Ramaswamy, Nikki Haley, and Tim Scott. The other five looked around and then slowly and reluctantly raised their hands, with the exception of Asa Hutchison, who never raised his hand.

It is obvious, from speeches previously made by these candidates, especially Chris Christie, they never intended to honor a pledge in support of Donald J.

Trump for President. Chris Christie, who doesn't have a bridge to the presidency, was shaking his head no, as he was barely raising his hand.

Character Matters! At least five of the eight candidates had no intention of honoring the pledge they signed in order to qualify their presence on the debate stage. Why should any American trust them to keep the pledge they would be required to make before they officially become the President of the United States of America?

Oh, come on Beth, it's not like that was a "real" pledge...

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much." Luke 16:19 KJV

This is the pledge that one takes when being inaugurated as the President of the United States:

Article II, Section 1, Clause 8:

Before he enter on the Execution of his Office, he shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:– I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.

General Milley took at pledge in the army:

"I, SSAN), having been appointed an officer in the Army of the United States, as indicated above in the grade of do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter; So help me God."

(DA Form 71, 1 August 1959, for officers.)

Did General Milley break his oath when he (admittedly) conferred with China, assuring them that he would keep them informed should the President (President Donald Trump) decide to make any moves against them?

I believe he not only violated his oath but also committed treason against this nation, the President and We the People.

Character Matters!

I'm also remembering back to the night of the 2016 election when Hillary Rodham Clinton proved without a doubt that she did not have "the right stuff" it takes to be President of the United States of America. She was so distraught about losing that she was too drunk to even come down and face all those supporters who had sacrificed and worked hard to help her campaign. She only had thoughts of her own bruised ego and couldn't care less about those "peasants" who were also broken by the loss of the election. Hillary, as dirty and corrupt as she is, does not have what it takes to honorably endure the ups and downs of life. She doesn't possess the fortitude to be a leader of a free nation. What difference does it make?

Character Matters Hillary, Character Matters!!

President Donald Trump has been indicted four times now. He was impeached twice, on what we now know, without a doubt was false information. Hillary paid for the Russian dossier and she along with others (including Barack Hussein Obama) conspired to frame a sitting president! The conspiracy continues by going after others who were a part of President Trump's 2016 campaign and the 2020 election. All those who have conspired, including these Podunk district attorneys and prosecutors, are guilty of breaking their oath of office.

I'm certain I have the number incorrect (meaning I didn't remember all) but to my quick effort, there have been at least 35 Americans who have been harassed and indicted by this current administration. Comments have been made that the reason these prosecutors are going after Trump's advisors, lawyers, and others, is to break them and get them to turn on Trump...

... then my mind went to those 56 men who vowed, pledged to each other:

"We Mutually Pledge To Each Other Our Lives, Our Fortunes, And Our Sacred Honor."

Character Matters!

When a politician signs a pledge he or she does not intend to honor; he or she then does not deserve our vote or trust.

Vivek Ramaswamy made the statement that we (America) are now in our own 1776 moment in time. Will Americans choose Liberty over Socialism? Will Americans choose Independence over dependence?

If Americans no longer believe that Character Matters, we are doomed to slavery. Lies enslave but Truth does set us free! We the People should demand integrity in our elections and Truth from our elected officials.

Life, Liberty, Integrity, and Truth! Character Always Matters...

When “Our, the American People’s” government in F. D. Roosevelt’s time forced people to turn in their gold holdings for currency then revalued gold at close to twice its dollar value per ounce, it was an act allowing government to increase its wealth by legal theft. Ordinary people could (would) do nothing to stop it. Government by, for, of “the people” was reduced to nothing more than catchy words.

“The standard of living of the common man is higher in those countries which have the greatest number of wealthy entrepreneurs.”

~ Ludwig von Mises

"We, the American People" are fools by any measure when we allow government to meddle with economic activity. FDR's gold confiscation move was an ideological control America's economy as was fitting to personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) held by FDR's gold policy writers. PAVB-driven government amounts to contempt for how ordinary American's can engage in trade for profit.

"There are two kinds of people – those who do the work and those who take the credit. Try to be in the first group, there is less competition there."

FDR's Gold Confiscation Policy, essentially, transferred wealth from private hands to government coffers. It would be, theoretically, impossible for "Us, the American People" as private citizens, to act on government by seizing government property (wealth) and returning it to us. We, though, as a sovereign citizenry, would be legally capable of doing precisely so were we to choose to do so.

"Political elections do not choose leaders of society. Rather, they are an exercise in which groups of people choose individuals who will assist them in looting other groups of individuals, those folks who were unfortunate enough not to be able to elect their own political strongman."

A Fundamentally Destabilizing Socio-economic factor is inflation. Inflation occurs when there is too much money available for available goods and services. Government controls money supply. Money, as a commodity, amounts to value of credit. When someone deposits currency in a bank, said person's bank account reflects credit – one's ability to exchange credit value for tangible goods and services.
