“Political leaders in capitalist countries who cheer the collapse of socialism in other countries continue to favor socialist solutions in their own. They know the words, but they have not learned the tune.”

~ Milton Friedman

Media Outlets Report Socialists treat freedom as an obstacle against liberation and greater backing for common good. Related media coverage indicates capitalism far outweighs socialism in propping common good in healthcare, environment, housing and education rather than socialism's mandates, coercion, and cooperation. Free market exchange power gives capitalism an edge over socialism.

"We can't be so fixated on our desire to preserve the rights of ordinary Americans ..."

~ Bill Clinton (

Media Outlets Tell "Us, the American People" capitalism, historically speaking, has enjoyed greater lasting power and greater proliferation than socialism. Copilot Artificial intelligence (AI) source points out there have been times in history when socialism had brief surges of popularity. Capitalism, being more opportunistic for individual wealth accrual attracts greater numbers of wealth achievers.

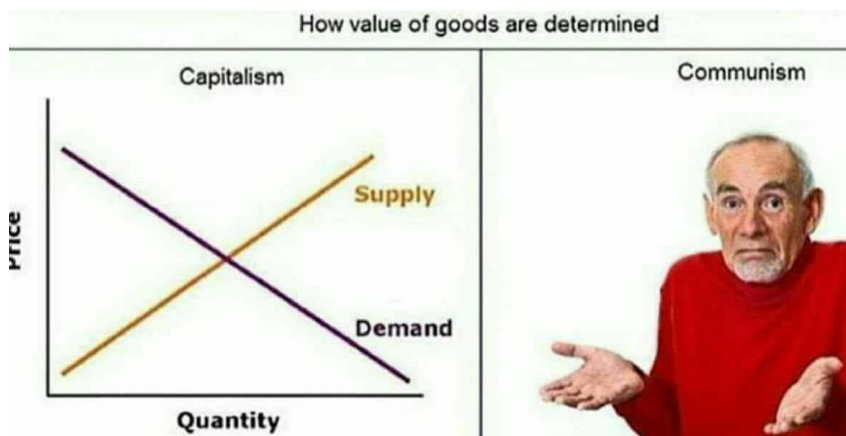

"Americans are so enamoured of equality they would rather be equal in slavery than unequal in freedom."

~ Alexis de Tocqueville

Socialism, While Appearing To Offer a greater say in how government handles socio-economic hurdles, places decision-making power in fewer hands, culling “Our, the American People’s” say. Compared with capitalism, socialism offers less chance for rivalry. Competition offers consumers more cost-advantage shopping, thus, a more open market for economic leverage through individualism.

“The rights of every man are diminished when the rights of one man are threatened.”
 ~ John F. Kennedy

Free Societies Would, Theoretically, Be Attractive to prospective voters who believe larger government would protect people of comparative less wealth from exploitation be those with comparatively more wealth. Ironically, under socialism, there would be less opportunity for “Our, the American People’s” ability to have meaningful say in government policy due fewer decision makers.

