“We, the American People” would be smart to regard with grim skepticism government power under selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation SADLT&R. SADLT&R empowers government to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) as officials deem necessary to pay for myriad government services to whoever government decides shall be provided.

It Is Reasonable To Note All – all – government authority is accorded by consent of “Us, the American People.” It follows it is up to us to supervise government action to make sure, among other things, government officials are not legislating, taxing, and regulating based on officials’ personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). PAVB is inherently biased; government is to be free of predisposition.

“Federalism is not when the central government graciously allows the states to do this or that. ”

~ Clyde C. Wilson

“Our, the American People’s” representative Constitutional republic governmental form has a fundamental weakness where protecting Liberty through Constitutional constraint is at stake. Our commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions are subject to interpretation by one and all, not least voters. There is nothing to stop America’s electorate from empowering sheer tyrants.

“It is true the shot fired at Fort Sumter was a mistake since it provided the pretext for the Southland to be invaded by foreign troops, but the right of secession realized through the ballot box remains an essential part of our constitutional order.”

~ George Kalas

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to overrule Commonwealth/State (10th Amendment) Sovereignty as determined and defined by citizens of those respective Commonwealths and States. They uphold limited government without equivocation.

Thank you Satan that the Christian evangelicals aren't being encouraged to vote so our muslim and communist comrades can win all the elections and totally rule the USA.

There Is No Unequivocal Justification for taxing wealthier people more than not-so-wealthy. There being no unequivocal reason doesn't stop people from demanding their fellow human beings with comparatively large property (wealth) holdings be taxed more. How much more depends on who's making 'tax-the-rich' demands. Comparative wealth taxes can mean anyone with more is taxed more.

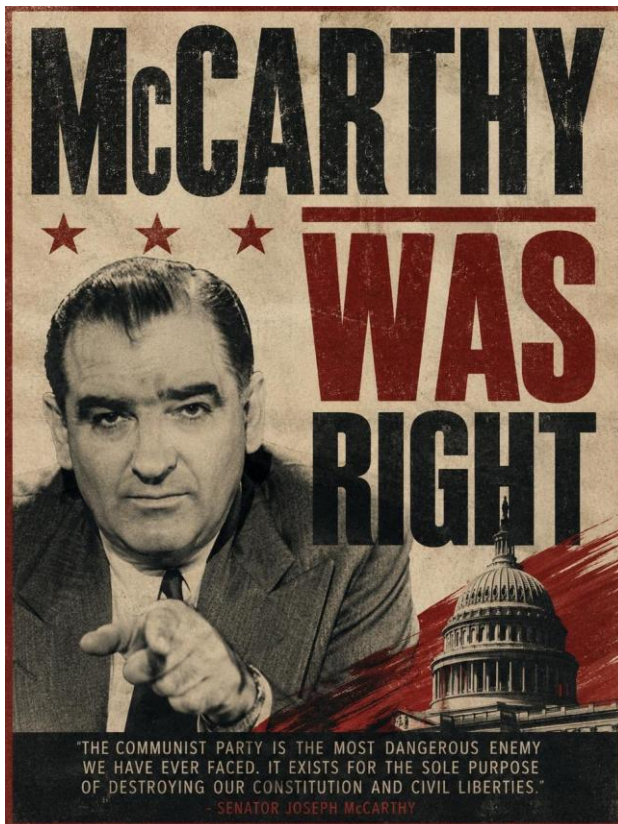

"The laws of economics tell us that the expansion of the central state can't go on forever."

~ Llewellyn H. Rockwell, Jr.

Reminder the Republican Party was founded in a tiny schoolhouse in Ripon WI in 1854. The purpose? To stop the Democrats from expanding slavery across America. Every American should remember this.

HIGH GAS PRICES ARE ONLY TEMPORARY, BUT ELECTING COMMUNIST ISLAMISTS IS PERMANENT DAMAGE TO OUR COUNTRY. I'LL BE VOTING REPUBLICAN ALL THE WAY!

