Media Report Oklahoma's Highest state court has invalidated Oklahoma's Education Director's effort to infuse Oklahoma's public schools with Christian Nationalist education curriculum based on said curriculum violated Oklahoma's Open Meeting Act. Act violation amounted to an attempt to force Christian values on students. Forcing values may be much harder than forcing attendance in classes.

“When they took the 4th Amendment, I was quiet because I didn't deal drugs. When they took the 6th Amendment, I was quiet because I am innocent. When they took the 2nd Amendment, I was quiet because I don't own a gun. Now they have taken the 1st Amendment, and I can only be quiet.”

Those Of "Us, the American People" who fancy Christianity's tenets of Faith are exactly how America's government ought operate. Such advocates are able to cite Biblical passages justifying their call for government to be Faith tenet based. Underlying rationale, conceptually, is government is needed to counter evil and promote good. There are two axiomatic principles at work in such precis.

“In Germany, they first came for the communists, and I didn’t speak up because I wasn’t a communist. Then, they came for the Jews, and I didn’t speak up because I wasn’t a Jew … Then they came for the Catholics. I didn’t speak up then because I was a Protestant. Then they came for me, and there was no one left to speak up.”

“Our, the American People’s” media is beginning to increase Election 12026 coverage. An article contributing to such coverage speculates democrat legislative office contenders may have lost a key campaign platform plank. Affordability. Housing affordability, in particular. President Donald J. Trump says illegals have driven up housing costs. Voters might agree, come Election 2026.

It Might Occur To "Us, the American People" an uncontrolled influx of illegal immigrants, migrants, and refugees (IIMR) would drive up demand for housing. Money available, housing prices would rise accordingly. Building more houses, compared to IIMR deportation, could easily lead to drops in housing affordability. Excess inventory can drive prices down to alleviate inventory holding costs.

Given Housing Prices Drop, and other commodity prices rise slow to moderately, democrats could find themselves looking for other reasons they should replace GOP office holders and win against GOP office seekers. The one who goes the lowest wins in the old game of limbo, but in politics... well, what do you think?

Did the democrats go too low?

I could be overestimating the average Americans out there who vote democrat (you know, because their grandparents voted democrat), but I believe they have higher standards than their elected representatives and senators. Tuesday evening, the Democrat Party (now known as the Curmudgeon Party) hit rock bottom, as they choreographed their display of contempt, not just for President Trump, which there is no secret of their loathing, but their disregard for all Americans. They exhibited no feelings and zero compassion for any of the Americans present that evening.

Ok, so they believe in “illegal immigration,” does that mean they also believe in the murdering of American citizens by immigrants? Maybe they are too shallow to admit their policies are killing Americans. Because they hate President Trump does that mean they should show contempt for a 13-year old young man battling cancer? Do democrats voters never get cancer and never fall prey to violent crimes?

I've heard it said, sometimes you have to be in the gutter, "rock bottom," before you look up and reanalyze your situation. However, I don't think that's happening to the Curmudgeon Party. They relish in their hate and always seem to double down on their bad, ridiculous and foolish behavior. I'm not sure who makes the decisions for the democrats.... Uhm, I mean curmudgeons, but they certainly aren't out to boost their popularity or make them seem patriotic for America or sympathetic to Americans or even make themselves seem wise.

We're no longer in the political game of things where both parties have the same goal BUT different paths to that goal. Of course that goal should be keeping America safe, free and prosperous. It could be the two parties never did have the same goals for our nation; which is extremely sad to conclude.

I will say, however, that their behavior this last Tuesday evening, was no different than their behavior January 2018 OR January 2020. It was only five years ago when Pelosi stood as the "Ripper of the House." She arrogantly and disrespectfully tore the President's State Of The Union speech in half; one section at a time. Ok, she hates President Trump, but that was also a reflection on her hate for the office of President, all Americans, as well as her disdain for Rule of Law and the Constitution of the United States of America. She should have been severely reprimanded, kicked out of the chamber and heavily fined! ... but nothing happened.

