“[Political] offices are as acceptable here as elsewhere, and whenever a man cast a longing eye on them, a rottenness begins in his conduct.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

Media Coverage Accurate, “Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump is improving his approval rating with American Gen Z bunch. Despite an approval jump, however, President Donald J meets with disapproval from some 64% of Gen Z scrutinizers. Gen Z bunch, references referenced trustworthy, have not reached adulthood, meaning, they have not reconciled their values/beliefs system.

“The single most exciting thing you encounter in government is competence, because it’s so rare.”

~ Daniel Patrick Moynihan

Siad Barre was a genocidal Islamic communist dictator who murdered up to 200,000 Isaaq civilians in Somalia. Ilhan Omar's father, Nur Omar Mohamed, was a colonel under Barre for decades. That's why Omar's family fled Somalia: they were complicit with Islamic communist genocide.

Gen Z Bunch, Reconciled Or Not, can march to their voting booths and cast votes for public office candidates they (Gen Z) believe will support and defend whatever reconciled or unreconciled values and beliefs Gen Z bunch have attached themselves to when they cast their ballots. Given Gen Z profiles are typical, Gen Z bunch is diverse and absorbs issues du jour, they may be politically impulsive.

“The most fundamental purpose of government is defense, not empire.”

~ Joseph Sobran

It Should Come As No Surprise to “Us, the American People” political office holders get roller-coaster approval ratings. Our tendency is to cast our expectation votes for those candidates our hopes urge us to seat office holders who will use their property (wealth) confiscation power to increase our lot in life. Stands to reason we would respond to political poll takers consistent with our election outcome wishes.

“Governments harangue about deficits to get more revenue so they can spend more.”

~ Allan H. Meltzer

🚩 ELON MUSK: "Sen. Susan Collins was telling me she gave the Navy $12 billion for more submarines, got NO extra submarines, held a hearing to say, 'where'd the $12 billion go?'"

"And they were like, 'we don't know.' That was it." 🤪

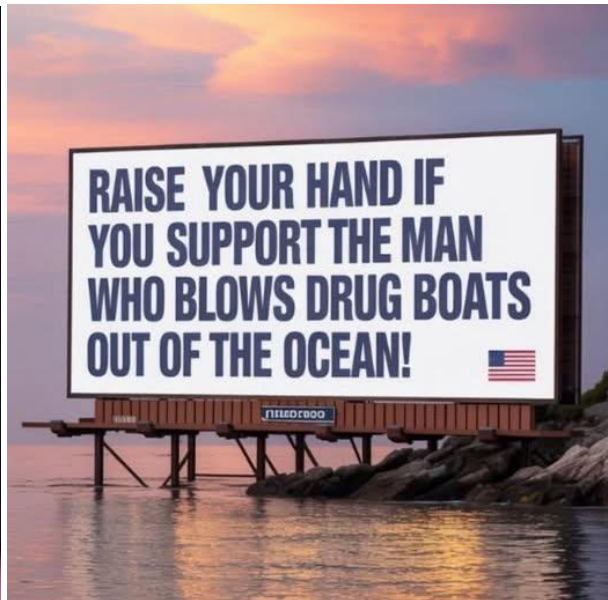

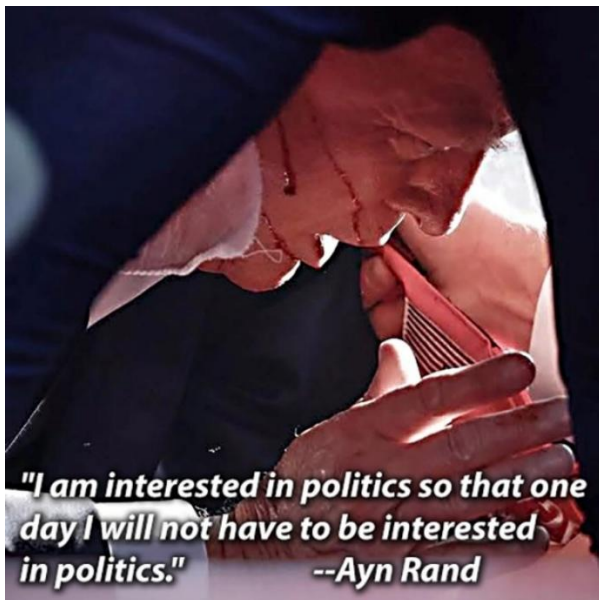

Purge the fraud.