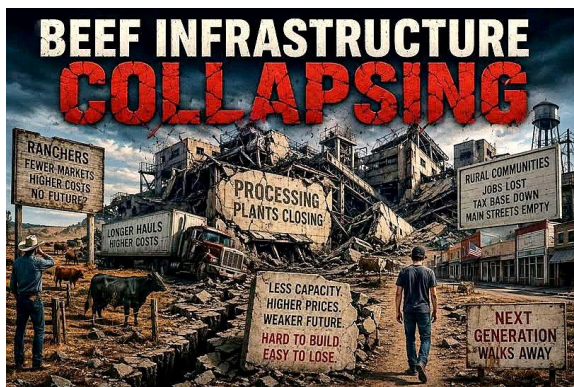

It's Not Hard To Make A Case 'tax-the-rich' demands are rooted in an idea people deserve equity regardless their inability to earn it. From a government justification standpoint, it can be argued government needs surpass individual rights to keep property (wealth) they earn. Either argument only needs strength of law to confiscate property (wealth) deemed necessary for societal wellbeing.

“The leviathan state, that monster devouring civilization in this century, is in the throes of death.”

~ Llewellyn H. Rockwell, Jr.

“We, the American People” elect those people we want to make and implement tax laws. Those elected have made laws we have not seen sufficiently unfair to warrant nullification. We have power to remove those representatives we find do not legislate, execute, or adjudicate as we would have them adjudicate, execute, or legislate. If we desire wealthier people be taxed more, we can direct they be so taxed.

“In order to become the master, the politician poses as the servant.”

~ Charles de Gaulle

Fair And Just Taxation Is Unlikely. Anyone who is worried about Artificial Intelligence (AI) having power to alter people's ability to think clearly might query AI for some hints on fair and just taxation.

They who query AAI might find reference to something called Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TBOR) and how TBOR protects taxpayers. Comparatively wealthier Americans are TBOR-protected taxpayers.

“I say one evil empire down ... one to go.”

~ Michael Moore

People Expecting To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to impose direct taxes of any kind. They refuse to allow government to confiscate private property.

“No state, upon its own mere motion, can lawfully get out of the Union. Plainly, the central idea of secession, is the essence of anarchy. [!]”

Today is a milestone for me... 4,000 shows! Behind closed doors many said, "She won't last a year." Sixteen years later...

Let me introduce myself...

My name is Beth Ann, I own and host CSC Talk Radio, a nationally syndicated talk show. We broadcast LIVE every weekday morning from 10:06-11:00 CT. CSC Talk Radio broadcasts from the heartland of America; smackdab in the middle of this nation... Rural America. It is my belief that Rural America is the foundation of all America and that's why we try to focus on the issues that affect Rural living and Rural giving; our food supply, our energy and yes, our independence. So, when one talk show host referred to us as country rubes, we laughed, because without Rural America that guy would have starved and frozen to death.

My husband and I raised five sons, we have seventeen grandchildren and so far, seven great grandchildren. I tell my listening audience, "I am you!" I'm a wife, a sister, a mother, a grandmother and I've worked numerous different jobs throughout my life; from factory to office to radio! I never expected or planned to be a radio personality, I just kinda fell into it when I took a job with a talk radio host, Derry Brownfield. Derry had his own talk radio program, but he was the founder of the Brownfield Network, which is an agriculture network. When Derry passed away, his producer called me and asked me if I'd like to have my own show and if so, they'd produce it. I had a weekend to get my new show up and running, the LLC approved by the state, and call sponsors and affiliates to get things ready for Monday morning's show. We made it – it was shaky. I had a great helper in a friend, who did a lot of the leg work for me, without her volunteering I wouldn't have made it that first year.

Here at CSC Talk Radio, we stand for God, Country and Family. CSC Talk Radio is not a Christian talk show, but it is a talk show owned and hosted by a Christian. So, when you tune in, you will find that I'm not afraid to pray on air and speak my faith.