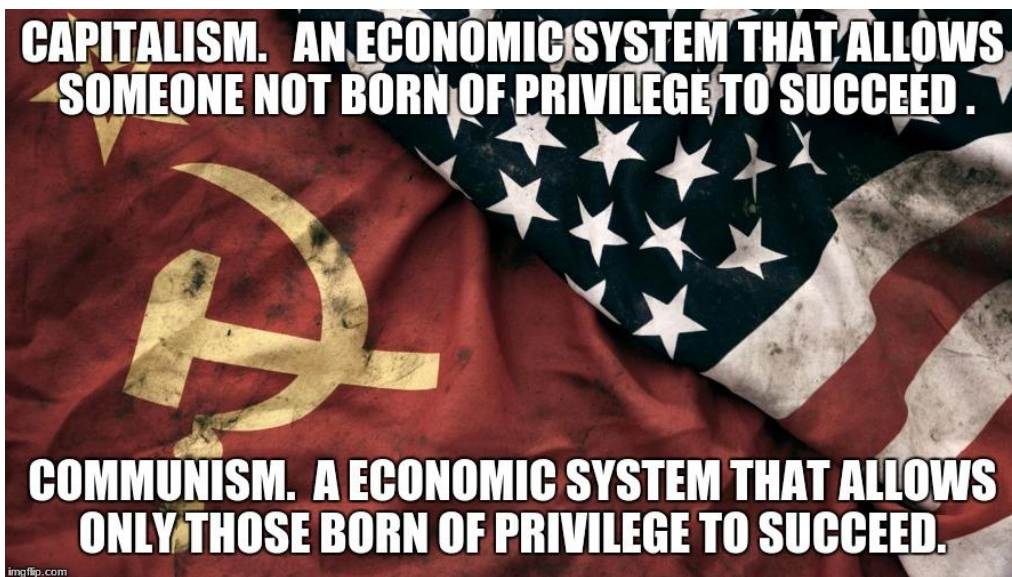

“In a republican nation whose citizens are to be led by reason and persuasion and not by force, the art of reasoning becomes of first importance.”
 ~ Thomas Jefferson

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to permit federal authorities or courts to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond specific Constitutional constraint. They protect self-government by exercising citizen sovereignty.

Media Has Blessed “Us, the American People” with an article calling into question America’s Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) ultimate power. While SCOTUS power, decision-wise, is final, SCOTUS opinions are opinions. As such, SCOTUS decisions are not final; they are subject to Congressional review and revision or replacement. Public acceptance decides if there be finality.

“Whatever the issue, let freedom offer us a hundred choices, instead of having government force one answer on everyone.”

~ Harry Browne

“We, the American People” would be smart to not lose sight of America’s political character and power as a self-governing nation. ‘Conceived in Liberty’ may be as good a description as any to conceptualize America’s modus operandi in dealing with socio-economic matters. Euphemistically, America’s governmental system might be thought of as a never-ending determination to, in due course, get it right.

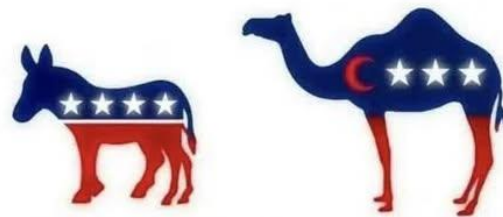

“I want a government small enough to fit inside the Constitution.”

“Our, the American People’s” cultural makeup is one of diverse, loosely coupled temperaments, ideals, and practicality. Such makeup is not given to simplicity when applied to how we reach solutions to socio-economic percolation. We are of fiercely independent thought, not easily swayed when our personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) are challenged. Diverse PAVB spawn diverse debate

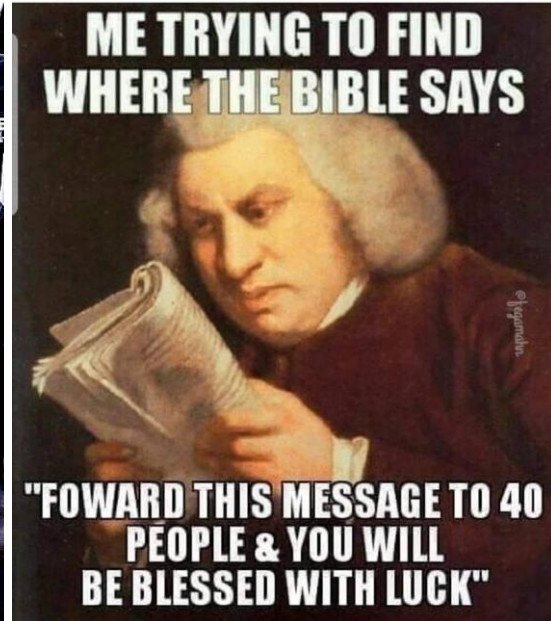

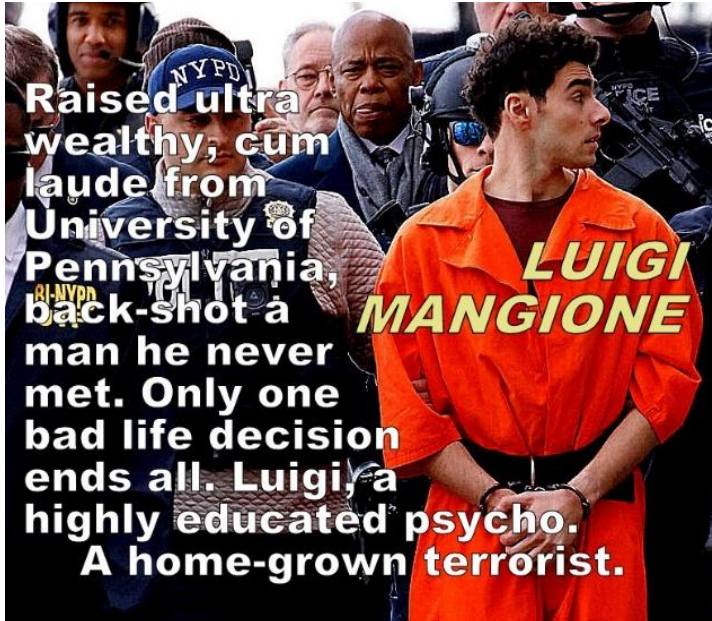

“Immigrants used to come to America seeking freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and freedom from government. Now they come looking for free health care, free education, and a free lunch.”

