“The difference between death and taxes is, death doesn't get worse every time Congress meets.”

~ Will Rogers

Not All Governments Are Out To Fleece wealthier taxpayers. Media report Netherland's government has dropped an initiative to impose taxes on various form of investments. Wouldn't be a stretch to say Netherlands's wealth tax opponents were voices crying in a wilderness. In any case “We, the American People” can bet Netherland's wealth tax advocates will live to fight another day. And then, another day.

“The Constitution is a limitation on the government, not on private individuals. It does not prescribe the conduct of private individuals, only the conduct of the government. It is not a charter for government power, but a charter of the citizens’ protection against the government.”

~ Ayn Rand

One Of “Our, the American People’s” richest fellow Americans would like to see robots subject to FICA levies. Might not be too long till tax junkies will adopt as their slogan, “If it moves, tax it, and, if it doesn’t move, tax it.” All said and done, taxation is a way of applying President Taft’s rule on no stronger urge than to lay down rule of conduct for other people. Taxation is behavioral control by law.

“Government should stay the hell out of people’s business.”

~ Barry Goldwater

There Is Next To No Chance “We, the American People” will see anything close to fair share taxation. One reason, by way of example, is effective tax rate (ETR). ETR is defined as total tax paid divided by gross income. A taxpayer earning $50,000 gross income who paid $6,500 in taxes would have an ETR of 13%. Idea would be to have all taxpayers taxed at like ETR. Still wouldn’t be fair to some.

~ David Friedman

Taxes Tax Wealth, Fair or Unfair. Wealth, directly or indirectly, is created by exchanging goods and services for goods and services. Sales is how consumers, directly or indirectly, pay all taxes. It would be 'fair' for "Us, the American People" to abolish all taxation but taxes on commerce, collected at transaction points, and approved by local taxing authorities. No other taxes at any level for any reason.

“A well-crafted pepperoni pizza, being necessary to the preservation of a diverse menu, the right of the people to keep and cook tomatoes, shall not be infringed.” I would ask you to try to argue that this statement says that only pepperoni pizzas can keep and cook tomatoes, and only well-crafted ones at that.”

~ Bruce Tiemann

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to remain in office if they break their word to their constituents. They dismiss and replace them summarily.

“Our, the American People’s” media regularly circulates articles calling for wealthier people to be taxed on their holdings by applying special taxes to wealthier Americans wealth beyond income. It is at least as strong an argument not to tax wealth beyond income and as it is to argue to tax such holdings. Arguments for ‘wealth taxing’ amount to variations on a theme – wealthier people have more wealth.

“The error is in the assumption that the General Government is a party to the constitutional compact. The procedure of secession was to have an election for delegates to a state convention, to meet in convention, and to adopt ordinances of secession.”