It is my heartfelt belief that America was designed, Constitutionally, to be governed locally. I'm certain it was never the intention of our Founding Fathers that America would be run on executive orders and lawsuits. Our Constitution was written so that all Americans could understand it; our Founders believed in the simplicity of governance and the "Consent of the Governed," meaning We the People are the government. The United States of America was established as a Constitutional Republic, not a democracy; a Constitutional Republic only works when the people are paying attention, connected and involved in their local, state and federal politics.

I confess that I get distracted by all the noise and Peyton Place drama of DC politics, but when we get right down to it, Rural America is what really matters. Don't get me wrong, I realize that politics is important, but the drama, theatrics and fearmongering are distractions to pull our attention away from our Constitution and it is all meant to divide us. Our city Americans are also important, they provide many services, but rural America is the groundwork for everything. Many have forgotten from where the produce, food, fabrics, wood, paper, textiles, energy and all that keeps America thriving actually derives.

There's one thing that frightens big government, and that's the thought of We the People uniting and standing together for a common cause; Liberty!

Our Founding Fathers believed in this nation; Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness, Property and Prosperity. Those who have never owned land do not understand the importance of private property rights, which is what sets America apart from and above all other nations.

Keeping government simple and in the hands of the people, as our Founders intended, would have avoided a lot of the problems we're facing today.

God – Government – Family

While our Founding Fathers were not perfect men, they knew and understood the importance of Faith and Religion; Judeo Christian Faith. We do not have an established state church or religion in America; however, our laws are founded in God's laws.

"We have no government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Avarice, ambition, revenge or gallantry would break the strongest cords of our Constitution as a whale goes through a net. Our Constitution is designed only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate for any other."

John Adams

Thomas Jefferson wrote, "The God who gave us life, gave us liberty at the same time."

While Jefferson wrestled with his faith, he did recognize that truth in Liberty comes from God.

*"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim tribute to patriotism who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness - these firmest props of the duties of men and citizens. . . reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principles." George Washington

At CSC Talk Radio we have no reporters, and no investigators; there is me and a courageous volunteer, who calls himself my clever sidekick and "techy guy." My husband, of 53 years, is not immediately involved with the show but has been a patient support, making sure I never run out of coffee and encouraging me when it seemed impossible to keep things alive and going. It is my belief that God called me to the airwaves and it is He who has kept the wolves away; often I will receive a donation from a source totally unexpected and the rent gets paid. I tell my listeners CSC Talk Radio is theirs; and I believe that with all my heart.

Bringing America Home: What Does That Even Mean?

I needed a tagline for the show, as I struggled to sleep one night, I spent time in prayer and the phrase Bring America Home came to me. Home to God; one nation under God. Home to Family; regardless of your political party alliance, Home to Life, Liberty and always free to pursue Happiness, own property and free to work hard for your own prosperity.

Next, my show needed a closing song, and I couldn't afford to pay for music royalties. My youngest son had previously written a song titled "Coming Home." He called me and said, "Mom I've giving this song to you." The song is an instrumental acoustic guitar piece, played by him, however, I asked him to add a sound effect of a door slamming and a voice yelling, "I'm home." So, the tag line and the song came together. My oldest son then created an opening to the show that brought the whole thing together...

"I gotta get home" "I'm Home!"

God, Country and Family.

I get a little riled up every once in a while... but I promise that I will always bring truth, encouragement and my faith to CSC Talk Radio.

"Truth will ultimately prevail where there is pains taken to bring it to light." George Washington Government Expects People To Pay Taxes. Taxpayers, mostly, pay up. “We, the American People” are expected to pay up. If we don’t government will make life miserable until we do. If we have to delay putting things on hold, so be it. We can’t knock on a neighbor’s door and ask for greenbacks to cover taxes. Governme3nt, though, has power to hike taxes as government sees fit to meet shortfalls.

