there are limitations on 1st Amendment free speech. Limitations, however, are narrowly defined. By and large, 1st Amendment limitations are not directed at speech content, rather where, when, and how.

Who are these Tories I speak of?

Excerpt from The Crisis by Thomas Paine: The period is now arrived, in which either they or we must change our sentiments, or one or both must fall. And what is a Tory? Good God! What is he? I should not be afraid to go with a hundred Whigs against a thousand Tories, were they to attempt to get into arms. Every Tory is a coward; for servile, slavish, self-interested fear is the foundation of Toryism; and a man under such influence, though he may be cruel, never can be brave.

Tories in 1776 were American colonists who remained loyal to the British Crown during the American Revolutionary War, opposing the revolution and its Patriot supporters. Also called Loyalists or Royalists, they included a wide range of people, such as wealthy merchants, Crown officials, Anglican clergymen, and many immigrants, who fought on the side of the British or provided other forms of support.

What are the characteristics of today's Tories?

They are not loyal to America.

American nationalism is disagreeable to them.

They claim America was evil from the days of the Mayflower to present.

They refuse to abide by laws, yet they want more government regulations and control.

They are those who speak of democracy and refuse our Constitutional Republic.

They are those people who want to amend or remove the Bill of Rights. (we have elected officials who are Tories)

Those who will protect criminals while excusing their crimes and ignoring the pain and suffering of American citizens, whether it be murder, rape, burning people alive, stabbing them to death on a city bus, or human trafficking of any kind, and of course theft. America is #1 in human trafficking, those who ignore this or encourage more illegal aliens into America, are either cowards or profiting in some way from the crimes. The Tories refuse to question or acknowledge the loss or misplacement of over 300,000 immigrant children.

It is sad to admit; however, I believe we have many Tories in America today... but then, one Tory is one too many Tories! They intentionally take the opposite side of our laws, not through ignorance but with corrupt and evil intent, although I do believe many of them to be both ignorant and corrupt.

We the People elected President Trump, but the Tories who are loyal to Party, loyal to their Oligarchy and loyal to their donors, refuse to accept the Will of the People. President Trump has to fight them every step of the way. The lazy republicans, who hold the majority are too busy podcasting, Substacking and Xing on social media to fight the Marxist-democrat-Tories. While they form committees, have investigations and hold hearings, it doesn't seem to me that they take seriously the many crises we face today in America.

**Upgrade to paid**

While the Democrat Party and their media constantly attack, challenge, block and sue President Trump's administration and it's every move, our Republicans in Congress do very little to fight back or block the democrats from their constant barrage of obstruction. It's time that the republicans forced the democrats to respect the Will of We the People.

Republicans, assuming they are not in the Tory category, should stand with President Trump as he moves forward to Make America Great and Safe Again. If they do not, I think we can say... they are America's modern-day Tories.

Tories who continue to defy federal laws, encourage violence and refuse to accept the 2024 election, by way of their constant obstruction, should be impeached (if holding a judgeship), arrested, fined and serve some serious time in prison. The Tories of today are enemies of the state. The Tories of 1776 were sent out of the country. We might have to practice that same tough love here today in 2025 or 2026! Yes, you're understanding me correctly, America can no longer survive as a free state if we allow the haters, the Tories to stay and occupy our governing halls.

Since the Marxist-democrat-party continues to stand together in all sorts of obstruction, defiance of laws, in particular legitimate federal immigration laws, as well as calling for a military coup, it is up to We the People to vote them out of office and give the Republican Party a large majority. Then we must keep a very close eye on those republicans to make sure they do not resurrect the Tory attitudes of old.

Liberty is always in the hands of the People... not the law makers and certainly not the law breakers. Never did a Tory respect Consent of the Governed. Never was a Tory known to fight for Liberty or Independence; they will, however, obstruct the path of Freedom in whatever manner avails them.

Upgrade to paid

Thomas Paine described them: Every Tory is a coward; for servile, slavish, self-interested fear is the foundation of Toryism; and a man under such influence, though he may be cruel, never can be brave.

Without a doubt I can say that all those fighting against the Will of We the People, obstructing President Trump's authority, as well as obstructing and threatening his cabinet members, are indeed very cruel, but not a one of them is brave. Never would they dare to speak to a true American and explain their pitiful hate for America and their blatant want for power. I would challenge them to appear on CSC Talk Radio. Jasmine Crocket, AOC, Bennie Thompson, crying Chuck Schumer and others are not brave enough to face Rural America.

Rural America is known for common sense, Tories (democrats) are known for nonsense and for tyranny.

“The people never give up their liberties but under some delusion.”

~ Edmund Burke

“We, the American People” are so split in so many ways, it is virtually impossible for there to exist “These United States of America.” Or so a media article writer contends. Based on radically differing personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB), writer contends, we’d be better off to break into two nations. One blue, one red. So doing, we could get on with our various PAVB-driven cultural ways.

“If we have learned anything in the past quarter century, it is that we cannot Federalize Virtue.”

~ George Bush

Mr. Blair, I look upon secession as anarchy. If I owned the four millions of slaves in the South, I would sacrifice them all to the Union; but how can
I draw my sword upon Virginia, my native State?

Robert E. Lee

Coming Up With Two Nations might not be so easy. National boundaries have never stopped people from going wherever they decide to have other people do as told. When one's PAVB dictate one must evangelize one's ways, national boundaries are nothing more than imaginary lines, lines not at all like Colonel Jime Bowie's sword-drawn line in Alamo sand. Lines swarmed over by self-styled arbiters.

"It must never be unpatriotic to support your country against your government. It must always be unpatriotic to support your government against your country."

~ Stephen T. Byington

Our, the American People's history is full of records on how we found ourselves immersed in international conflicts. Reasons don't matter. Results, invariably, cost American lives, forced alliances we end up paying to sustain, only to see some alliances turn to strife we intended to avoid. We can not rely on foreign states acting as we would have them act based on our, ever more diverse, PAVB.

"Penalties against possession of a drug should not be more damaging than the drug itself."

~ Jimmy Carter

It Might Be Some of “Us, the American People” have it in mind our socio-economic cauldron will be kept from brimming over by a system of just, fair, and neutral laws. Precepts and protections articulated in America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions have not been up to such a task. No reason to think those Constitutions will produce socio-economic tranquility if we split up.

“The office of the government is not to confer happiness, but to give men the opportunity to work out happiness for themselves.”

~ William Ellery Channing

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact legislation or regulations requiring any private business to accept collective bargaining organizations. They stand by free markets and limited government.

“If you ruin your life, you will pay the price of rehabilitating yourself … We are not punished for our sins, but by them. Liberty means responsibility.”

~ Michael Cloud