~ Harry Browne

When a fool gains power, the first thing he does is silence the wise. The next thing he does is gather other fools around him.
The final thing he does is destroy the nation.

~ PLATO

SCOTUS Power To Shape America's political character depends heavily on SCOTUS Justices' PAVB melding with America's sovereign citizenry's political character writ large. Given America's electorate tendency to seat public officials based on perceptions public officials will follow public will, we, as voters, are responsible for SCOTUS errors. Because we elect officials who decide SCOTUS makeup.

Has it been so long, that we have forgotten? Have we forgotten the ballots in suitcases, the pallets of ballots in trucks, the election precinct windows covered in cardboard? Has it been so long that we have forgotten the threats against our now President Donald J. Trump? Has it been so long that we have forgotten how the Biden-oligarchy allowed an invasion into our nation to change the trajectory of American culture? Do the words of the left not burn in our ears as they claim or promise to, once and for all, chop down America's tree of Liberty; burn the Constitution, do away with the three branches of government (equal but separate in power), and remove the electoral college, which protects the integrity and fairness of our elections? Can we not see that they fully intend to sacrifice American girls and women to the likes of the radical Islamists and their sharia law? Do we not fully grasp that freedom of religion will be no religion but Islam, should the Marxist-Islamist-democrats gain power in any city, state or DC?

Have We the People not yet learned that Liberty is our responsibility, and voting is not just a privilege, or a right? It is also an obligation to ourselves and to our posterity.

From time to time, I deal with the ugliness of American politics and the brazen tyranny of the Marxist democrats by writing in a lyrical style. In December of 2020, I was so moved to pen in rhyme (Dr. Suess style) the events of that election year. There is no doubt in my mind that the 2020 election was stolen from the American people. It was not President Trump they stole the election from; it was We the People. They knew we preferred a man who loves this nation, who wanted to protect and save our nation from its enemies and preserve our Constitution. I will admit I do not always agree with President Trump's methods, but I do agree with his goal; I cannot say either is true when democrats or their RINO accomplices are in charge.

November 3 is America's Midterm Election. Americans must show up for the President they elected in 2024. Have faith my friends; do not allow the fearmongering to convince you to vote democrat on your ballot. Do not allow apathy to keep you from your obligation to yourself and your children, grandchildren and yes, great grandchildren. Take to heart the last line of my "silly rhythmic word ballad" - For Liberty comes not on papers of old, it lives in the hearts of Patriots Bold!

How the Grinches Stole Liberty

by Beth Ann CSC Talk Radio -- December 8, 2020

Everyone down in Freeville liked Liberty a LOT,
But the Grinches, who lived above Freeville, did NOT!

The Grinches hated Liberty, and the whole Election season!
Now, please don't ask why, no one quite knows the reason.

It could be their heads weren't screwed on just right.
It could be, perhaps, that their shoes and facelifts were too tight.

But I think that the most likely reason of all,
May have been that their hearts were two sizes too small.
Whatever the reason, their hearts, faces or shoes,
They stood there on Election Eve, dreading to lose.

Staring down from their towers up high, with their sour, Grinchy frowns,
At the warm lighted windows below in Freeville towns,
They knew everyone down in Freeville beneath,
Was busy now, hanging Patriotic wreaths.

"And they're studying their ballots and praying!" They snarled with a sneer,
"Tomorrow is Election Day; It's practically here!"
Then they growled, with their Grinch fingers nervously drumming,
"We MUST find some way to stop Liberty from coming!"

For tomorrow, they knew, all the Freemen and Freewomen,
Would wake bright and early to news of great winnings!

And then! Oh, the noise! Oh, More Rallies and Noise!
Noise! Noise! Noise!
That's one thing they hated! The NOISE!

NOISE! NOISE! NOISE!

Then those in Freeville; the young and the old,
Would sit down to feast on their apple pie alamode!

