“Our, the American People’s” Congressional Senate legislator Rand Paul has it America’s Congress has a nasty habit of, on one hand, abdicating power to prosecute wars to America’s president, while stepping in to restrain presidents from reorganization defense forces alignment, repositioning forces, or consolidating forces. Deployment strategy is one thing, impact of name-changing is another.

“War is the only game in which both sides lose.”

~ Walter Scott

President Donald J. Trump Issued an Executive Order (EO) to change America’s Defense Department to America’s War Department. Thrust of War Department moniker, according to media-reported President Donald J. reasons, being War Department lets one and all know “We, the American People” will not hesitate to guard Americans and America’s ideals without hesitation whenever and wherever.

“I abhor war and view it as the greatest scourge of mankind.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

Burden Of War Costs Will Always Fall on “Us, the American People.” Legislators, chief government executives, and judges, seldom find themselves looking down enemy rifle muzzles. It is, thus, incumbent on ue to be sure our military forces are capable of winning armed conflicts with dispatch and, if at all possible, without loss of life in our military forces. We need clearly overwhelming odds.

Admittedly, War Ought Be A Last Resort to resolve country against country conflicts. Chances are ordinary people, acting as sovereign citizenries, could deter wars by refusing to equip or deploy armed forces. Doubtful ordinary people, sovereign or not, have wherewithal to stop their governments from using war to gain political control. People are too ready to exert force to control other people.

“The chief qualification of a mass leader has become unending infallibility; he can never admit an error.”

Media Writer Sees President Donald J. Trump's accession to how Adolf Hitler captured Germany's imagination in his rise to power. Appealing to people's notions of how strong leadership can cure perceived or actual national ills. Whether "We, the American People" are to bend to President Doanld J.'s will depend on nothing more than how we see citizen sovereignty limiting government power.

“Our, the American People’s” willingness to defer to America’s legislators, chief government executives, and judges may well be our undoing. Government, by government’s very nature, is to exert lawful force. Lawful force, like it or not, think it necessary or not, believe it limited or not, serves to restrict choice. Not free will. Choice. Choose inconsistent with law, stand subject to be penalized.

There Is No Question President Donald J. Trump will test limits on America's presidents by staying true to his personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). No different than any legislator, chief government executive, or judge taken at random. Legislators, chief government executives, and judges act on laws and Constitutionality as their PAVB, not PAVB held by "Us, the American People" urge.

4-24-2023

I was saying last week that it seems the news and my writings are the same every day! I keep saying the same thing over and over and over again. I use the same quotes from our Founding Fathers, and I reference the same Bible scriptures again and again. As my encouragers explained to me, the fight is still the same. It is true that the corruption never seems to change, other than going from bad to worse to then boldly laughing in our faces.

When in the course of human events...

We struggle not against flesh and blood...

When once a republic is corrupt...

Let me have peace in my day...

These are the times that try men's souls...

Put on the full armor of God...

We the People in order to form a more perfect union...

Those are just a few of the same old quotes and scriptures that I use continuously, but what exactly is that same old fight?

Good vs. evil; evil is always the aggressor.

Big Government vs. We the People; big government is always the transgressor.

Liberty vs. Tyranny; tyranny is always the oppressor.

This struggle, these battles, are not new, but are as old as the day is long. The nature of mankind is to want and lust for power and wealth, and in that, there is always the oppression of others.

If you haven't awakened yet to the knowledge that Americans are no longer free, that our government structure is no longer a Constitutional Republic, nor is it a democracy, and realize it is now an oligarchy run by Marxism ideology, then its time somebody threw a cold bucket of water on your sleeping body or checked you for signs of life!

The headlines alone are enough to make you angry. Yet anger without purpose is just a waste of energy and as I understand it energy is a precious thing these days, right?

What we have here, is a failure to communicate... communicate truth that is! America is now a corrupt Oligarchy.

According to Merriam Webster, an oligarchy is a government in which a small group exercises control, especially for corrupt and selfish purposes. Plutocracy is when the rich and elite are in charge. Monarchy is when a country is ruled by a king or queen. Gerontocracy is when a country is ruled by elders. (Our congress does look a bit geriatric.) America actually looks like all these with the exception of Monarchy. We no longer resemble our once Free and Independent Constitutional Republic. ...Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed... (The Declaration of Independence.)

My point is, we lost our Constitutional Republic a long time ago. The crime, the violence, the chaos, the one-tiered justice system, the tyranny, and the oppression of American citizens, are all symptoms of a corrupt oligarchy.

While Americans were sleeping, working our tails off, enjoying vacations, hosting backyard barbeques, attending our children's sports events, going to church, and exercising our First Amendment, they... the elected officials, were busy confiscating our rights and our liberty. When we weren't paying attention, they amended the contract and changed the rules. They established bureaucratic offices and appointed numerous officers to harass us and "eat out our substance."

At this corrupt juncture, what do we do?

Well, we don't give up and we don't surrender!

It isn't in my nature to surrender. Have you ever played hot hands? When I was a young teen, we played this rather physical game. You place your hands out in front of you with palms up and the other person places his or her hands palms down on your palms. The hands underneath attempt to make a quick move to slap the hands on top. The hands on the top try to quickly escape. (it's a game of quick reflexes) Once there is a miss, the positions switch places. I played this a lot with one of my brothers, until he begged me to relent as my hands were fire engine red. Don't feel too sorry for me, his hands were red too, however, he did have a strength and height advantage and could get in a mean slap. My point is, I was not willing to surrender.

