It Is No Wonder "We, the American People" are angry with how government works. Might not be so angry if government was more predictable. Might not change anything if government officialdom was more predictable. Any case, media is floating an article on Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justice Elena Kagan finds 'conservative' SCOTUS colleagues threaten democracy.

"The Bill of Rights is a born rebel. It reeks with sedition. In every clause it shakes its fist in the face of constituted authority ... It is the one guarantee of human freedom to the American people."

LIBERALS:
CONSERVATIVES ARE RACIST.
CONSERVATIVES IMAGINING
THE IDEAL SUPREME COURT:

Democracy Is A System Of Government variously defined by citizens having direct or indirect supremacy. Direct control by citizens is a purer form; republics are more indirect forms. Whether direct or indirect, freedom depends on a sovereign citizenry taking steps to prevent government from becoming despotic. Government operates on lawful power. Lawful power works to restrict choice.

“Men in authority will always think that criticism of their policies is dangerous. They will always equate their policies with patriotism, and find criticism subversive.”

~ Henry Steele Commager

“Our, the American People’s” governmental form can be thought of as a representative Constitutional republic. Justice Elena Lagan, arguably, ought be largely happy with representative Constitutional government for no other reason than it is how Justice Kagan became a SCOTUS Justice. A president dominated Justice-t- be Kagan; an elected Congressional Senate confirmed her as a SCOTUS Justice.

“Freedom is not a luxury that we can indulge in when at last we have security and prosperity and enlightenment; it is, rather, antecedent to all of these, for without it we can have neither security nor prosperity nor enlightenment.”

~ Henry Steele Commager

SCOTUS, Like Every American Court, arrives at decisions based on court members applying their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) to cases brought before them. America's commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions empower courts to find as courts see PAVB fit – there being no sure adjudication standards.. It is for “Us, the American People” to assure court integrity.

If Patrick Henry Spoke Today, His Words Would Be Much the Same

Democrats brought a holy war to the streets of America; Evangelical Christians must not sit this election out!

Upon reading two articles from patriots of our past, it seems that those words reflect the graveness of our situation today. Perhaps you are familiar and perhaps you are not, but I encourage you to read both: "The American Crisis," by Thomas Paine and the great speech given by Patrick Henry, which ends with those famous words, "Give me Liberty or give me Death." (LINK BOTH)

What about the words of President Trump after being shot in the ear, others laid wounded and one dead... yet he decreed, "Fight, Fight, Fight!" Whether or not you like this man, for any person to rise up from such an event yet prepared to continue his flight for restoring Liberty in America, is amazing and should be rallying to us all.

I have been told that many Evangelical Christians do not vote in our elections. I am an Evangelical Christian and I do vote, so it is a curious thing to me that my brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus do not see the need to hold onto Freedom of Religion in America. Even though this nation has strayed from our God and His laws, our laws are based on Biblical laws; perhaps we strayed because you stayed home. If you do not vote and we lost such freedom in America, it is your children and grandchildren who will suffer the wrath of the godless. Right now the godless in America are quite vocal and they vow to murder (genocide) all Christians and all Jewish people. If you believe, as a Christian your stand is not important, perhaps you should learn about the speech from Patrick Henry... why did he so strongly state, "Give me Liberty or give me death?" Why did Joshua say, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord?" ...and why do the scriptures tell us to choose Godly men of integrity? (Deuteronomy 1:13 and Exodus 18:21) It is your duty to vote; God expects you to participate in choosing men (and women) who will represent you and lead this nation. You must not allow yourself to be entrapped by the false words of “separation of church and state.” There was never to be a separation of your faith from government; there is, however, to be a separation of government from your faith. (Christian faith) Our First Amendment makes this abundantly clear.

As I once again read over the speech by Patrick Henry, my mind flashed back to those beginning days of America, and then I found my mind and heart race forward to our present United States of America. While our Founding Fathers fought for Liberty against a tyrannical king, we again find ourselves in a quandary; a new tyranny disguised as a generous government replacing the independence and sovereignty of every American. It is a government of envy not a government of prosperity. It’s a government of dictators, not a government of We the People.

Today’s Marxist-Islamist movement to end America’s Constitutionality, find disdain in sovereignty, independence, nationalism and patriotism; they hate God, Israel and America. They must strip Americans of their national identity, and of their American pride in order to destroy the United States of America. Today’s enemy is not a single king oceans away, it is a movement here being led by one particular political party, in order to gain complete and total control of government.

