"Our, the American People's" president and governors can, if circumstances are forceful, grant pardons. There is a media article floating around reporting how California's Governor Gavin Newsom has contravened to commute hundreds of jury-convicted criminals and spurred California citizen outrage in so-doing. Article in question speculates governor's motivation was politically influenced.

The unseen millionaire hacker who spends 20 hours a day hunting your assets. You don't even know what country this satanic low-life scams from? They have no guilt or shame.

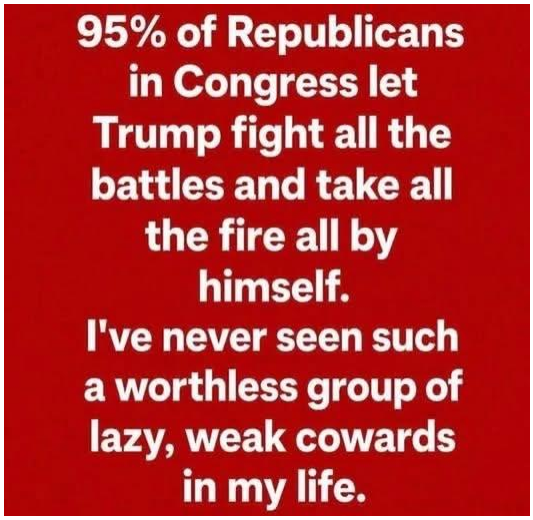

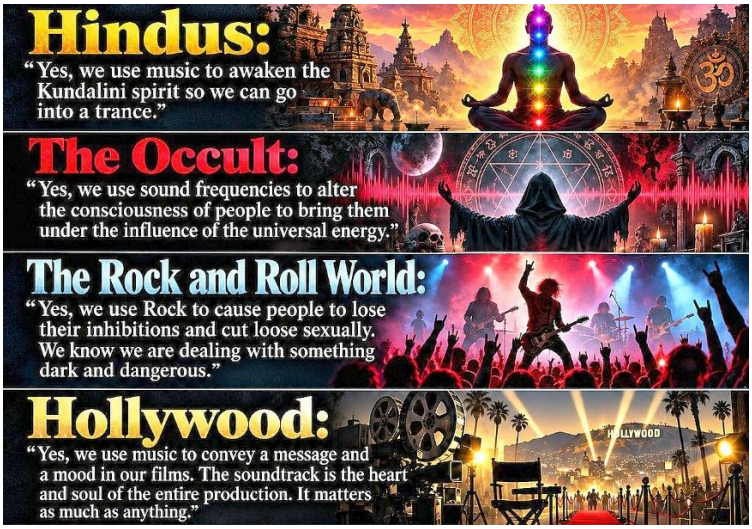

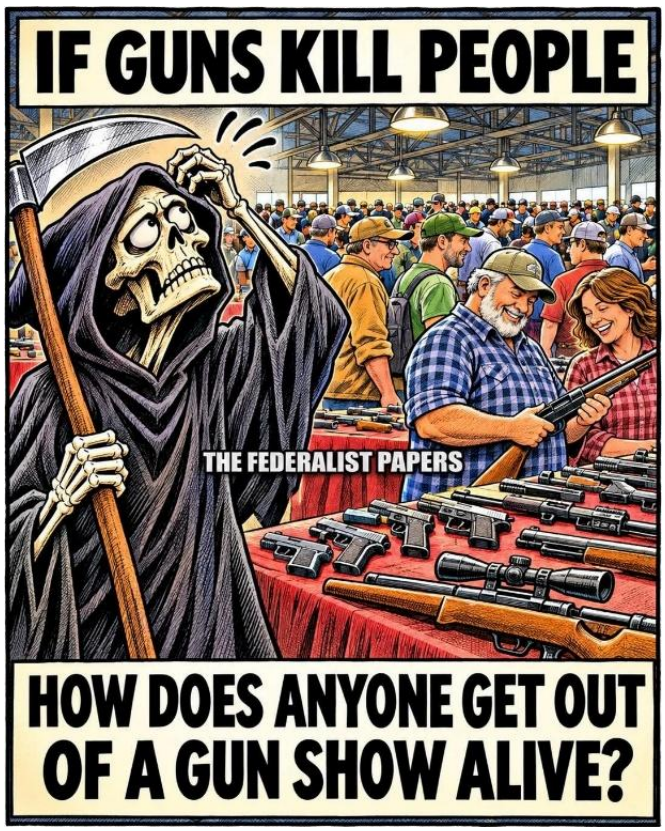

California's Gubernatorial Commuting Power is spelled out under California's Constitution and is consistent with America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution, both Constitutions citing impeachment as an exception. Article in question suggests Governor Newson, in commuting criminal sentences, spurned some 585 juries totaling 7,020 women and men who reached guilty verdicts judiciously.

