Media Reports, Periodically, Let "Us, the American People" know America's socio-economic system will succumb to some variant of Marxism, Islam, socialism, or communism, or some hybrid version of all four. One recent media article's author claims America will not fall to Islam anytime soon. Rather, will fall into dystopia marked by cultural strife with rich-to-poor communities split irreconcilably.

Barack Obama says young boys need a gay man in their life for guidance and that having only a father around isn't enough.

He believes being around gay men helps boys develop emotional awareness, empathy, and a broader perspective.

Obama recalled that one of his most important mentors was a gay professor who shaped his views on compassion and humanity.

America's Liberty Is, Pretty Much, Synopsized in "Our, the American People's" federal (U.S./National) Constitution Bill-of-Rights (B-o-R). America's B-o-R constrains government. It would be patently naïve to expect Islam, Communism, Socialism, or Marxism would be amenable to citizens putting limits on government authority through Constitutional-like instruments like America's B-o-R.

"We, the American People," if we expect to succeed as a sovereign citizenry, need to be unyielding when it comes to government versus sovereign citizenry authority, latter taking precedence. If we do not function as our government's fourth – and decisive - branch, we have no reason to expect property (wealth) will not continue to be confiscated, and Liberty (choice) restricted. America Is NOT The Truman Show

Oh, the theater, the theater, what's happened to the theater?

BETH ANN

NOV 10

11-10-2025

Do you ever get the feeling that we've been here before? This shutdown crisis: it's not the first time and it will not be the last. They say we are closer to opening this government, as the Senate did the "pre-voting" last night.

I mentioned on my radio program this morning that I personally believe this was preplanned, at least by the democrats. The Democrat Senators who might break away from their party are those who no longer have anything to lose. "So they have nothing to lose, but what will be gained and by who?"

Every Senate democrat who is now ready to stop the madness and vote to reopen the government is either retiring, or not up for reelection until 2028 or 2030.

Senators Dick Durbin of Illinois and Jeanne Shaheen of New Hampshire are both retiring. Senators John Fetterman of Pennsylvania, Catherine Cortez-Masto of Nevada, and Maggie Hassan of New Hampshire are not up for reelection until 2028. Senators Tim Kaine of Virginia, Jacky Rosen of Nevada, and Angus King an Independent from Maine, who usually votes with democrats, are not up for reelection until 2030.

This is not a coincidence! It is also not a coincidence that they waited until after the elections earlier this month. I'm still, however, trying to figure out how this shutdown to punish Americans made Schumer look anything but belligerent, stubborn and incompetent; what significance did his political maneuver have over AOC? He pretty much awarded her a Marxist victory in New York, as she was campaigning for Mamdani. The obvious hypocrisy for any who pays attention, is the fact that these same democrats originally voted for this same CR prior to the October vote, which leaves me to believe this shutdown was political; but then isn't everything in D.C.

Upgrade to paid

Oh, the theater, the theater, what's happened to the theater?

Republicans and democrats spent every morning in front of the cameras as they pointed fingers of blame at each other; just like children. Political theater is usually not the occurrence of unplanned events.

I've watched for many years how the votes cast in both D.C. and our own state houses, whether partisan or bipartisan, are determined by who is up for election and who is not.

Like the Truman Show, where the one person's life was planned, written out and on display to the world... so seems to go American politics.

What I do believe was not fully planned in D.C. was President Donald J. Trump, a successful businessman who planned to Make America Great Again. However, the D.C. Occupiers (both parties) were not onboard for such. You see, the script was written (by them) to become career politicians, have inside information, get rich off the backs of Americans by “back room” deals with mega corporations, foreign nations, and other organizations with agendas and deep pockets.

The political theater with drama and scandals is all for the illusion of Americans. Just like the Truman Show, we have now figured it out! The peephole Truman had to the outside world is our reality. We the People wrote the script a long time ago; The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America. It's time we demand that our elected officials get back to the Original Script, serve Americans, and stop serving themselves and their special interest groups and donors.

America is NOT the Truman Show! We The People will NO LONGER capitulate OR play these expensive, enslaving political games!

PO Box 73, California, MO 65018

Act II: “If you like your doctor, you can keep your doctor.”

What is the healthcare crisis? When did this crisis occur? Was it when President Bill Clinton needed to keep Hillary busy so he put her in charge of “fixing” the healthcare crisis in America? Was it when her “great idea” of HMOs and PPOs became a part of your healthcare; with gatekeepers and referrals dictating your personal healthcare (aka insurance)? With Hillary’s “fix” Americans and their doctors no longer had control over their health treatments, it was predetermined by insurance people in some office far away from you or your doctor.

When Obamacare came along and forced everyone to have insurance, they also predetermined which doctor you’d be allowed to see. Obamacare was nothing more than corporate insurance companies owning your healthcare. Enticed by the line, “If you like your doctor, you can keep your doctor,” many Americans were fooled into this new “healthcare crisis,” which has only gained in cost... not affordability and certainly not health freedom.

Healthcare was never about affordability; healthcare was never about your health. When government officials speak of healthcare, it is about insurance companies managing your health. Americans no longer have freedom over their own personal health.

Remember it was Chief Justice Roberts who cast the vote in the Supreme Court deeming Obamacare (forced insurance) Constitutional.

Remember when we had the majority to get rid of Obamacare in 2017, it was Senator John McCain who cast the vote for Obamacare to spite President Trump. I think it’s safe to say... in D.C. it’s never been about We the People.

Now... the shutdown was said to be about affordable healthcare.

I’ll leave you to your own thoughts and conclusions...

Please comment below... Americans must break free from the theater in D.C.

Act III: This was not the longest government shutdown!

According to KrisAnne Hall, facts should not be denied:

From 1789-1865 the Federal Government was shut down for 8-10 months every year!

From 1865-1910 the Federal Government was shut down for 6-8 months every year!

It wasn't until 1930 that the government stayed open 12 months a year. She lamented, "Don't tell me we are suffering an emergency or catastrophe. We are actually moving in the right direction!"

In my opinion, as I stated before, the shutdown was a planned political event and the crisis was a part of the plan... the theater.

"We, the American People" stand to be politically discontent till we come to grips with an underlying reality. Government is fundamentally incapable of solutions to socio-economic discontent, because government, like people as individuals, operates on officials acting to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Rarely, if ever, are voters universally satisfied.