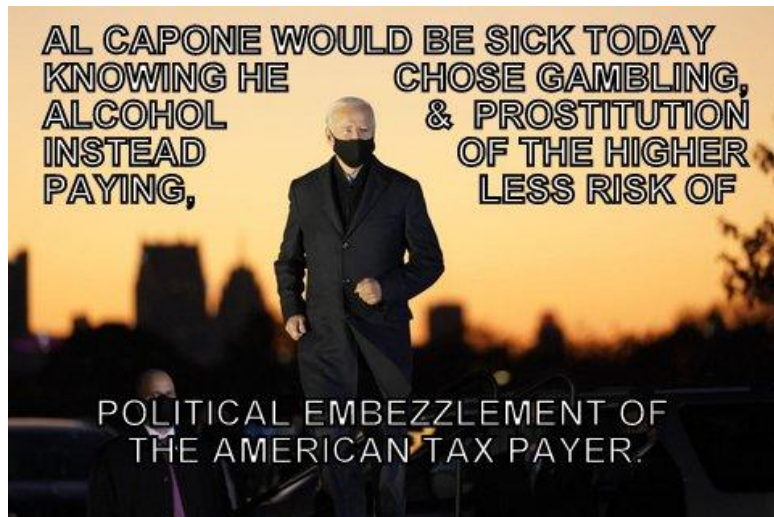

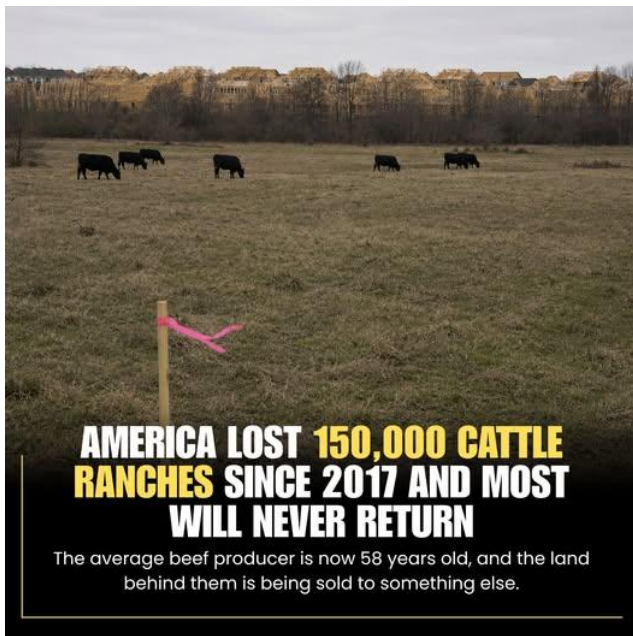

~ ~Clarence Carson

Requiring Wealthier People To Pay more tax on wealth is cast as having wealthier pay their fair share. “We, the American People” would be smart to be hesitant, if not outright stubborn, about allowing government to lay special taxes on wealthier people for no reason than quieting demands they pay their fair share. Our legislators decide tax rates for all taxpayers and how rates are to be applied in taxation.

“Our government is an agency of delegated and strictly limited powers. Its founders did not look to its preservation by force; but the chain they wove to bind these States together was one of love and mutual good offices ...”

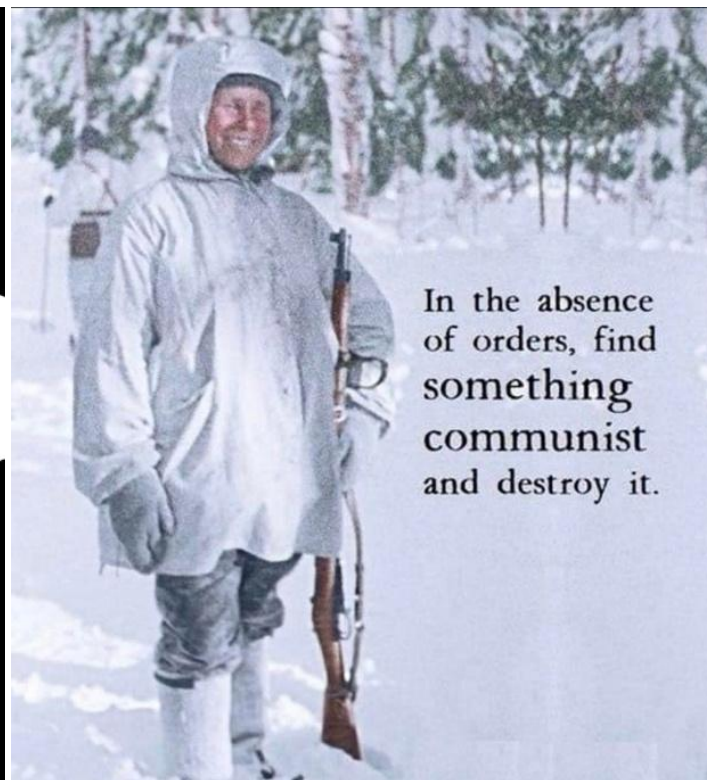

~ Jefferson Davis

If Wealthier Taxpayers Among “Us, the American People” don’t pay their fair share of taxes, it is because government has decided how they shall be assessed to decide their taxes due. There is no reason why wealthier people should pay more if they are complying with valid tax codes. Government, not us, as a sovereign citizenry, sets tax rates. Makes us vassals, not self-governing citizens.

“If you would not confront your neighbor and demand his money at the point of a gun to solve every new problem that may appear in your life, you should not allow the government to do it for you.”