“The Bill of Rights does not come from the people and is not subject to change by majorities. It comes from the nature of things.”

America’s Commonwealth, Federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions empower legislators to make laws ostensibly upholding Constitutional precepts and principles. Absent Constitutional detail. Legislators interpret constitutionality and make laws “We, the American People” are bound to follow. We would be smart to distinguish between arbitrary laws and laws protecting inalienable rights.

“I cannot undertake to lay my finger upon an article of the Constitution which granted a right to Congress of expending, on the objects of benevolence, the money of their constituents.”
~ ~James Madison

Despite Our Obligation To Abide By Laws, it is within our capability, as a sovereign citizenry, to force our legislators to ersdicate laws we do not find in our better interests, not, necessarily, as legislators might interpret Constitutionality as their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) urge then. PAVB-driven laws are, arguably, inherently biased. Our better interest laws are written objectively.

When In-Coming Co-President of America's next Congressional House of Representatives legislators says every American should be concerned, Congressman-elect Dan Koh is absolutely, positively correct. In Congressman-elect Dan Koh's view, "We, the American People" should be concerned over President Donald J. Trump's power and corruption Congressman-elect claims runs very deep. Very.

"An inherent weakness of a pure democracy is that half the voters are below average intelligence."

President Donald J. Trump Is A Devil we have come to know by his deeds. We don't, as yet, know in-coming Congressman Dan Koh. We can, however, take odds Congressman Dan Koh is like every person who runs for legislative office. He intends to legislate, legislate based on his own personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) - and make his PAVB lawfully compulsory. We had better watch.

"Our, the American People's" Representative Constitutional republic governmental form has no built-in measures to assure legislators do not violate America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution's precepts and protections for Americans against tyranny and government overreach. We do have, as a citizenry, political power to render inappropriate laws to be on our books or enforced if they are.

Assuring Freedom Under Liberty is no easy task for a citizenry where virtually anyone can run for office regardless of their views, expressed or not. It is up to "Us, the American People" to assure those legislators who are elected and do have intent to undermine our principle are not successful. Tyrants do their best to make a society into servitude by enforcing tyrannous laws. Our task, nullify such laws.

Ayanna Pressley is a democratic member of the U.S. House of Representatives representing Massachusetts's 7th congressional district. She took office on January 3, 2019, becoming the first woman of color elected to Congress from Massachusetts. That's quite an accomplishment, wouldn't you agree?

Even though that's an accomplishment many white Americans have not achieved, it's not enough in Ayanna's eyes; she and all black Americans deserve more! She plans to submit another bill to Congress in order for black American citizens to receive reparations.

Upgrade to paid

How much money do you want, or need Ayanna?

According to: New York Post:

Pressley (D-Mass) and her ex-con hubby, management consultant Conan Harris raked in up to a staggering $350,000 in profit last year from a property sale and rental income that includes a decidedly capitalist pad on Martha's Vineyard, Pressley's 2024 annual financial disclosure reveals.

Financial disclosures show Pressley — who disclosed as much as $8 million in assets, the first time she's declared over $1 million — now joins Squad comrade Rep. Ilhan Omar (D-Minn.) in the millionaire's club, a far cry from the working-class warrior image she tries to project.*

That information was from a 2005 New York Post article.

Wait just a minute here Ayanna are you practicing capitalism and making profits off the backs of others? Is your wealth more than the average wealth of your constituents?

Of course, we now know that Ilhan Omar is in a lot of trouble for fraud; and claims she was never worth a fortune, it was a simple accountant error.

The dark days of slavery in America has been over 161 years ago; that's roughly 5-6.5 generations back in history. At what point in time should the bitterness of the past end, and black Americans of today begin taking responsibility for things in their own lives?

There are lots of things that Presley could do to help the lives of black Americans; she's in a good position to encourage and make their lives hopeful to live the American Dream. Undo the policies her party promotes and allow Black Americans school choice, that would help. Make sure their communities are well secure to stop the gang violence. Stop talking like black Americans are too dumb to present IDs to vote. Stop lying about the police prejudices in arrests; statistics are not in agreement. Work to bring more jobs into your state.

Reparations is a foolish monetary consideration, void of any common sense. Who will be the recipients? If you have been on welfare all your life, is that not reparations? If you have a job, own a home, a car, or maybe you attended college, perhaps you've overcome the ancestorial stigma of slavery. Perhaps, if you've been arrested or in prisoned for a crime, you should forgo any reparations… (Conan Harris, Presley's husband, spent 10 years in prison for drug trafficking.)

Legislating for socialism (communism) while living well by practicing capitalism, is what Ayanna Presley does. She is a hypocrite and wants to destroy the government for which she is using to become quite wealthy.