Imagine as you enter the city and you see the gangs in the streets. Imagine, as happened in Britain, you see another man attempting to behead a citizen. Imagine the criminals being hailed and protected, as victims lie beaten, stabbed, raped and murdered... Would you believe you are in the United States of America or would you think you had been transported to Somalia, Haiti or Morocco?

The night before he would give his speech, Patrick Henry would witness horrific violence in the streets of Culpepper, Virginia. It was a minister being scourged; bloodied, the bones of his ribcage now revealed for all to see. When he inquired as to why this was taking place, he was informed that the minister simply refused to take a license from the king to preach. He was only one of several ministers of the gospel who were arrested and beaten in order to make a point: the king will tell you how to worship, what to say and when to say it. A license is your consent to comply; permission to do what would otherwise be illegal without it.

I have watched, nearly every night, the violence that is rampaging across America. Violent protests by misinformed and misdirected Americans. These protests happen quickly and are well funded by wealthy globalists. These protestors claim to be protecting illegal aliens who have committed numerous violent crimes against Americans. This violence and chaos is allowed by pretend patriots, disguised as Democrat Party members. In many ways this is the exact opposite of what took place in the days of our revolution... no longer is it a demanding tyrannical king drunk with power, it is a political party greedy for power and willing to sacrifice others and our own nation for political gain and power.

Bear with me as I attempt my own Patrick Henry speech, not because I feel I can do better, but because I see the tragedies of then, in many ways, repeating themselves today. In keeping with the flavor of his speech, I will attempt to use much of the same language as Patrick Henry, while changing a few words and phrases here and there, as I bring the past to the present.

(revised speech)

No one thinks more highly than I do of the patriotism that should be evident in this assembly of Congress. It was once two parties with one goal, Liberty, but today this is not true. However, different men and women who now reside in the House, spend their time in a tug of war for power. While the walls of these chambers cry out, "Life, Liberty and Sovereignty;" patriotism is no longer present in the whole of the body that abides and governs here. But different men often see the same subject in different lights; and, therefore, I hope it will not be thought disrespectful to those gentlemen if, entertaining as I do opinions of a character very opposite to theirs, I shall speak forth my sentiments freely and without reserve. This is no time for ceremony. The question before the House is one of awful moment to this country. For my own part, I consider it as nothing less than a question of freedom or slavery; and in proportion to the magnitude of the subject ought to be the freedom of the debate. It is only in this way that we can hope to arrive at truth, and fulfill the great responsibility which we hold to God and our country. Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offense, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the Majesty of Heaven, which I revere above all earthly kings.

Mr. Speaker, it is natural to man to indulge in the illusions of hope. We are apt to shut our eyes against a painful truth, and listen to the song of that siren till she transforms us into beasts. Is this the part of wise men, engaged in a great and arduous struggle for liberty? Are we disposed to be of the number of those who, having eyes, see not, and, having ears, hear not, the things which so nearly concern their temporal salvation? For my part, whatever anguish of spirit it may cost, I am willing to know the whole truth; to know the worst, and to provide for it. Without such, we will not survive.

I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience. Should it not be that we, in a nation free to worship, realize that the lamp unto our feet must be the God of our Fathers, the creator God who made all men (and women) equal. I know of no way of judging of the future but by the past. And judging by the past, I wish to know what there has been in the conduct of these radical Islamists, who scream hatred to all, where in their speech or in their actions is there any hope? This is not just another election of Constitutional politics that they seek, it is the utter destruction of our culture and our governance. Beware of the insidious smiles of hypocrisy with which they petition against our rights, our God and our Constitution. Trust not these candidates with such empty promises of government utopia sirs, it will prove a snare to your feet. Suffer not yourselves to be betrayed with a kiss. Ask yourselves how would these who hate, govern a nation they claim to be Satan? Should they gain even a small bit of power, do you believe they will act any different from their brothers in other lands who are participating in warlike-violent acts? They have darkened the lands which were once Christian, prosperous and civilized. Look to France, witness the terror in Spain, and how can the gang rapes (they call them groomers) of young girls in Europe be excused or ignored. The hideous ungodly behavior across the seas, is being condoned by those, who are their brothers here, running for political offices and attempting to gain a strong hold in our government. It is a Muslim brotherhood of godlessness, pedophilia, oppression of women, torture and death. The lands from which they came are filthy and dangerous places. Have we not in recent months discovered there is no reconciliation, there is no negotiations with such men; they have no truth and no integrity. Whether they live in the land of much sand, the middle east, or here in the west, America; piracy is their way of life. Their laws are not compatible with our Constitution. They refuse to assimilate into our American culture, they demand their own language, they will not respect our laws, they do not value life, they do not speak of liberty. If ever in power, they will allow only their way of thinking and only their so-called religion. We cannot and we must not tolerate their intolerance!