Gen Z Bunch, Being Characterized as involved with socio-economic issues at hand are, like as not, to be caught up in efforts "We, the American People" back in demanding government use its clout to bring about social justice by making sure no one has too much wealth, but everybody has enough. Our legislators, judges, and government chief executives are happy to oblige – if we keep them in office.

“When important issues affecting the life of an individual are decided by somebody else, it makes no difference to the individual whether that somebody else is a king, a dictator, or society at large.”

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to give quarter to, offer sanctuary to, or negotiate with terrorists. They refuse to live in fear or at risk brought on by “State” policy.

“No drug, not even alcohol, causes the fundamental ills of society. If we’re looking for the sources of our troubles, we shouldn’t test people for drugs, we should test them for stupidity, ignorance, greed, and love of power.”

“Our, the American People’s” media word has it Gen Z workers are having difficulty adjusting to workplace expectations. Above others, a workplace has one vital expectation. Do your job as you agreed it be done. Gen Z employees are, reportedly, more prone than ‘older’ workers to resist organizational rules, don’t return on employer investments, digital distractions, and not showing up.

“The best government is the one that charges you the least blackmail for leaving you alone.”
 ~ Thomas Rudmose-Brown

There Are Other Difficulties Gen Z employees exhibit less ability or willingness to master, depending on reference or study. Possibly most alarming is industry-wide employer anticipation Gen Z employee tendency not to adapt to workplace requirements will increase. It would not be unreasonable for “Us, the American People” to see Gen Z workplace incongruity as a threat to our economic verve.

“We, the American People” are not yet running an economy operated by robots in completely automated production facilities. Cynically Speaking, Government-Subsidized living may contribute to people's willingness to work if they can rely on government-subsidized necessities. Human nature is as likely to help people down-and-out due unwillingness to work as people are to help people who can't work. Society, as a whole, all said and done, is not likely to survive without people working to make life's necessities available.

I was brought back to a poetic piece I wrote to honor Nancy Pelosi back in 2020 when she announced that she will not seek reelection. They say Pelosi was a strong leader, but she was just the bully of the House, using blackmail and extortion. She was, and is a mean girl! Her own daughter said she could “Cut your head off and you won’t know you’re even bleeding.” When you’re a mean girl, the only thing that will stop you, is another mean girl... a meaner girl; Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, also known as Sandy. Pelosi met her match when the young mean girl found her way to D.C. AOC is not smart, but she is loud and mean!

President Biden made mention that Nancy Pelosi will go down in history as one of the best Speakers of the House. I believe she was the worst Speaker and was actively stripping Liberty and defying The Constitution of the United States of America. In my opinion Pelosi should have been fined and stripped of her position as Speaker of the House after she defiantly ripped up President Trump’s 2020 SOTU speech for all to see.

We now know that Nancy Pelosi led two impeachments, which were based on lies, against President Trump, during his first term. We know that she participated in a coup against the President of the United States, as she assisted in the illegal and fraudulent 2020 election! Mean-girl-Pelosi was a part of the “set-up” against America on that day, January 6, 2020. Her part was to make sure there were no National Guard troops present to “keep the peace.” It made no sense to do so, as she knew there would be a large number of Americans there that day to witness the election procedure. After the rioting, there were no brave Senators willing to contest the states who had participated in election fraud. Pelosi, the bully, led the fraudulent and staged J-6 Committee Hearings, destroyed evidence and altered testimonies in order to find President Trump guilty of an armed insurrection, which, of course, never took place. Pelosi ignored the citizens that died that day and never sought a thorough investigation regarding their demise. The real insurrection that day, was led by Nancy Pelosi, the FBI and others who set the stage to agitate a crowd of Americans, invite them into the capitol and then charge them with trespassing.