Upgrade to paid

Reparations is a farce! Why would people who have never owned a slave pay remuneration to those who were never held in slavery? Reparations is redistribution, it is just another tax. Presley's bill is to study how they could make this new tax happen. Warning to all who might believe they will be recipients of such a payment, if it's an income, you shall be taxed as well.... eventually.

This is actually demeaning to all black Americans! Socialism, for which Presley claims she supports is a government of envy. Envy, which she believes should be governmentally systemic; thus her pushing for DEI and reparations.

Ayanna Presley is in a position to help Black Americans but instead she chooses to demean them, insult them, and enslave them to government programs. She wants to defund the police and make black communities less safe, and... Ayanna is against school choice; freedom of education. Ayanna is all in for abortion; which kills more black babies than white babies. Ayanna is for open borders and having immigrants from all over the globe (even enemies to our nation) invade our communities and neighborhoods and take American jobs. She would like to go back to the days of slavery, when black Americans were not allowed to own guns and it was against the law to educate a black person; we can't have them reading the Constitution and knowing anything about inalienable rights, now, can we? Ayanna supports the party that is anti-god. The history of slavery was the faith so many of them had in God...their anthem expresses gratitude to God for their freedom.

Socialism thrives on the division of We the People. Ayanna Presley is a black woman who loves her wealth but would deny freedom and equality to others.

It isn't just Ayanna Presley, and it isn't just black Americans her political party of choice would enslave. The socialism they claim to support, is truly radical Islamist Marxism. The color of skin does not matter to those who want to destroy America and lead by tyranny.

The greatest fear of these, is that Americans will get wise and unite against their policies that are nothing more than just slick ways to oppress.

One Nation Under God…

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal*, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are* life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Presley and her democrat-socialist party would deny all Americans Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

United we stand; divided we fall.

When we stand united… the socialists and their oppressive tyrannical agenda will fail and it will fall!

Trump Meets With Ruthless Dictators To Prepare For Dealing With Democrat-Controlled Congress

It Is A Strong Indication there is a lot of room for tax reform in taxpayers' interest. "Our, the American People's" federal government lost some $2.2T in tax revenue due tax credits and other expenses. Our federal government's deficit spending came to $1.8T. Provided our trusty artificial intelligence (AI) has its financial ducks in a row. Tax credits are expenditures used to bolster government policies.

~ Dr. James Randi

AI To Be Believed, Ordinary People have little to do with government policy, A Princeton study found preferences of 90% of Americans have "near-zero" impact on legislation. Instead, decisions, are framed by business interests, economic elites, those having resources to lobby, donate, and politically mobilize. "We, the American People," in theory at least, could benefit significantly with tax credit reform.

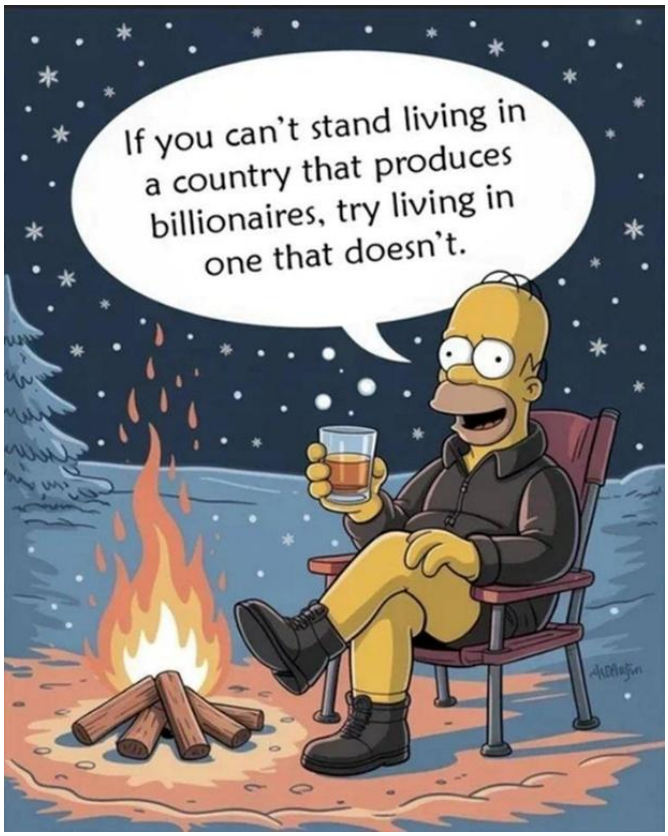

“Rightful liberty is unobstructed action according to our will within limits drawn around us by the equal rights of others. I do not add “within the law,” because law is often but the tyrant’s will, and always so when it violates the rights of the individual.”

Virtually Every Taxing Jurisdiction from federal IRS to America's lowest political subdivision targets "Us, the American People" to empty our pockets so tax collectors can gather up their share. Our system is a hodge-podge of people with lawful authority to confiscate people's financial wealth as they see fit within legal confines.