Are you easily led to surrender or to give up? Is it easier to say ... give me peace in my day and ignore the slavery of your children tomorrow?

Who should we trust in the government? NO ONE!

Did you know that former presidents, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, and Barack Hussein Obama have joined forces to raise money to fly illegal aliens into this nation? (Welcome.US) While George W. likes to paint pictures of the wounded soldiers, when was the last time any former president of the United States of America took up such a noble cause for Americans? I don't recall any. We have wounded soldiers and families without moms and dads because of wars these Presidents enacted. Where's the fundraising for them? Oh, citizens are doing that! These three former presidents (wealthy beyond measure) are breaking federal immigration laws, and no one is doing a darn thing about it!! They are literally, openly, committing treason!

Bill Barr, the former Attorney General, refused to investigate the corrupt election of 2020, saying there wasn't enough corruption to make a difference in the count, but how did he know that without an investigation? He refused to look into the Dominion machines. I realized Bill Barr was not a man of integrity when he protected the elites from the murder of Jeffrey Epstein; he refused to look further into the so-called suicide. We know Bill Clinton hobnobbed with Epstein a lot, how many other well-known officials were into this sick perverted sex ring? Barack Obama had a daughter who worked for Weinstein... Congress has a slush fund (courtesy of your tax dollars) to silence their "accusers." Former AG Barr is now speaking on "news programs" criticizing President Donald J. Trump. These people are despicable and do not represent the best of America.

Biden and Blinken orchestrated the letter that the 50 so-called former national intelligence officials signed, declaring Hunter Biden's laptop story to be Russian propaganda. By the way, some of those loyal liars received positions in the Biden administration. Now, you'd think Russia would get tired of being the LEFT's constant go to criminal. But, on the other hand, maybe all that U.S.

uranium that Hillary Clinton gave to Russia was worth all the gossip and accusations. I doubt they're worried much about "saving face."

Perhaps I do keep saying and writing the same words over and over and over again, but the battle for freedom and independence is a never-ending war with many battles. It is time We the People, if we really want to be free, start making noise and take action to win our Independence back. I pray it is not too late!

Get involved and start thinking for yourself while thinking futuristically about America and our posterity. Today we were told that FOX News made a last minute settlement with Dominion to the tune of $787.5M, then they suddenly announced that they are immediately "parting ways" with Tucker Carlson. Last week they "parted ways" with Dan Bongino. I'm just thinkin' these things might all have some relative common denominator. All who watched FOX News the night of the 2020 election saw that they were not totally honest when calling the races. This morning AOC said on MSNBC that Tucker Carlson should be censored, maybe she's calling the shots at FOX these days.

As hopeless as this all might seem, Liberty is always in the hands of the people... but first it must be a longing and a lust within our hearts... otherwise, we are already captives!

Psalm 33:10-22 NIV

The Lord foils the plans of the nations; he thwarts the purposes of the peoples. But the plans of the Lord stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; the people he chose for his inheritance. From heaven the Lord looks down and sees all mankind; from his dwelling place he watches all who live on the earth – he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.

No king is saved by the size of his army; no warrior escapes by his great strength. A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; despite all its great strength it cannot save. But the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love, to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

We wait in hope for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name. May your unfailing love be with us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you.

Turn back to God and place Your trust in Him. His strength, His wisdom and His Light will lead our paths.

Get out your copy of our contract with our elected officials (The U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights) and read it! Read again the Declaration of Independence. Write a new one, I think we must!

But before, during and after all these things... Pray America, that our God will forgive us, guide us, and strengthen us to Bring America Home© for our Liberty comes from God and in all these things He shall be glorified.

There Are, For Loyal GOP Members, media lists of democrats letting government come to a standstill. There are, for loyal democrats, , media lists of GOP legislators letting government come to a standstill. Related media coverage extolls “Us, the American People” to recognize those legislators on shutdown lists are responsible for us not knowing who, in Congress, is to blame for closed government doors.

“The urge to save humanity is almost always a false front for the urge to rule.”

~ H.L. Mencken

Government Shutdowns Are A Nuisance because legislators are willing to shut down government when they (legislators) don't get spending appropriations they want. Those legislators are willing to have pat withheld from government workers until shutdown negotiations open government doors. “We, the American People,” a spineless sovereign citizenry, not legislators are to blame. Serves us right.

Humour

Nothing In “Our, the American People’s” future indicates we intend to prevent government shutdowns. Rather than make it painful for legislators to let shutdowns happen, we are set on keeping our legislators of choice in office so they will make laws we can use to have power over our fellow Americans – and anyone else we think should have their behavior changed by lawful force. Force.

“Where morality is present, laws are unnecessary. Without morality, laws are unenforceable.”

~ Anonymous

Government Shutdowns Are Needless. Even in light of one or other camp declaring their demands essential to keep Americans from dying for want of government services. Regardless our political bent, we could, were we willing and determined, get people out from under government dependency. America's GDP funds all private and public deeds. GDP is based on sales. As is our independence.
