“The prestige of government has undoubtedly been lowered considerably by the Prohibition law. For nothing is more destructive of respect for the government and the law of the land than passing laws which cannot be enforced.”

~ Albert Einstein

“You do realize that exposing the illegal stuff that your government does is illegal right?”

“Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump has good news for America’s drivers. Media report President Donald J. predicts gas prices will be down to $2.00 ‘soon.’ Supposedly, $2.00 gas is better than a tax cut. Could be. Not necessarily so for some ten percent of America’s adults who do not drive. For them, a tax cut would be better. Government action creates winners and losers.

“I’m in favor of legalizing drugs. According to my value system, if people want to kill themselves, they have every right to do so. Most of the harm that comes from drugs is because they are illegal.”

~ Milton Friedman

$2,00 Gas Would Certainly Be Less drain on America driver’s pocketbooks, to be sure. Unless those drivers are behind electric vehicle (EV) wheels. EVs recharge expense rarely come from gasoline powered electric generators. “We, the American People’s would be smart to remember government operates by selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R).

“One who uses coercion is guilty of deliberate violence. Coercion is inhuman.”

thethreepercenter

There Is No Reason For “Us, the American People” not to think government penny pinchers will give some pencil pushing time on how to recover tax revenue lost by President Donald J. Trump’s quest to drive down fuel prices. Government is not inclined to find ways to lower taxes. SADLT&R gives government flexibility to tax money where money goes. Savers put money where money goes.

“The policy of the American government is to leave their citizens free, neither restraining nor aiding them in their pursuits.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

When you give someone money or property

Government Is Not In Business to make life easier for ordinary people. Government, not unlike anyone picked at random, is focused on making life better for government. Government legislator-politicians can crow when their policies make for more tax revenue to government coffers. They, then, can hire more people, and tell voters how good government is at creating jobs. Lower unemployment.

Pelican Sate/Bayou State/Creole State legislators have decided their voters will wait another month before they get to vote in their next election. Given media reports have their facts straight. Because, ostensibly, Louisiana legislators expect “Our, the American People’s” Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) will give Louisiana legislators a thumb’s up to redraw voting district lines.

“The politician attempts to remedy the evil by increasing the very thing that caused the evil in the first place: legal plunder.”

~ Frédéric Bastiat

Media Has Been Keeping “Us, the American People” up to speed on how legislators in America’s commonwealths/states have been busy, busy, busy, gerrymandering their voting district lines in anticipation of having voters vote as they, legislators, wish. Voting district lines have nothing to do with how voters will check boxes or pull ballot box levers. Nonetheless, legislators scheme for power.

“Protecting yourself from harm is your responsibility, and you are far less likely to be hurt in a neighborhood of gun-owners than in one of disarmed citizens – even if you don’t own a gun yourself.”

“We, the American People” can vote as we please, no matter how legislators, special interest fanatics, preachers, educators, cotton pickers, rock stars, or anyone else tries to manipulate voter preferences. We can, if we choose, write in votes for anybody or anything we like. We would be smart to hang people (or SCOTUS), who try stopping write-in voting, out to dry. Freedom of choice key to freedom.

It Takes No Serious Effort to see legislators, were we to let them, make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Would be no surprise every legislator would argue their PAVB to be totally consistent with Constitutional precepts and protections. Curious, then, how it is legislator and judge have differing interpretations of Constitutionality. Urge to control other people.

From the Department of Consent of the Governed: DOGE CONGRESS

Congress does not have the right or power to bankrupt this nation, commit fraud, launder and funnel money, tax us into oblivion, or borrow and spend us into an unsustainable debt

As you know the Department of the Consent of the Governed is the largest and most powerful department in the United States of America; over 330 million people. DOCG is also known as We the People!

DOCG, We the People, can no longer take a back seat to our obligations to our nation.

I have a crazy idea... by-gosh and by-golly, I think it just might work. I also confess that I stole this idea from DOGE.

However, this is the most perfectly perfect idea.

DOCG, We the People, (as many of us as possible) need to send our congresspeople an email... So... let's start monitoring their work!

Perhaps an email that sounds like this:

Dear Legislator, Honorable whoever (name of your elected official) ...

I thank you for your service to me and to our country. As you know, you've been at your job for quite some time now, and it is my obligation to monitor your work according to our contract, The Constitution of the United States of America.

In the past I have shirked my obligation, believing that I could trust you to honestly represent me, but in the past several decades it has become obvious that you are not able to personally hold yourself strictly accountable to your constituents.