Upgrade to paid

Remember their booing? Remember their wearing white? Remember how they loathed Rush Limbaugh being honored with the Medal of Freedom? There were other Americans there who had overcome great triumphs, including children, but the defiant democrats did nothing and Nancy ripped all their names in two. Even back then, the Curmudgeons were only moved by their own anger and defiance. If their party doesn't have complete control of all branches of government, they will rebel and cause chaos and violence. Remember the dreadful deadly summer of love in 2020!

Many believe the “anti-Trump” crowd of curmudgeons suffer from a mental illness, which many call Trump derangement syndrome (DTS), but I believe it’s way more serious than that.

They hate this country. They’ve made that quite clear with their rhetoric and with their lies. However, they do love their scheming ways of governing when they (not just the curmudgeon party) created a 4th branch of government called bureaucracy. This fourth branch is used, in large, to enrich politicians, NGOs, department heads, grant recipients, and other groups, for which We the People have no knowledge. Yet, we are the ones paying the bill!

The Curmudgeon Party is full of female Debbie-downers and their males are a bunch of “Walter” characters... just like Jeff Dunham’s puppet; happiness displayed by anyone... “ticks them off.” (I know they don’t believe in males and females, except when talking about abortion)

With all the hating and threatening speeches, the Curmudgeons are declaring a civil war against our Constitutional Republic; a few of them have actually used such language. Their supporters are going on TikTok and Instagram threatening to buy a gun and kill MAGA supporters.

Limbo can also mean things are on pause; that is not the case with the democrat-curmudgeon party. Even though they have zero leadership, there are numerous single curmudgeons vying for attention and status; the more they try, the more foolish they appear. They are all haphazardly running around doing crazy off-the-wall antics. The Curmudgeon Party are like chickens running around with their heads cut off. Speaking of chickens, someone needs to inform the curmudgeon-democrat party that YES, the chicken came first and when you slaughter 100 million chickens, you collapse the egg market.

While the democrat-curmudgeon party is in chaos, do not be fooled, they are extremely dangerous. The younger curmudgeon females dance-fighting is hilarious, but the fact that they are serious about “fighting” is something we should take very seriously. They are currently calling for violence against our President and against supporters of his administration. The only way to put an end to the democrat-curmudgeon party... is to stop electing them, and begin recalling all who are currently in office. This will need to be done on the state level.

Liberty is always in the hands of the people and if the democrat-curmudgeon party is allowed to continue, we will never again feel peace or have safety in our homeland.

~ Thomas Jefferson

President Donald J. Trump is on record telling “Us, the American People” he is fixing a mess he inherited. A mantra echoed by presidents – and not a few other elected officials – who want us to believe they are having tough times because their predecessors were either incompetent or misguided during their terms of office. Elected officials inherit nothing, public office-wise. They seek election.

Elected Officials Who Lay Blame on their predecessors might have a case. Might have a case if “We, the American People” take a hard look into mirrors and admit elected officials are no more to blame for socio-economic disarray, than are we, voters who cast votes to put them in office. We, for reasons unfathomable to clear-minded people, elect people under expectation, then complain about results.

“On every question of construction, let us carry ourselves back to the time when the Constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates, and instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, conform to the probable one in which it was passed.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

“Our, the American People” elected officials fall short of our expectations precisely because we do not strive to use our sovereign citizenry power to prompt elected officials to do our bidding, lest they get pink slips from us straight away. Given, however, our expectations are diverse and at odds, it may be impossible for elected officials to come up with policies acceptable to anyone not voting for them.

“According to George Hitchings, co-winner of the 1988 Nobel Prize in medicine, FDA’s five-year delay in approving the antibacterial drug Septra cost 80,000 lives.”

Scottish Judge And Professor, Alexander Tytler, argued democracy can not exist as a permanent form of government once people find they can vote themselves ‘largesse’ from public coffers. No American president is capable of showering Americans with prosperity. At best, America’s presidents can work to defend open economic conditions, and remain clear of people’s ability to be competitive at life.
