America's Days Are Numbered. America's days are numbered up to Inauguration Day 2025. No sooner will President-to-be Donald J. Trump complete his oath swearing him in as America's President, than America will writhe in Her death throes. Never-ending media articles forecast hopeless gloom and doom due Donald J. Trump taking America's reins mean "We, the American People" are forever lost.

A Later Article Foreboding America's Ruin deals with a writer's warning for "Us, the American People" to avoid falling into a trap President-to-be Donald J. Trump has sprung on Americans – and unsuspecting people everywhere – with polished deception and distraction. Typifying Donald J.'s craftiness was Donald J. joining President Joe Biden to call for a peaceful, orderly transition of power.

"There is nothing so bad that politics cannot make it worse."

~ Thomas Sowell

Article Writer's Message Is President-to-be Donald J. Trump will show his true colors as President Donald J. Trump when his contempt for American style freedom will come through. Lies, subterfuge, all manner of attacks on people's rights, no tolerance for opposing views, waves of incarceration for those who appear in any way to resent or resist Donald J.'s quest for unlimited, unquestioned power.

"The welfare state is the oldest con game in the world. First you take people's money away quietly, and then you give some of it back to them flamboyantly."

~ Thomas Sowell

"We, the American People," those of us inclined to see conspiracy under every bed, lurking in every cranny, would do well to consider just how much of an effort it would take for Doanld J. Trump – or any power-intoxicated would-be dictator to undermine America's independent core. If nothing else, we'd come together with our hundreds-of-millions personal firearms and rain torrential freedom.

"If politicians were serious about day care for children, instead of just sloganizing about it, nothing they could do would improve the quality of child care more than by lifting the heavy burden of taxation that forces so many families to have both parents working."

"The most fundamental fact about the ideas of the political left is that they do not work. Therefore we should not be surprised to find the left concentrated in institutions where ideas do not have to work in order to survive."

"We, the American People" who recognize America's government is powerless to do much of anything without our, sovereign citizenry, turning our collective thumbs upward, are not likely to feel as threatened as those voters and prospective voters who think America's government is all-powerful since we make it so by voting legislators in office. We vote them in, can kick them out if we stand tall.

Media Report Fallout Over “Our, the American People’s” President Joe Biden’s clemency heyday is not quieting. Planting suspicion’s seeds, one can only wonder if President Joe might have been motivated by Pope Francis’s supplication all federal death row prisoner sentences be commuted. Only just, undoubtedly, in His Holiness view of dealing with transgressions. By his positional authority.

"The danger to which the success of revolutions is most exposed, is that of attempting them before the principles on which they proceed, and the advantages to result from them, are sufficiently seen and understood."

~ Thomas Paine

How It Is "We, the American People," people anywhere, ought defer to a third party when crime and punishment are at hand, is a bit quizzical. Why they aggressed would not be justified in making sole decision if they who aggressed ought be treated in some manner for their transgression gives cause to pause. How a judge, for example, can be expected to serve up fairness for another's harm is dubious.

"Society is produced by our wants, and government by our wickedness; the former promotes our happiness positively by uniting our affections, the latter negatively by restraining our vices. The one encourages intercourse, the other creates distinctions. The first is a patron, the last a punisher."

~ Thomas Paine

It Is Not For "Us, the American People" to take law into our hands. 'T is not for anyone. So go more-or-less accepted ideas of who gets to inflict penalty of law, who doesn't. One could argue not being able to take law into one's hands is tantamount to being not allowed to defend one's self against aggression. 'Non-violence no matter situations' advocates might be inclined to disagree adamantly.

"Give to every other human being every right that you claim for yourself - that is my doctrine."

~ Thomas Paine

Fear Of Legal Reprisal May Well motivate people to refrain from, say, coming to rescue when a person is attacked. For, if a perpetrator were found not guilty in a court of law, then they who rendered help could be considered guilty of assault on a person found not guilty. Sorry lot we are, to allow they unable to defend against assault be assaulted because we hesitate to help they who are defenseless.

"Need we any other proof of their wretched management, than the excess of debts and taxes with which every nation groans, and the quarrels into which they have precipitated the world?"

~ Thomas Paine

People Hankering To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They forbid government from putting them at financial risk.

When you own property

"Our, the American People's" ever-alert media circulated an article reporting a state governor's action to fine an energy company for contamination/pollution clean-up. Article notes it will be consumers footing clean-up bill, not energy company in question. Consumers foot bill anytime government requires resource use in meeting compliance. There is no other money. Consumers pay for all. All.

"[T]he flames kindled on the Fourth of July 1776, have spread over too much of the globe to be extinguished by the feeble engines of despotism; on the contrary, they will consume these engines and all who work them."

~ Thomas Jefferson

"We, the American People" would do well, whenever government flag-wavers strut about telling one and all they (government flag-wavers) are making sure greedy people pay their fair share or they (government flag-wavers) are holding irresponsible business owners' feet to proverbial accountability fires, it is always consumers who ante up for all costs. Boils down to whose pocket shall be picked.

"I tolerate with utmost latitude the right of others to differ with me in opinion without imputing to them criminality. I know too well all the weaknesses and uncertainty of human reason to wonder at its different results."

~ Thomas Jefferson

It Would Be More Helpful and less costly to consumers – to everyone – if government zealots, in their effort to assure public safety and environmental protection, were to set preventative standards and related tests, than to take after-fact corrective action. Never enough time to do it right, always enough time to do it over. It would be reasonable for “Us, the American People” to compel government so do.

"The most awful tyranny is that of the proximate utopia where the last sins are currently being eliminated and where, tomorrow, there will be no sins because all the sinners have been wiped out."

~ Thomas Merton

Government, In Government's View, can never be too big, can never have too much control over property (wealth and choice (Liberty)). We can surmise Pope and president (cleric and legislator), along with magistrate, seek control – lawful control – to keep society from running rampant over society. Even if so, a sovereign citizenry, grounded in Liberty, has no obligation to allow government control.

"Better to dwell in freedom's hall,
With a cold damp floor and mouldering wall,
Than bow the head and bend the knee
In the proudest palace of slavery."

~ Thomas Moore

– Ronald Reagan

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to infringe upon Americans' Bill-of-Rights protections; nor do they allow culpability for another person's behavior to be ascribed to their freedom to exercise their rights. They uphold Constitutional safeguards without equivocation.
