“The precept of the Koran is perpetual war against all who deny that Mahomet is the prophet of God. The vanquished may purchase their lives by the payment of tribute; the victorious may be appeased by a false and delusive promise of peace; and the faithful follower of the prophet may submit to the imperious necessities of defeat. But the command to propagate the Moslem creed by the sword is always obligatory when it can be made effective. The commands of the prophet may be performed alike by fraud or by force.”

Controversy Over “Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump and his tariff (trade tax) policies continue fodder for debate. No sign of consensus anytime soon. Maybe never. Certainly not as long as governments use tariffs (trade taxes) to influence other government policies. Tariffs (trade taxes), no matter arguments for, arguments against, are a cost of sales for import consumers.

"We, the American People," were we of a mind to do some serious thinking about tariffs (trade taxes), would conclude tariffs are simply not necessary in a free-market world. In theory, increasing import tariffs (trade taxes) could work to create jobs, owing to demand for domestic products compared to import products. Ultimately, consumers decide product and service demand. Absent ideology vanity.

Groundbreaking New Study Finds Islamophobia May Be Partially Caused By Muslims Killing People All The Time

ISLAMOPHOBIA: An intense, educated knowledge of a Dark Ages cult that lives only for destruction of nations, property and people who are not psycho muslims. Decapitation of Christians or Jews is their highest ambition. They are brutally incurable during life.

President Donald J. Trump is on record telling “Us, the American People” tariffs (trade taxes) could fund our federal government without a need for income taxes. Maybe so. PATRIOTPOST.US: ANALYSIS FROM OUTSIDE THE BELTWAY

There Will Never Be Enough Tariffs (trade taxes) to fund government, at any level, when government expands to supervise ever more facets of people's lives. It is manifestly clear commerce funds all taxes charged for any reason. Directly or indirectly. Governments use selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R) to exact wealth. SADLT&R depletes wealth.

"Nothing is foolproof to a sufficiently talented fool." -- Dr. Steve Leathley

Your periodic reminder that a cow cannot add a single atom of carbon to the atmosphere that wasn't previously removed from the atmosphere by a plant.

So, cows cannot increase atmospheric CO₂, they merely recycle CO₂. It's not a new source of carbon.

And without cows, bacteria would, over time, rot plant fibers and return the exact same amount of carbon to the atmosphere.

But grazing cows help grass sod fix carbon in the soil, thus increasing soil fertility over time.

The climate crusade is built on scientific fraud.

And many of the proposed solutions, like reducing cows, are directly causing much of the soil degradation and forest fires (because of ungrazed fuel in the forests), which activists and dishonest scientists then blame on "climate change".

Several years ago, our little community started a community choir, specifically for the Christmas season. There was a tradition years ago that the local High School performed the Christmas portion of Handel’s Messiah...every Christmas. It was decided that it was a good tradition and we have continued it. Not only is the music of Handel’s Messiah challenging, but the lyrics are also simply scripture. However, there is nothing simple about the scripture and the story of God’s salvation plan for all people. As scripture tells the greatest Love Story ever told, Handel put each word of the scripture to music.

The information I’m sharing here is from this website:

<https://haventoday.org/blog/handels-messiah-lyrics-verse-references/>

The lyrics (the libretto) were not written by Handel himself, but that they are simply Scripture texts arranged by Handel's friend, Charles Jennens.

In a time of rising secularism and humanism in England, Jennens was a member of the "Society for the Propagation of the Gospel" and a passionate evangelical believer. He believed that putting the gospel to music would communicate its truth, not just intellectually, but at a deep heart level.

I'm certain most of you will recognize the words of many of the songs in "The Messiah."

For Unto Us a Child is Born and The Hallelujah Chorus are usually familiar to most. The Hallelujah Chorus is actually in the Easter Section of "The Messiah," however, it is considered the national anthem of Christianity and audiences are invited to stand during this song.

The following song (scripture) made me think about the evil we see in the world from the hearts of those who do not know this Good News, for which we celebrate each December. They know about the secular side of the holiday we call Christmas, but they lack that personal knowledge, belief and understanding of the Christ child; they walk in darkness.

I'm certainly no professional musician or singer, but I get excited about singing this music. I invited a very good friend of mine (as I do every year) and she made the comment, why do you sing the same music each year? I told her because it's "The Messiah" – that's what Christmas is about. Yes, we love Jingle Bells, and other songs and hymns, but the Messiah is scripture alive in song; God's prophecy fulfilled!

At the bottom of this article, I've listed the songs from Part 1 (The Christmas portion of The Messiah), but I want to concentrate on #10 and #11.

"For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. (Isaiah 60: 2-3) “The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; and they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.” (Isaiah 9: 2)

Our nation is in a battle between good and evil; many are walking in the darkness. Today it was laid upon my heart to say a prayer for Rosie O'Donnell for she is one soul who is walking in the darkness. It's sad to see her face, each line is filled with hate for President Trump, but he doesn't deserve her hate and if we were to question her, she wouldn't be able to give you any specifics of her insane obsession with President Trump. Her Trump Derangement Syndrome is hurting her and her daughter; it is not hurting anyone else. If Rosie loved her daughter as much as she hates President Trump, perhaps she'd give up her obsession. Her hate is causing her great personal pain, her hate is certainly not helping the United States of America, and her hate is not keeping President Trump up at night. Rosie's hate is keeping her in the gross darkness.