~ William E. Simon

Civilization Is Made Up Of, for want of more evocative adjectives, haves' and 'have-nots.' 'Have-nots' will forever work to get a share of wealth (property) held by 'haves.' Most rampant way for property (wealth) transfer is 'have-nots' providing goods and services 'haves' are ready to trade some of their property (wealth) (a process known as working) for goods or services held by 'have-nots.'

When Once A Republic Is Corrupted!

How long has the corruption been the plague that stole American Liberty?

I’m a little melancholy today. As I was reading through the news and realizing just how deep the corruption in America’s government actually is... well, I also realized that all the topics and scandals we chase are merely symptoms of a nation consumed with a disease. “Corruption” is the disease, and all other things are symptoms. So, when we talk show hosts chase this and that scandal, we are missing the proverbial mark.

Thomas Jefferson wrote: “When once a Republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the growing evils but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles; every other correction is either useless or a new evil.”

You cannot legislate away the symptoms and believe you're removing the corruption, as you are only adding more confusion to the already chaotic laws.

You cannot legislate morality. (...every other correction is either useless or a new evil.)

According to Thomas Jefferson, the symptoms we are experiencing in America cannot be fixed, unless we restore the lost principles of this nation.

I have written a lengthy article regarding our Founding Principles, which is in two parts here on Substack. (see links below)

The American Crisis Continues: The Lost Principles

https://bethanncsctalkradio.substack.com/p/the-american-crisis-continues?utm_source=profile&utm_medium=reader2

https://bethanncsctalkradio.substack.com/p/the-american-crisis-continues-f40?utm_source=profile&utm_medium=reader2

So, why my melancholy? The testimony of a whistleblower was quite telling, as to how long the corruption of the Biden cartel has been going on in this nation. Whistleblower Gal Luft: ' I May Have to Live on the Run For the rest of My Life' For Informing U.S. Gov. About Biden's Influence

Peddling: <https://amgreatness.com/2023/07/06/whistleblower-gal-luft-i-may-have-to-live-on-the-run-for-the-rest-of-my-life-for-informing-u-s-gov-about-bidens-influence-peddling/>

The fact that so many in U.S. bureaucratic departments and institutions have worked to hide the corruption and joined in the manipulation of our elections, is very concerning. The fact that it is not just one party doing their best to hide this is also very telling. How long has the corruption been the plague that stole American Liberty? While we have suspected there was more to the assassination of an American President, JFK, the powers that control "classified and historical documents" refuse to release that information after 60 years. Why? Perhaps because the institutions (bureaucratic departments) that are now going after President Trump while playing coverup for all the Biden family corruption are the same ones responsible for that attack on America. (The assassination of an elected president is an attack on America!) The people in the offices and departments have changed, but the institutions have not. They continue to grow in power and authority, which is completely unconstitutional.

We the People have been lulled asleep for too long. We've lived in a state of denial. None of us want to believe our nation is no longer a nation Of the People by the People and for the People.

It seems our Republic has been seized by those we trusted to keep watch. Instead of keeping watch they decided to ignore the Constitution and work to detour around it. Congress continues to create and pass "Pretend Legislation," as they bypass the unalienable rights of We the People. For years, they have been seizing authority that is not theirs, for the purpose of controlling We the People, our land, our food, our families, our jobs, our children, our education, and our money. Politicians have ignored the rule of law, they are allowing crime and violence in the streets, they grew government to remove our Independence and make us dependent on government. We the People were like the frog in the water that was slowly brought to a boil. We the People accepted the social programs and willingly turned over our money (taxes) to provide entitlements.

The nature of mankind is to want power and "absolute power corrupts absolutely." While government elected officials and government appointed bureaucrats are to blame for the evil taking, the truth is that We the People were the ones who should have been standing watch and guard over our Liberty and Independence.

We the People are the ones who must remove the corruption. We the People must demand the restoration of our “Lost Principles.” Then and only then will we be able to Bring America Home.©

'Affordable' In PPACA Is Debatable. Media/Internet articles vary in numbers of Americans who have reliable, secure access to healthcare. For instance, a federal task force removed some 750,000 PPACA accounts on grounds of fraudulent claims. In another reference, some 3 million people dropped PPACA coverage when subsidies lapsed, causing premiums to increase. Like schemes, free healthcare is a ruse.