Thank you Mom they'll say and they'll feast,

FEAST! FEAST! FEAST!!

Which was something the Grinches couldn't stand in the least!

No happy citizen displaying Liberty with mom, apple pie or anything free!

And THEN they'd do something they like least of all!

Everyone in Freeville, the tall and the small,

Would stand close together, with drums beating and bells ringing,

They'd place their hands on their heart then they'd all start that singing.

They'd sing! And they'd sing! And they'd SING!

SING! SING! SING!

And the more the Grinches thought of when Free-People Sing,

The more the Grinches thought, "We must stop this whole thing!"

Then they got an idea, a most awful idea!

THE GRINCHES GOT A HORRIBLE, TERRIBLE, AWFUL IDEA!

"We know just what to do!" Those Grinches laughed all together.

We'll steal this election and stop Liberty forever!

And they chuckled, and clucked, "What great Grinchy tricks!"

First the dead they shall rise and vote lickety-split,

We'll fix this election, Freeville will not sing,

They'll be shocked at their loss and we'll OWN everything.

No signatures needed; ID's not required.

The polls must be guarded by overseers ~~we~~ hired.

When ballots arrive; no date is too late!

The ballots, we'll cure them for our candidates.

The Dominion machines will make counting so easy,

The software we'll program for fractional-vote seizing.

It's a wonderfully corrupt and sinister scam,

We'll fill out more ballots as numbers demand.

We'll plot and we'll plan and we'll plan,

PLAN! PLAN! PLAN!

We'll mail millions of ballots to the near and the far;

We'll hide them in suitcases, boxes and cars.

We'll place them right here and then move them to there,

By trucks and by trollies, by cars and by dollies.

We'll move all our ballots; we'll win this great folly.

The people in Freeville they'll scream and they'll cry,

There will be no contesting, our hijinks are sly.

We thought every thought and we've schemed every scheme,

Our plan is so brilliant, so wise; we are pleased.

It's the most extensive, inclusive voter fraud dream!

The Grinches' plans were the perfect strategy,

For stealing the election in two thousand and twenty.

And when we have stolen each seat in the land,

We'll go to work quickly and change all the rules;

Those deplorables in Freeville are such little fools.

We'll own the medias, the courts and the judges,
We'll hush their free speeches; we'll silence their fusses.

No Worship

No Praying

The Grinches are saying,

No Guns

No Land

No Juries of peers

The Grinches did give such wicked sneers.

We'll change all their precious laws of the land,
Their Republic will die by the pens in our hands.

They became oh so giddy as they dreamed of globalism,
No talk and no thoughts of Freeville exceptionalism.

Election Day came just like they had planned,
The numbers were switched and the stealing began.

When morning came in Freeville that day,
The people in Freeville were shocked and dismayed.

Something has happened, our votes have been stolen,
The pallets of ballots were feloniously swollen.

Dominion opinion, the counting by crooks,

Hijacking and hacking – The books have been cooked!

The people were shocked but rallied again,
They stood all together vowing justice to win.

They sang and they waved their flags and their banners,
They pledged quite determined to get truthful answers.

They looked at the Grinches and said YOU'RE CORRUPT!
The truth will be found and you'll ALL BE LOCKED UP!

The Grinches were sloppy and not very smart;
The evidence was mounting against their fake counting.
Their efforts were thwarted by the ballots imported.
Their corruption we see, their FAKE win is aborted!

The people in Freeville are happy again,
They're singing and bragging about all their WINNING!
They're saying their pledges with even more meaning.

The Grinches' hearts grew nary a size;
Remorse was remiss for again they would try.

So, the people in Freeville threw the Grinches in jail,
No offer of pardon, no acceptance of bail.

Because they stood together courageous and strong,
Because they fought to right all of the wrong,
Liberty in Freeville Forever Lives On!

You see America, Liberty is always in the hands of the people, but first it must be a longing and a lust within their hearts. Where is your heart? Will you vote against the President and against National Security because you have a higher cost at the gas pumps? It's still lower than during Biden's-oligarchy regime, as gasoline reached an all-time record peak of over $5.00 per gallon in June 2022. Don't let this be what makes you waver back to democrats; there is much more at stake than the price at the gas pump. If the price of gas or even the price of groceries, at this moment in time, is what makes your final determination in the voting booth, you will have sold out too cheaply. For the threats against our Liberty are much greater than our inflation.