Just because they are living among us, does not mean they have grown to love us. The destruction of France, London, Greece and Spain, is their same goal for the United States of America. Let us not deceive ourselves, sir. These are the implements of war and subjugation; there is no assimilation, there can be no negotiations, if we allow these radicals to govern, America will become as a third world nation of Islam; we sirs, will all be dead! I ask gentlemen, sir, what means their violent rhetoric if its purpose be not to force us to submission? Can gentlemen assign any other possible motive for it? They have told us their plan of destruction, why would we believe otherwise? They use the woke and the mentally ill as distractions so that we will shake our heads, as if this is not a serious matter of insurrection and absolute despotism.

The invasion of our enemies, which the Democrat Party welcomed, was meant to break America; there can be no other explanation. They have been sent to our land to bind and rivet upon us those chains which the Muslim brotherhood have been so long forging within our nation's borders. What have we to oppose to them? Shall we try argument? Sir, we have been trying that for the last many years. Have we anything new to offer upon the subject? Nothing. We have held the subject up in every light of which it is capable; but it has been all in vain. Shall we resort to entreaty and humble supplication? What terms shall we find which have not been already exhausted? Let us not, I beseech you, sir, deceive ourselves. Sir, we have done everything that could be done to avert the storm which is now coming on. There are no words that can be spoken that will sway them to our own laws and culture; they will not have it! There is no reason, there are no words; commonsense is lost on Islamists, for they serve not a god but a political purpose of absolute power, absolute submission, to rebel will bring death. Their governance is not one of freedom but of envy and tyranny. We have shown patience and tolerance to the detriment of our own rights. This is not about a simple political election. How ironic it seems to me that on this 250th year of Independent America, it is on the brink of annihilation by characters of third-world, insidious, godless, pirate marauders. In those days, our Founding Fathers sought every peaceful way to speak and petition the king. We have no king to petition in America today; we are a land of We the People and our petition is our vote. There is no longer any room for hope that these who masquerade as gentle souls for utopia government will remain peaceful; they will not! If we wish to be free-- if we mean to preserve inviolate those inestimable privileges for which we have been so long contending--if we mean not basely to abandon the noble struggle in which we have been so long engaged, and which we have pledged ourselves never to abandon until the glorious object of our contest shall be obtained--we must fight! I repeat it, sir, we must fight! An appeal to arms and to the God of hosts is all that is left us!

They believe that we are weak. They will use our own laws, pervert our rights and manipulate our language to suit their slick ways; we must tolerate their religion they say – but we must not, we shall not. Their religion is not real; it is a political system with a progressive goal to conquer. We are not weak, but we have been blind.

Shall we gather strength by irresolution and inaction? Shall we acquire the means of effectual resistance by lying supinely on our backs and hugging the delusive phantom of hope, until our enemies shall have bound us hand and foot? Sir, we are not weak if we make a proper use of those means which the God of nature hath placed in our power. The millions of people, armed in the holy cause of liberty, and in such a country as that which we possess, are invincible by any force which our enemy can send against us. Besides, sir, we shall not fight our battles alone. There is a just God who presides over the destinies of nations, and who will raise up friends to fight our battles for us. The battle, sir, is not to the strong alone; it is to the vigilant, the active, the brave. Besides, sir, we have no election. If we were base enough to desire it, it is now too late to retire from the contest. There is no retreat but in submission and slavery! Our chains are forged! Their clanking may be heard on the streets of Minneapolis, Detroit, Chicago, Portland and other cities that have already been seized. The war is inevitable--and let it come! I repeat it, sir, let it come.

*It is in vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace-- but there is no peace. The war is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!

I cringed when I read his words, “we must fight.” ...and then he repeated it, much like President Trump did after the assassination attempt, in Butler, PA. As Americans, who normally do not see war on our own land, other than our civil war, the fight being here is fearfully surreal; but it is here, the Democrat Party brought it to our states, our cities and our communities. Evangelical Christians must not sit this election out; if they do, they are condemning the lives of their grandchildren to a life of slavery and death.

