Socialists living in socialism

Mere Days Away Till “We, the American People” converge on Election 2026 polling places and cast fate to four winds by picking those legislators who will decide how Americans’ property (wealth) shall be confiscated and their choice (Liberty) restricted. Reports on prospective voter surveys point to a big Election 2026 win for democrats, and a corresponding loss for hopeful GOP candidates.

“I cannot assent to the view, if it be meant that the legislature may impair or abridge the rights of a free press and of free speech whenever it thinks that the public welfare requires that it be done. The public welfare cannot override constitutional privilege.”

~ John Marshall Harlan

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People” to understand America’s elections are all but useless when we are looking for ways to underpin self-government in America’s triumvirate government system. Counting far more than elections per se, are how election-winning candidates will use their power to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory,

“In view of the Constitution, in the eye of the law, there is in this country no superior, dominant, ruling class of citizens. There is no caste here. Our Constitution is colorblind, and neither knows nor tolerates classes among citizens.”

~ John Marshall Harlan

Media Election 2026 Coverage Portends Better-Than-Average odds taxing wealthier people will win out. Socialist-leaning candidates are given more than slight odds they will win governmental seats. “Our, the American People’s” representative Constitutional republic governmental system offers no sure way for a citizenry to shun tyranny. Taxing wealthier people more has makings o PAVB tyranny.

“The liberty of the individual is the greatest thing of all, it is on this and this alone that the true will of the people can develop.”

~ Alexander Ivanovich Herzen

Avoiding Tyranny In Free Societies Requires An Electorate unwilling to empower government more than is necessary to protect borders and ferret out internal schemes to overtake government and capitalizes on power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty). It's a fight long underway in societies looking for least effort, most reward. Candidates promising such can prevail.

“A censor is a man who knows more than he thinks you ought to.”

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They require elected leaders to defend America's liberty unequivocally.

Media Articles On Sur-Taxing people who are wealthy continue to appear as Election 2026 nears. “We, the American People” – people everywhere – would be smart to recognize governments can tax anyone they want for any reason they want using selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). Sovereign citizenries bent on freedom would ban SADLT&R.

“Complete and accurate surveillance as a means of control is probably a practical impossibility.”
~ Victor Ferkiss1969

All pilots and co-pilots must pass this mandatory dietary compliance test to identify potential terrorist threats before entering the cockpit.

It Is No Stretch To Say America's government wants unlimited power to apply SADLT&R to “Us, the American People” as government deems necessary to obtain operating funds. Sovereign citizenries, if they expect to remain sovereign, are stingy about granting government more SADLT&R power than is necessary. Societies as diverse as societies in America are not overwhelmingly resolved on taxation.

“We are willing enough to praise freedom when it is safely tucked away in the past and cannot be a nuisance. In the present, amidst dangers whose outcome we cannot foresee, we get nervous about her, and admit censorship.”

Palestinians Finally Granted Own Country

Free, Self-Governing, Sovereign Citizenries are not free from electing and seating despotic government officials. Far from it. “Our, the American People’s” Election 2026 may seat more socialist-leaning officials than now have prominent lawful authority in virtually all government levels. Societies are more than capable of electing dictators if voters believe one dictator will be better than another.

“Being tolerant does not mean that I share another one’s belief. But it does mean that I acknowledge another one’s right to believe, and obey, his own conscience.”

All It Takes For Government To Become autocratic is for citizens to vote steadily more power to government. Such voting, more than likely, is promoted by a belief government will make life better by confiscating more property (wealth) from people who are better off and giving more confiscated property (wealth) to those who are less well off. Government, axiomatically, never has enough money.

If you had the opportunity to sit one-on-one with your district's or state's political candidate to ask a few commonsense questions, what would you ask? Would you go down a political rabbit hole of questions, or would you be prepared with a few facts and figures from the past?

What would be your priority of questions?

Affordability?

Lowering taxes?

Constitutionality?

Do the Bill of Rights rate high on your list of Liberty?

Would you ask questions about the riotous behavior of disagreeable people?

Would you ask about their intentions regarding illegal aliens; amnesty or deportation?

Would your questions be for your comfort today or for the future growth and existence of America?

Are you willing to ask for more government entitlements at the expense of your children and grandchildren?

Would you inquire about trans children, drag queens or would you ask about why our children are not being well educated?

Do you believe in America's election process?

Do you have a plan to start whittling down our $44 trillion national debt?

How will you help strengthen American families?