Pelosi, the first woman Speaker of the House, was, and is, anti-American. She managed to accumulate wealth amounting to over $200 million while serving as a representative. She represented herself, not her constituents. When Nancy Pelosi showed her disdain for President Trump, she displayed her hate for Americans and exhibited her character: The Mean-Girl...The Bully! We are all very thankful she was never put in the position to run this nation.

To honor Pelosi’s retirement, I thought I’d dig out a little “poetry” that was inspired by Mean-Girl-Nancy Pelosi back in 2020.

THE RIPPER OF THE HOUSE

by Beth Ann (CSC Talk Radio) ©

She hates the President through and through,

She preys upon his every move.

His phone calls,

His family and his staff,

Pelosi the Ripper will soon tear his speech in half.

It was the State of the Union that

Frightful February night,

When the Ripper came out,

Her loosely fit teeth clinched for a fight.

She hated the stats the speech proudly proclaimed,

She resented each honored guest who came.

Though innocent, she hated them just the same.

The disdain on her face was really quite plain,

The clapping, the cheers they drove her insane.

No matter how much her anger grew

The Ripper would stay and see the speech through.

Her heart full of envy, overflowing with spite

Would soon have revenge on the message that night.

The President sang America's praise,

The speech was the best, many did say.

The Ripper she moaned and groaned as she sat,

She couldn't accept the good of all that.

She came as the Speaker

But as the evening progressed

Her resolve became weaker,

Her dark heart was a mess.

When it was all over

She could take it no more,

She picked up the papers

And she ripped and she tore.

She ripped up the words,

She ripped up the names,

She couldn't stop ripping,

To the House she brought shame.

Her anger was ignited

When a family was united.

She ripped in-two the children who came.

She ripped in-two free choices made.

She ripped up Old Heroes,

She ripped up education,

She ripped up the names of those violently taken.

She ripped in-two the economy zooming,

She ripped in-two new jobs booming.

She ripped in-two the healthcare improving,

She ripped in-two the babies saved,

Abortion, in her dark mind, is the better way.

She ripped and she tore 'till she could rip no more.

At the end of the night "Madam Ripper" she stood,

And displayed her contempt for America's Good.

The Ripper of the House wore white that night

To keep the dark in her heart out of sight.

But dark we did see,

And now we all know,

For there is left no question,

Of how low she will go.

The Ripper's actions changed nothing at hand,

But Americans witnessed her HATE for the man.

Americans saw her treasonous stand

And the scars that she left upon our great land.

The Ripper of the House tried to rip "the land of plenty"

On February four, two thousand and twenty.

Treason from Within

The traitor is the plague

The following is by Cicero

(I changed the male pronouns to female - because pronouns matter!)

A nation can survive its fools and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within.

An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for she is known and she carries her banners openly against the city.

But the traitor moves among those within the gates freely, her sly whispers rustling through all alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself.

For the traitor appears no traitor; she speaks in the accents familiar to her victim, and she wears their face and their garments, and she appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men.

She rots the soul of a nation; she works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city; she infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist.

Media Reports On Social Security tell “Us, the American People” President Donald J. Trump and his social engineering cabal have changed Social Security for us forever. Forever. Long time, forever. It might occur to us governments make laws, governments amend laws, governments rescind laws. No such thing as government making a permanent mark on anything. Maybe a mark on absurdity.

"We, the American People" won't have Liberty permeate our lives, until we let our legislators, our chief government executives, and our judges know we, not they, have final say on how we are to be governed. And, we will not let anyone take away our self-government franchise. Not easy. Even if we decide we're done with government confiscating property (wealth) and restricting choice (Liberty).

Not Uncommon To Hear Would-Be power brokers tell us how we are a nation of laws, not of 'men.' Somewhat true. More accurately, we are a nation of people who make it their business to have their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) made lawfully compulsory. People in legislative authority, there being no immutable law-making standards, tailor Social Security by their PAVB whims.