~ Abraham Lincoln

When November comes and you're comfortable on the couch telling yourself one vote won't make a difference, think back to the Lindsay Clancy trial.

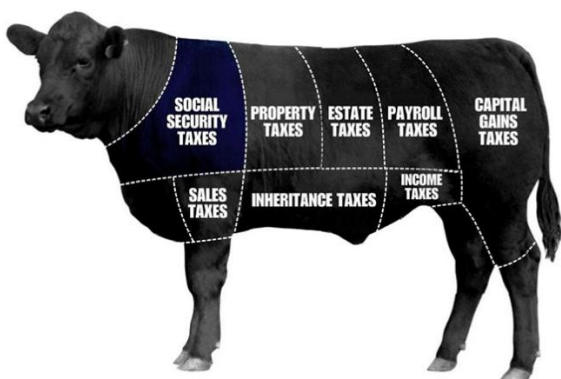

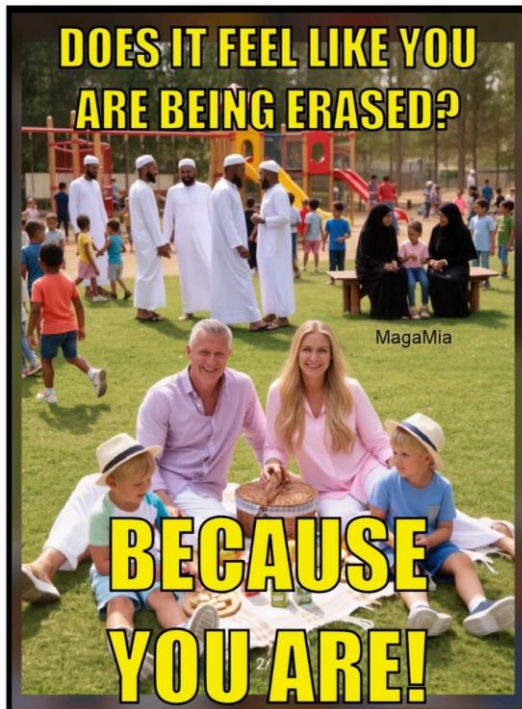

“Our, the American People’s” government would be less tax happy if we, as a sovereign citizenry, were to limit government power to raise taxes as a matter of course. We could force government to \raise taxes no more than, say, cost of living index. Ordinary people (taxpayers) pay government’s bills. No reason why government shouldn’t be held to budgeting within tax revenue without hikes.

“Terrorism is a direct response to the crimes our government has committed against foreigners (besides which, the actual terrorists are within our own government).”

How politicians see you

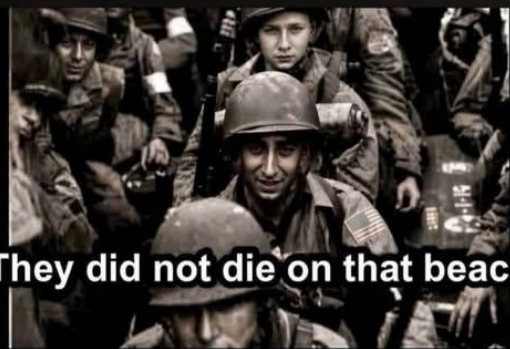

If We Expect, And Require Government to tighten its budget strings, it will be incumbent on “Us, the American People” – and British taxpayers – to refrain from increasing demands for government services. All said and done, it is consumers who pay all, directly or indirectly. Tax increases on business mean higher cost-of-sales, eventually passed on to prices. Higher prices, lower sales.

“If [drugs] didn’t exist, our government would have to invent them, the better to enact laws aimed at keeping the citizens “sinless and obedient.”

The left had more outrage over what Kristi Noem did to her dog than over what Lindsay Clancy did to her three children.

Explain that logic.

No sounds are more heinous than someone's spoiled kid whining, someone else's dog barking, finger nails on a chalkboard, or a screaming communist demanding tax increases from the rich.