I am not a scholar, but I certainly do have an opinion... okay, maybe we should make that plural; opinions! I do not hold a college degree in political science or law. I did not study in one of our institutions of higher learning and indoctrination. My mother told people that I went to the school of hard knocks! I have been married to the same man for 54 years, we raised five sons, I have 17 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren (so far). My life has not been easy, there were many adventures and a few tragedies along the way... but, together, we all stayed solid as family. I'll take this moment to say, The Nuclear Family is not the problem in America, but the disappearance of it is a big problem; economically, culturally and it is a national security concern. Strong families make a strong and prosperous nation. A good, loving father who is present in the home and a part of his children's lives is a great influence on his sons and his daughters. A good mother loves her children; she does not wish to drown them or strangle them; murder them. She might need to lock herself in the bathroom from time to time to gain her footing and rationality. (Don't ask me how I know that.) Parenting isn't for cowards; I can attest to that firsthand, however, there is no greater reward than to see your children grow up to be good men, citizens, husbands and dads. The same with your daughters. My mother once told me in an unexpected conversation, as she was in rehab after breaking her hip, but she looked at me and said, "You did a good job raising your boys." I was moved to tears; her love and affection at that particular moment was... well, I was caught off guard. I thanked her and told her she was a big help. You see, the nuclear family is important, and it is essential to a nation.

I'm not a scholar but I have had some life experiences raising a family, being a part of a family growing up. I've worked at several different jobs in my life, but I seem to have settled in on a job as an opinionated radio host. It's not a profitable job, independent radio seldom is, and I view my show, CSC Talk Radio, as a mission to save our nation; America!

I call myself conservative, yet watching politics and politicians for over 30 years has taught me that the two-party system has taken too much power for themselves and left less power and less Liberty for We the People.

I'm not a scholar, nor do I have a degree in broadcasting; but I do have a few opinions...mostly based on commonsense and my general education, as well as my love for God, Country and Family.

We have a very important midterm election coming up.... it is just around the corner; November 3. For the last many elections, we've heard conservative broadcasters tell us, "This is the most important election of our lifetime." I believe that to be true each and every time they say it. Yet, after each election, we see very little change in our State Houses or in D.C... Rather than attacking the huge problems we're facing today in our nation, the political parties spend their time attacking one another. One party, (the now Democrat Socialists of America-party) spend time organizing rioters, protecting and favoring criminals; illegal violent criminals, as well as aiding and abetting the fraudulent taking of American tax dollars for their own pet projects or campaigns. They've encouraged our men and women in the military to disobey their Commander in Chief. They have a visceral hate for President Trump and for Americans in general. Yet, many of the election polls are favoring the Socialist-Democrat candidates to win. I am not a scholar, but I do not see America coming back from that abyss, should it happen.

Upgrade to paid

During the Biden administration, they knowingly and willingly welcomed enemies, and violent criminals into our country. These illegal aliens have no intentions of assimilating into our culture. They have no intentions of doing anything positive for America. They are here for the sole purpose of tearing down America's culture, our faith, and our laws. We should not tolerate their intolerance.

Midterm elections are viewed by many as the least important. I am not a scholar but it is my opinion, that is simply not true. Why elect a president and then two years later try to curtail his efforts by electing those who have declared themselves his enemy.

I am not a scholar. I am not a prophet. I am a woman with a few years of experience and what I see is America needs you to show up and vote down the radical-Islamist-Marxist-democrat-socialists of America... who were never here for America and will never be here for America.

I am not a scholar! I will warn you now, when you hear a politician tell you that "it's complicated," they are lying and trying to pull a fast one; no matter which side of the aisle they claim to sit.

I recently traveled across this nation; there is a lot of country in this country. The democrats speak down to us who live in the rural areas of America. They want to remove the electoral college so that the country folks in the country have no political voice in America's elections. I am not a scholar, but the way to prove to them your vote does count, is for you to "nip this takeover of America in the bud." Nip it in the bud with your vote! Show up in November and vote against every single democrat that is running for every single office... local, state and federal! Soon after we've spanked them in the midterms, we'll get to work on that other party which has been infiltrated with globalists and Tories.

I'm not a scholar but I believe in you, America...

Laws, Much Like Education, Have a solitary purpose. To control behavior. Why laws are written to control behavior is uncertain. Law writers, like as not, write laws based on their (law writers') personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Media report Big Apple City Council has, quietly, passed a bill requiring property owners to give non-profits 90 days to buy before opening sales to general public.

“The freedom of speech and the freedom of the press have not been granted to the people in order that they may say things which please, and which are based upon accepted thought, but the right to say the things which displease, the right to say the things which convey the new and yet unexpected thoughts, the right to say things, even though they do a wrong.”

~ Samuel Gompers

If “We, the American People” are selling properties, we may not care who buys those properties. Big Apple City Council cares. “We, the American People” can be sure BIG Apple City Council action shutting out buyers has potential for distorting market prices and creating occupancy price changers. Lowering rental units by limiting buyers, like as not, will increase prices by lowering available units.

One Critic Of Big Apple City Council property sales control claims it's a 'step under the door' leading to complete city rental property takeover. Rental property sellers could/can put properties on sale at higher prices to deter non-profit buyers, then adjust prices for general market buyers. Either way, it would be smart for “Us, the American People” to keep government out of rental price control business.