We have long and pridefully thought that America was too powerful and strong to fall; we are not weak, but today we are quite vulnerable. It is our own complacency, apathy and tolerance that has weakened our nation. If the Evangelical Christians stay home and refuse to Bring America Home to God, Country and Family, then it is they who will stand before God and answer for the tortured, murdered, raped, enslaved lost souls. Evangelical means you spread the gospel; you cannot do this if you shut the door on Freedom of Religion (Christian religion) in America.

Democrats brought a holy war to the streets of America; Evangelical Christians must not sit this election out!

Graphic messages are designed at no cost to ADVOCATE FOR the US Constitution, commendable achievements, KJV Bible wisdom, conservative politics, American exceptionalism, patriotic heroes, God, family, country and occasional humor. This organization opposes-detests-all cult activities and including pedophilia, abortion, murder, decapitation, Islam, false religions, liars, satanism, kidnapping, human sacrifices, BLM, communism, trash pandas, antifa, depopulation, crooks, thieves, moldy quanza, illegal immigration, MS 13, antisemitism and other illicit activities—especially elected representatives hiding behind slick suits with big smiles, who are dead-on sold-out to bribery, excessive taxation, brutal regulations, and international espionage. Hanging of convicted traitors is okay. If you are for the positives and against the negatives, we are with you. Please forward to as many as possible—anyone. If any of the negatives strike a sharp hurtful nerve, unsubscribe. We will know. D

“According to the Tax Foundation, taxes now consume more than 38% of the average family’s budget.”

~ Daniel Mitchell99

Policies Come And Policies Go with “Our, the Americana People” elections. Media outlets report WOKE is likely to resurge if Election 2026 goes poorly for GOP candidates. WOKE, trusty Artificial Intelligence (AI) is trustworthy, is an initiative calling for societal justice through informed action, participation, awareness, and frankness. Why such a program would depend on elections is puzzling.

“The same government that brought you urban renewal is likely to make an even worse mess of suburban renewal.”

~ Steven Hayward, The National Review, 3/22/99

PUNCH A MAN IN THE FACE EVERY DAY

STOP ON DAY 100. HE WILL THANK YOU.

FEED A MAN EVERY DAY FOR 99 DAYS.
STOP ON DAY 100. HE WILL HATE YOU.

“We, the American People” have been through a quarter millennium of elections resulting in societal change without coming to grips with self-government whereby we could, if we were willing, inculcate more or less tranquility as far as government policy is concerned. WOKE is more or less similar to any social movement where government is prevailed upon to make a given movement’s policy status.

“Our government, taxes, and ideas of freedom are already duplicates of the Old World. Our politicians determine how we should live our lives – and our individual liberties are sacrificed for the benefit of the Fatherland.”

~ Harry Browne

It Would Be Foolish for “Us, the American People” to lend our support to any government disposed to make a given social movement’s goals and objectives lawfully compulsory. It would be as foolish to ban special interest activity in public squares or classrooms. Banning knowledge seldom, if ever, bans associated behavior, be it directed toward sustaining or changing social norms. Visibility clarifies.

“He who disdains the fall in infant mortality and the gradual disappearance of famines and plagues may cast the first stone upon the materialism of the economists.”

~ Ludwig von Mises

WOKE As A Societal Norms Influencer would be evident if WOKE ideals were presented without Government or other societal forces brought to bear. We can not rely on our federal (U.S./National) Constitution if we do not stand behind it. No Constitution ever shouldered a weapon in its own defense. Constitutions are meaningless without sovereign citizenries putting their principles into positive action.

“Freedom is the emancipation from the arbitrary rule of other men.”

~ Mortimer Adler

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond Constitutional constraint. They exercise self-government to preserve their liberty.

“Freedom suppressed and again regained bites with keener fangs than freedom never endangered.”

~ Marcus Tullius Cicero

Think it Through, See It Through

"I gave my life for freedom -- This I know; For those who bade me fight had told me so."

~ William Norman Ewer

- It's your property, not "State" property.

“A limited government is a contradiction in terms.”

~ Robert LeFevre, The Fundamentals of Liberty

Let Freedom Ring – Abolish Direct Taxation

Require Citizen-Controlled Taxation

Len Ritchey

“Nothing is more difficult, and therefore more precious, than to be able to decide.”

~ Napoleon Bonaparte

“No tendency is quite so strong in human nature as the desire to lay down rules of conduct for other people.”

~ President Taft