Please reply to this email, personally, do not delegate it to one of your staffers, as I did not elect one of them to represent me.

Please answer the following questions:

- 1. What constitutionally sound job did you accomplish this past month and how many days did you actually work while in the office?*
- 2. How many constituents did you personally meet with this past month?*
- 3. How many lobbyists did you personally meet with this past month?*
- 4. How many staffers do you employ? (As DOCG are the ones paying their salaries.)*
- 5. Have you had any additional revenue in the last month, such as speaking engagements, book sales, new stock market investments, etc.?*

These emails will become a routine check-in, and your job will be analyzed accordingly come November 3, 2026, and November 2, 2027. I'm certain you already have these dates on your calendar, however, filling out each email you receive and returning them could present you with a positive resume for your next possible November hiring.

Answering this email should take only a moment of your time; and to be honest, you work for me! With that being said, I do appreciate you taking the time to respond to the Department of Consent of the Governed.

Sincerely,

We the People (DOCG)

I have to laugh inside; if you think the government employees went ballistically sideways with such a demand as answering an email with one question, wait until the congressional members in the House and Senate start squealing as to the audacity of being asked to answer five questions.

Why shouldn't they be DOGED? They work for We the People and never seem to answer for their transgressions and/or lack of accomplishments. Congressional members always get richer while their constituents struggle.

What is the use of a congress who...

CAN'T BALANCE A BUDGET?

Have staffers who write laws / bills, for which they never read and then rubberstamp pass them.

IGNORE AND / OR ABUSE the Power of the purse, for which they are accountable for all the spending in this nation, while never carefully guarding the hard-earned dollars of their constituents.

While the Constitution does not specifically mention "balancing a budget," there is such a thing as commonsense and integrity, for which all of Congress seem to be lacking.

Congress (the House and the Senate) does not have the right or power to bankrupt this nation, commit fraud, launder and funnel money, tax us into oblivion, or borrow and spend us into an unsustainable debt.

We the People want less spending and more America FIRST ... and WE MUST DEMAND IT! Our elected officials protect the establishment of government and ignore We the People. Our elected officials believe themselves to be above the law, and their constituents end up paying for their transgressions (slush fund of congress). Our elected officials exhibit a lack of integrity and honesty, and when corrupt people are leading in our government, our government becomes corrupt!

DOGE CONGRESS!

John Adams stated: "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other..."

- Benjamin Franklin: "Only a virtuous people are capable of freedom."
- George Washington: "Virtue or morality is a necessary spring of popular government."
- James Madison: "If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary."

CONGRESS HAS NO ANGELS!

Our Declaration of Independence said this about the corrupt tyrannical king:

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Democrats and Republicans have ignored their responsibilities to the Constitution of the United States of America and to We the People.

Congressional members of Congress (the House and the Senate) have turned the People's House into a den of thieves, perverts, prevaricating money makers: Corruption!

It's time the Department of Consent of the Governed took the time to DOGE CONGRESS!

“Our, the American People’s” media reports accurate, assault in wealthier income earners is included in President Donald J. Trump’s ‘Big Beautiful Bills (BBB). BBB provision hitting higher earners is in limits on federal State And Local Tax (SALT) deduction. BBB alters SALT over time and can mean a tax rate increase for wealthier earners of up to 30%. No limit on quest for other people’s property.

“I have always thanked all my enemies profusely for expanding my horizons.”
 ~ Unknown

Taxing Higher Income Earners, Regardless specific methods, amounts to progressive taxation. So, in a sense, higher income earners have paid higher tax rates a while. Nonetheless, government demands for more money continue. In final analysis, government has nowhere to get money, other than from taxpayers. “We, the American People,” could, if we decided to, limit government’s power to tax.

“Pay no attention to that man behind the curtain.”
 ~ The Wizard of Oz

Calls For Greater Taxes On Wealth holders have various strategies. All strategies are designed to confiscate more wealth (property) from people who are seen to have holdings far in excess of their needs. It is seen as unjust for some to have so much while others in need have so little. Demands for more taxes on wealth holders center on a single argument: wealth holders have more than they need.

There Are No Signs Calls For Wealth confiscation are likely to lessen anytime soon. Whether wealth confiscation is just debate is not likely to be settled anytime soon. Wealth confiscation is undoable without laws permitting such confiscation. Confiscating wealth (property) attained by legitimate means, arguably, is akin to forcing people to work to extents serving government-defined need.