America was established by believers in the Christ Child, the Messiah and in Judeo Christian values. Many, like Rosie, deny the light and remain in the darkness. They don't have to stay there. It's important for all of us who are believers to share the gospel, to share the light. We can sing the gospel, as in Handel's Messiah, we can live the gospel and share that light and we can recognize our foundation as a nation and return to being that "shining city on a hill," sharing the light with all the world.

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:6)

If America would allow our government to be upon His shoulders, the "Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising." It sounds like World Peace!

We discuss each and every weekday on CSC Talk Radio how We the People can Bring America Home© or as President Trump might say, Make America Great Again. America will not be great again until we are finally home to our roots of Judeo Christian heritage and stop walking in the darkness.

Below are the scriptures as they appear in the Christmas portion of Handel's Messiah.

1. Sinfonia – (Instrumental – no scripture)

2. Accompagnato (Tenor) – “Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.” (Isaiah 40: 1–3)

3. Air (Tenor) – “Ev’ry valley shall be exalted, and ev’ry mountain and hill made low: the crooked straight and the rough places plain:” (Isaiah 40: 4)

4. Chorus – “And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. (Isaiah 40: 5)

5. Accompagnato (Bass) – “Thus saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts: Yet once, a little while and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea, and the dry land. And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come.” (Haggai 2: 6–7); “The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.” (Malachi 3:1)

6. Air (Bass) – “But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner’s fire.” (Malachi 3: 2)

7. Chorus – “And he shall purify the sons of Levi, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.” (Malachi 3: 3)

8. Recitative (Alto) – “Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel, God with us.” (Isaiah 7: 14; Matthew 1: 23)

9. Air (mezzo-soprano) and Chorus – “O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain. O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!” (Isaiah 40: 9); “Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.” (Isaiah 60: 1)

10. Accompagnato (bass) – “For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.” (Isaiah 60: 2-3)

11. Air (bass) – “The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; and they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.” (Isaiah 9: 2)

12. Chorus – “For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.” (Isaiah 9: 6)

13. Pifa Pastoral Sinfonia – (Instrumental – no scripture)

14a. Recitative (soprano) – “There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.” (Luke 2: 8)

14b. Accompagnato (soprano) “And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.” (Luke 2: 9)

15. Recitative (soprano) – “And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.” (Luke 2:10–11)

16. Accompagnato (soprano) – “And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,” (Luke 2:13)

17. Chorus – “Chorus Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will toward men.” (Luke 2: 14)

18. Air (soprano) – “Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is the righteous Saviour, and he shall speak peace unto the heathen.” (Zechariah 9: 9–10)

19. Recitative (mezzo-soprano) – “Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.” (Isaiah 35: 5–6)

20. Duet (mezzo-soprano/soprano) – “He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: and he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young. (Isaiah 40:11); “Come unto him, all ye that labour, come unto him, that are heavy laden, and he will give you rest. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of him; for he is meek and lowly of heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.” (Matthew 11: 28–29)

(From Part II – The Hallelujah Chorus)

44. Chorus – “Hallelujah: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.” (Revelation 19:6); “The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.” (Revelation 11:15); “King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.” (Revelation 19:16) “Hallelujah!”

Merry Christmas America!

Different 'Leaders,' Different Messages. An American cleric tells “Us, the American People,” and Christians who care to hear, Christians fail when they call for ‘Christ in Christmas,’ but are remiss in not having Christ in daily life. An indictment of hypocrisy. A warning to do better. In Merry Ole England media report England’s King’s Christmas message is for people to pull together in uncertainty.

“I have thought that a man of tolerable abilities may work great changes if he first forms a good plan and makes the execution of that same plan his whole study and business.”

~ Benjamin Franklin

“We, the American People” could, if we so choose, pay visits to sundry people and places to get some idea of how we are to believe and behave to have a snowball’s chance in hell of achieving a modicum of happiness. Near without exception, they who presume to know would have us surrender virtually everything we own for their use – to make lives of others, who are more needy, more durable.

“The devil can cite Scripture for his purpose.”

~ Shakespeare

The government can't profit off of self-sufficient people.

“Our, the American People’s” ‘education’ system, arguably, has failed miserably in preparing us for fro self-reliance and self-government. Must be so, or, arguably, neither Pope nor President (legislator nor cleric) would counsel us, relentlessly, to change our wicked ways and do as they beckon us to do. Legislator by making laws, clerics by threatening us with unending, unbearable torture of perdition.

“Men are most apt to believe what they least understand.”

~ Montaigne

We, Christian, Muslim, Taxpayer, ordinary people everywhere, would be smart to take a hard look at who, predominantly, brought on tribulation and suffering as recorder in history’s annals. ‘T was not common folk eking out a living. ‘T was they in authority, ambitious and arrogant, who took up force to cause others to obey or suffer tyranny’s merciless wrath. In modern times we elect tyranny.

“When a well-packaged web of lies has been sold gradually to the masses over generations, the truth will seem utterly preposterous and its speaker a raving lunatic.”

~ Dresden James

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to overrule Commonwealth/State (10th Amendment) Sovereignty as determined and defined by citizens of those respective Commonwealths and States. They uphold limited government without equivocation.

“For all the sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these, “It might have been!””

~ John Greenleaf Whittier
